

RECORD OF PAST YEAR.

ATTENDANCE.

During the winter term there were in attendance at the Institute 216 pupils;—108 girls and 108 boys;—101 from the town and 115 from the country. Of the country pupils 68 were from the county of Perth, 20 from Middlesex, 14 from Huron, 5 from Oxford, 4 from Lambton, 1 from Kent, 1 from York, 1 from Victoria, and 1 from Hastings.

SENIOR MATRICULATION.

Three of the Institute students passed the First Year's Examination of the University of Toronto, taking the following honors:

S. K. MARTIN—First-class in Mathematics and Second-class in English.

G. D. WILSON—Second-class in Classics.

G. E. MORPHY—Second-class in Classics.

JUNIOR MATRICULATION.

Fourteen students of the Institute passed the Junior Matriculation Examination of the University of Toronto. Six took full matriculation and eight a partial course. Eleven honors were obtained.

MARY B. MILLER—First-class honors in French and German and second-class in History and Geography.

ANNIE POOK—First-class in French and second-class in English.

WM. STEPHEN—First-class in Mathematics and second-class in History and Geography.

JAS. R. HAMILTON—First-class in English.

D. W. JAMESON.

C. P. CLARK. (One year in Brantford).

Maggie Bonis—Second-class honors in English, French, History and Geography.

Alice Wilson—Passed in two groups.

Grace E. Mitchell

Lily Cameron

Lizzie Hillary

Lizzie Irvine

Sara Livingstone

Mary Stuart

} Passed in one group.

Only one school in the Province passed more candidates at the Ladies' Local Examination.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION.

Fifty-five students of the Institute were successful at this examination. Nearly 70 per cent. of the candidates passed. On the results of this examination also St. Marys ranked second among the 108 High Schools and Collegiate Institutes of the Province. The following is the list, with the grade of certificate obtained:

INTERMEDIATE A.

James P. Kennedy, Charles Kerr, Charles O'Donnell, Aaron Reynolds, Bessie Ross, Alice Wilson, Maggie Dunn, Lizzie Irvine, Sara Livingstone.

INTERMEDIATE B.

Nathan Doupe, Walter S. Ferguson, Peter Gowan, Colin Clark, Thos. M. Harrison, Moses E. Haynes, Ephraim Irvine, Harry Shoff, John T. Wren, Geo. Wilkie, Jennie Martin, Esther G. Mitchell, Lena Pierce, Annie Shea, Jennie Sterritt, Laura Bonis, Lily Cameron, Rebecca J. Dickie, Maggie Egan, Minnie Foster, Lizzie Hillary, Tina Hamil, Alice M. Lane, Maggie Lumsden, Mary Stuart, Clara Vosper, Sara Walton, Charlotte A. Whitfield, Emma Cameron, Annie Watson.

INTERMEDIATE.

John Bothwell, Cyrus Callender, Jas. Davis, Jas. Fraser, Andrew A. Knox, Wesley McGuffin, Phil T. McLaughlin, W. McTaggart, John D. Watson, Mary Bell, Carrie Hillyard, Maggie Headrick, Mina Lennox, Annie V. Wilson, Jas. Norris, Jas. Dempsey.

The names on this list are not arranged in the order of merit.

CLASSES FOR 1882-3.

COURSES OF STUDY.

The programme of studies is arranged with the following objects in view:

1. To give a good English Education.
2. To give a good Classical Education.
3. To prepare for Matriculation at the different Universities of Ontario.
4. To prepare for Teachers' Certificates of all grades.
5. To prepare for the preliminary Law and Medical Examinations.
6. To prepare for the Local Examinations for Women.

LOWER SCHOOL.

I.—The subjects of study which are obligatory upon all High School pupils in the Lower School are:

1. English Grammar.
2. English Literature.
3. Composition.
4. Dictation.
5. History and Geography.
6. Arithmetic and Book-Keeping.
7. Drawing.
8. Drill (for boys) and Calisthenics (for girls).

II.—The subjects of study which are optional, but which all pupils are recommended to take up are:

1. Algebra.
2. Euclid.
3. Botany.

III.—The optional subjects, of which a pupil may select one or more, are:

1. Natural Philosophy.
2. Chemistry.
3. Latin.
4. Greek.
5. French.
6. German.
7. Physiology and Hygiene.
8. Music.

UPPER SCHOOL.

In the case of the pupils in the Upper School who are not preparing for the University or other examinations, any parent or guardian, after consultation with the Principal, and with his approval, is at liberty to select for his child or ward one or more of the following subjects, as may best suit the purpose of such pupil, viz.:

1. English Language and Literature.
2. History.
3. Arithmetic and Algebra.
4. Any of the following:

French,	Geography,
German,	Natural Philosophy,
Latin,	Chemistry,
Greek,	Botany.