THE BOY QUESTION HERE

Rev. W. H. Barnackough preached a strong sermon in Centenary church last evening in which he said that fraud, perjury and impurity were constantly winked at in St. John and that many men would starve for bread to buy liquor.

Rev. R. J. Houghton said there was a growing lack of recognition of God in the homes of the erring boys.

Rev. F. S. Porter thought that all children and parents should be made to feel responsibility.

PEARLS OF GREAT PRICE
(London Tilt-Bits)

There has lately been exhibited at a court jeweller's in Bond Street a striking collection of pearls. One magnificent rope is valued at no less than £60,000; while for a single pear-shaped drop pearl, perfectly symmetrical $14,000 is asked. But probably the most exquisite article in the collection is a single necklace of gems of extraordinary hue, the matching and gradation being superb. The cost of this article is $28,000.

But the owners want a watch which it would be impossible to replace it with an exact duplicate. Black and pink pearls also found a place in the exhibition; whilst a passing reference must be made to a pair of button shaped earrings valued at $2,000.

One of the representatives of the firm gives a word of advice upon the preservation and treatment of pearls. Upon no account, he said, should they be locked up in a safe or other dark place for lengthy periods, since such treatment soon causes them to lose their "life" and become dull.

If their fair owners find that for some reason or other they cannot wear them outside their garments they should make a point of wearing them underneath their dress, next to the skin. Constant contact with the human skin gives to the stones light, lustre, gloss and sheen. The best possible way to keep pearls in a perfect state of preservation, as well as to prolong their life, is to wear them always both by night and by day.

RECENT DEATHS

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Andrew Lemmon, which occurred on Saturday at the residence of her son, William J. Lemmon, 20 Millidge avenue. She was in the 88th year of her age and had been ill only a few days. She leaves to mourn, one son, and one daughter—the latter, Mrs. Florence Gray, of Worcester, Mass. Mrs. Lemmon was formerly a resident of Quebec county but came here with her husband some years ago to reside. Following the death of her husband, four years ago, she went to live with her son.

Many friends in St. John city and county will learn with deep regret of the death of James Whitley which occurred yesterday at his residence, Silver Falls, after a short illness. The deceased was superintendent of the Catholic cemetery for 38 years and had been engaged in his duties up to last Wednesday when he was taken ill with pneumonia. The late Mr. Whitley was born in Ireland 38 years ago, and up to the time of his last illness had been a remarkably active man despite his advanced age.

Three daughters and four sons survive: Catherine, Margaret, Nellie, Michael and Richard at home, and James and Joseph of New York. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The very many friends of Miss Emily Adele McAvenny, younger daughter of Dr. A. F. McAvenny will be surprised to learn of her death which occurred yesterday at her father's residence, 169 Charlotte street. The deceased lady was only in the 22nd year of her age and had been ill for a period extending over six months. She was popular among a large circle of friends and acquaintances by whom she will be greatly missed. Beside her mother, Dr. A. F. McAvenny she is survived by one sister, Miss Helen Marie at home.

The funeral will take place from her father's residence 169 Charlotte street on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

"Tell Irishmen To Bury Differences"

Redmond's Message Brought to Boston By Humphrey T. O'Sullivan

(James T. Sullivan in Boston Globe.)

The Irishmen of America if they have any little differences, to bury them now and unite in the great volunteer movement that is resurrection nationality and patriotism throughout their native land.

Heard that message from John E. Redmond to the Irishmen of this country, Humphrey O'Sullivan of Lowell, stepped off the steamship Caronia this morning. He went abroad early in June to learn at first hand how the home rule movement was getting along, and he brings the first authoritative news of conditions abroad relative to home rule.

In London he met Mr. Redmond and a large number of the Nationalist members of parliament. At a luncheon with Mr. Redmond, John Dillon and Joseph Devlin, he went over the situation thoroughly, and as a result, instead of remaining abroad three months, as he had planned, Mr. O'Sullivan returned to spread the agitation for aiding the volunteer movement.

After he had given the matter careful consideration, he sent the following letter to the Irish leader:

"Royal Victoria Hotel, Cork:
"June 13, 1914.
"Dear Mr. Redmond: I have the appeal which you made to our race in America, and I am anxious at once to respond to it. I am just now paying a visit to Ireland, and I am impressed beyond measure at the strength and vitality of the Irish Volunteer movement. Your recognition of the movement and the practical and earnest support which you have given now make it incumbent on every Irishman in every part of the world to give prompt and practical assistance, and I therefore enclose you check for one hundred pounds. On my return to America I trust to be able to organize further assistance, and I am sure that you will use the strength and fidelity of our race in the United States.

"HUMPHREY O'SULLIVAN."

Armed in August

In reply he received a letter stating that in August, when Mr. O'Sullivan returned, he would find an armed force in Ireland, showing that the leaders are working hard to make the movement a success.

"The volunteer movement is one of the most splendid things with which I have ever been in touch," said Mr. O'Sullivan, "it is spreading all over Ireland, young men and old taking it up. There are more volunteers than there would ever be of any necessity of using."

"This movement is not of the Penian type. In those days men were not allowed to carry arms. There is no prohibition on carrying arms or drilling in Ireland now, but there is an embargo on arms. But if the money is raised for the movement, it will be possible to get the arms in some way or other.

"Men are not needed. Many of the volunteers formerly were army officers, and as drill masters they are the best drilled Ireland through to its long aspired ambition, home rule.

CELEBRATING THE TWELFTH

Orangemen at Church Here—The Lorneville Gathering on Saturday Evening

With rain falling steadily, members of St. John District Orange Lodge held a church parade yesterday going from their hall in Germain street to Leinster street Baptist church where Rev. W. Camp preached a sermon appropriate to the Twelfth observance. He spoke upon the principles of the Orange order and what it stood for, and made reference to the matter between the members and the minister of militia. At the close of the sermon there was an unusual demonstration in a church, for the Orangemen present broke into a round of applause.

There were over 500 in the parade, all in full regalia, the lodges represented being No. 1, Verner; No. 2, Eldon; No. 3, York; No. 7, Gideon; No. 11, True Blue; No. 24, Johnston; No. 27, Havelock; and No. 141, Dominion. There were also representatives of the "Prestige Boys," Queen's Perceptor Royal Black Knights of Ireland (62), Trinity Perceptor (507) and the St. John County Royal Scarted Chapter. The marshal was Isaac Mercer and the procession, which was witnessed by a large number of interested people, was headed by the band of the Sons of England. At the church the ushers were Robert Willis, district M.; C. B. Ward, P. D. M.; I. Mercer, D. C. of C.; William Campbell, P. C. M.; Arthur Harvey, secretary of No. 2; and J. G. Sullivan, P. D. M. A number of ladies of the L. O. M. were present at the church door.

In commemoration of the "Glorious Twelfth" on Saturday a complimentary dinner was tendered by the Orangemen of Lorneville to Hon. J. D. Hazen, J. B. M. Baxter, M. P. P.; T. B. Carson, M. P. P.; and C. E. Logan. Those present included Henry Beard, worshipful master, and Councillors Bryant and Golding. George H. Galbraith, president of the Fishermen's Protective Association, presided.

Hon. Mr. Hazen was the chief speaker, and addresses were also given by Messrs. Carson, Bryant, Bryant and Golding. Commissioner Wigmore and C. B. Lockhart, M. P. P. Mr. Hazen spoke of the work of the marine and fisheries department referring to the success of the hatcheries established and announced

SERIOUS WEST END FIRE

The main building of the St. John Milling Company at the head of Rodney wharf, West Side, was destroyed by fire which was first seen about eight o'clock yesterday morning by Policeman Watson. An alarm was rung in from box 214 and a telephone call was sent to the East Side for assistance. The loss is estimated at $45,000 with $20,000 insurance. The heavy rainfall helped to keep the fire down and good work on the part of the firemen saved the adjoining buildings. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A. L. Fowler is president of the company and W. H. Fowler manager.

The president said yesterday that the mill would probably be rebuilt and that the new structure would be made fireproof by a covering of metal sheeting.

The grain contained in the mill included 6,000 bushels of corn, 2,500 bushels of oats, 1,000 bushels of wheat, 2,000 bushels of barley, 7,000 bags of feed and meal and a small amount of whole wheat flour.
