IRVING APPLEBY MISSING FROM SCOW IN COURTENAY BAY; SEARCH VAIN

Was at Work There Last Night; Fear He Has Been Drowned.

Was Irving Appleby drowned in the waters of Courtenay Bay last night, if not where he disappeared to, are the questions which are agitating the minds of the staff of the St. John Dock and Shipbuilding Co. since about eleven o'clock last night, when he was found to be missing from a scow on which he had been working.

Grappling operations have been carried on in the Bay and a search made on land but up to press time no trace of the missing man had been found. The local detective force have been notified and they have taken up the search as well as the officials of the Company.

Mr. Appleby, who is an unmarried man about 23 or 24 years of age has been employed with the Company in their dredging operations and, it was said, last night about nine o'clock was placed on one of the scows to do some work. About eleven o'clock a boat was sent to take him off the scow but there was no sign of life aboard. Search was made of the scow but there was nothing to indicate what had become of the young man. In the hope that if he had fallen into the water, he had been able to reach the shore, enquiries were made but no trace of him could be found.

It is feared that while engaged in his work the unfortunate young man lost his footing and found a watery grave in the Bay. It was about low tide at the time and it was thought if he was drowned the body might have been carried up toward the Marsh Bridge and in this hope grappling operations will be carried on for a time.

IN FINE ORDER FOR WINTER PORT

Commissioner Bullock Says Good Progress is Being Made.

Commissioner Bullock said today that good progress was being made with the repairs at the West Side docks and sheds and when the winter port season opened the plant would be in as good shape as it ever was. A new foundation had been placed under No. 2 shed and this was reported as being the floor stronger than when it was first built and no repairs would be necessary there for some time.

A new loading platform was being constructed on the south side of the pier, from the harbor face at No. 1 to the rear of No. 4 berth and a considerable amount of work was being done on the trestle at No. 1. This latter work was about half completed.

On the east side new sills were being placed under the pier and a new floor laid. This work was about three quarters done.

DEATH OF J. LEE FLEWELLING

J. Lee Flewelling, one of the best known of the older residents in the lower part of Kings County died this morning at his residence in the village of Rothesay. He had not been ill for any length of time but his heart action had troubled him recently and his friends feared the worst from his last attack.

Mr. Flewelling was 72 years old. A year or so ago Mrs. Flewelling died and since then he made his home with his nephews Lewis Merritt and his niece Mrs. Renforth Robertson. His was a life of activity. The most of it he lived in the parish of Rothesay at Gondola Point where he kept a general store, was postmaster, magistrate and held other minor offices necessary in any community. He was once a candidate for the legislature supporting the Conservative party but was defeated.

Always interested in anything that affected the place and the people, his death will leave a void hard to fill.

REMEMBER WHEN—

Henry J. Thorne was elected Mayor of St. John, on Tuesday, April 12, 1887, by 63 majority. The other candidates were, Messrs. Barker, Quigley, Sears, Allan and Berryman. They finished in the order given. The total vote was 2,629 out of 3,576 qualified.

Hugh J. McCormack broke the world record for a mile in the Victoria rink on April 5, 1887 in a five mile race when he defeated Frank Dowd of Montreal, skating the first mile in 2 minutes and 58 seconds, and finished the five miles in 18 minutes and 40 seconds.

A boxing bout between Jack Power and Joseph Tole in the Roller Rink went four rounds, when Policeman Ring stopped it saying that it looked like a fight instead of a boxing match. The officer's action was looked as in no wise justifiable by the 1,000 spectators, on Monday April 16, 1887.

First number of the Saturday Gazette was issued by John A. Bowe, 21 Canterbury street, on Saturday, April 30, 1887.

D. W. McCormick leased the Waverly, now Victoria Hotel, King Street, May 3, 1887.

Famous Writer Here Monday to Speak at Imperial

Thanks to the Women's Canadian Club and the co-operation of the Imperial Theatre St. John, the public will have a chance to hear L. M. Montgomery (Mrs. Ewan MacDonald) author of the famous "Anne" books read from her own works next Monday afternoon. This noted writer, one of the foremost of Canadian authors, is at present visiting her old home in Prince Edward Island. She is to arrive here on Friday to visit Dr. and Mrs. Mahoney in Princess street and go on to Toronto on Monday evening.

The Women's Canadian Club is giving the general public an opportunity to hear Miss Montgomery, naturally thinking the wide popularity of her books and her admirable personality will appeal strongly to the citizens. The reading will be given after the second show, at 4:30 in the afternoon, and Mrs. W. E. Raymond, the club's president said this morning that those attending the second show could remain for the readings, while for those going after the show, to hear the reading alone, there would be no charge. Seats are to be reserved for members of the club who show membership tickets, but that the public in addition to club members, will make up a large audience the club feels certain "Anne of Green Gables" does not come to St. John every day.

As Hiram Sees It

"When Hanner seen in the paper that the school board had got behind them there kindergardens," said Mr. Hiram Hornbourn to the Times reporter, "he had to set right down to write to one woman she knewed that had been workin' fer 'em ever since afore the first one was started. Hanner says a good thing is always started by some women—an they get laughed at when they talk about it, but they go ahead an' work like beavers till they get it going. Then they hev to work still harder to carry it on—fer folks ginnally still says it's just a fad. But bimely, says Hanner, the folks wakes up an' looks the thing over an' sees it hain't got no horns—an' they keep on watchin' till after a spell they see the women was right in the first place—an' ort to hev got more help. That's the way with the kindergardens. Hanner says—an she's proud of that school board fer takin' hold so there needn't be no fears of 'em bein' closed up. She'd write to Judge McKeown an' ask him to tell 'em so if she thought he wouldn't think she was too forward. You hain't got no idee how much we're tickled out to the Settlement; when you do a good thing here in town, No, sir—your hain't!"
