FAREWELL PRESENTATION.

The young lady employees of the New Brunswick Telephone Company gathered on Saturday evening in one of the rooms of the telephone building to bid farewell to one of their associates, Miss Lily Hall, who left the employ of the company on Saturday to become a nurse.

To Miss Hall, who has been employed in the telephone office for several years and held the position of supervisor, was presented a purse containing a substantial sum of money by Miss Annie Taylor, the chief operator, on behalf of the entire operating staff, all of whom expressed regret at her departure, although they wished her every success in her new occupation. Miss Hall was well liked by her associates and took an active part in the social activities of the staff.
She left last evening for Providence (R.
I.), where she will enter the Rhode Island Hospital to commence her training to become a nurse.

Thousands of Calendars Given Away

If every man, woman and child who reads this advertisement will take this paper to any merchant, make a cash purchase of one dollar or more, ask him for a calendar, or his reason for not giving one. Then ask him if the purchaser's trade is worth a cent or two a month or just a happy New Year. Then ask him to read the following:

Now Is the Time to Give Away Calendars

Some Reasons:

Nearly half the calendars given away before Christmas are lost in the Christmas rush, sent away as Christmas presents or covered up by other calendars.
