SHOWS A SURPLUS

Balance on Right Side of Harbor Account—Some Necessary Work

A net surplus of $4,063.33 of receipts over expenditures is shown in the synopsis of the harbor wharves account which was presented to the city commissioners this morning by H. B. Schofield, commissioner of harbors and ferries. As this is a new account, a comparison with last year's results is not easily available but it is understood that this shows a substantial increase over the revenue for 1911.

Commissioner Schofield reported that the old C. P. R. wharf in West St. John, which was left exposed by the removal of the end section when the wharf for the new government wharf were being put in place, has suffered extensive damage from the recent storms. Temporary repairs are needed immediately and the wharf will have to be repaired permanently in the spring.

The end of the Magee wharf, adjoining the east side ferry floats, is also in need of repairs to prevent it from coming over on the piling at the entrance to the floats. This work will also have to be undertaken promptly.

Some time was given this morning to a discussion of rentals in buildings owned by the city, chiefly in Lancaster, and it is thought that increases in the rents will have to be made. Nothing definite was decided upon.

TRIBUTE PAID FORMER ST. JOHN CLERGYMAN

The Charlottetown Patriot, of Tuesday last, tells of the presentation of addresses and gifts of gold to Rev. Thos. Fullerton and Mrs. Fullerton by the congregation of St. James' Presbyterian church at its annual meeting. Rev. Mr. Fullerton, who is a former pastor of Calvin church, in this city, has been in charge of the church in Charlottetown for twenty years, and the Patriot notes that the last year was the best in the history. Their congregation. The presentation to Mr. Fullerton was made by Lieut.-Governor Rogers, and beside the address, there was a little silver barrel, suitably engraved and filled with gold pieces. Mrs. Fullerton received a beautiful leather handbag and a purse of gold from the ladies of the congregation. The Patriot in an editorial paragraph pays a very high tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton, declaring that the pastor of St. James' "has been worth his weight in gold to this community."

WANT ALL AT THE MEETING TUESDAY

Board of Trade, Campaign And Some of the Results to Be Attained

At the dinner of Tuesday evening, the issue of a "greater St. John" will be laid before the business men and citizens with such depth of thought, breadth of vision and clearness that it cannot but make the hearer better for having heard and wiser in the spirit and needs of our community.

It is to be hoped that every citizen who can arrange to be in the city next Tuesday evening will attend the meeting. It means getting together; getting together means pulling together; pulling together means strength and efficiency. This is one night of the entire year that has been set aside as a "getting-together-night" and showing appreciation by being in attendance at this meeting is the very least that any one could do for the city.

There may be some things outlined in the platform adopted at the Friday luncheon in which everyone may not be deeply interested, but there is one single department which is calculated to mean a million of dollars to St. John and to the Province of New Brunswick. This department is that having in charge immigration and rural affairs. It is a problem that will take several years to work out, but it can be solved.

The western dominion organizations have directed their activities to farm development more than to any other department of organization work with a result that the great plains which were barren a few years ago are now dotted with thousands of farm homes. The work of bringing in new industries is a work that it is believed will appeal to every man who has something to sell, because he is the first to enjoy the benefits of an increased payroll for the city. The campaign promoters call on all to get close to the machinery in the workshop of the board of trade and help make the wheels of progress move faster and see that this workshop turns out the kind of an output that this community needs.

CASE AGAINST CAPTAIN

Matter of Schooner Sallie E. Ludlam May Be Settled—Today's Police Court

The preliminary hearing in the case of Captain Frank of the schooner Sallie E. Ludlam, charged with stealing some $100 from D. J. Purdy, was taken up in the police court this morning. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the prisoner. Mr. Purdy said he had advanced the captain more than $100 to pay the crew, but that he had not done so. Mr. Mullin asked the witnesses if the money were returned to him would he proceed with the case. Mr. Purdy replied that he did not wish to prosecute but that he would be willing to make a settlement. The hearing was then adjourned until Monday morning. His Honor said that he would allow the prisoner out on bail if he could provide good sureties.

One prisoner charged with drunkenness was fined $4 or ten days in jail, another $8 or thirty days in jail, and a third $8 or fifty days in jail. An old Indian charged with drunkenness was remanded.

Harry Corrigan, charged with drunkenness and also with destroying property in the Union depot, was fined $8 or two months in jail on the first charge and $20 or two months in jail on the second.

E. Hipwell, charged with being drunk, resisting the police and also with assaulting John Martin, pleaded guilty to drunkenness but said that he did not know anything of the other charges. He was remanded.

Harry Compton, arrested a few days ago on the charge of being drunk and also interfering with people, was fined $8 or two months in jail.

Wallace Stevens and Allan Alberts, charged with fighting on the West Side, were again before the court. Stevens had been out on deposit and when he appeared this morning His Honor remanded him to jail, telling him that he did not think he was in a fit condition to give evidence.
