PRINCIPAL AND AGENT.

Sale of horse—Undisclosed principal—Implied authority of agent to warrant—Stallion sold for breeding purposes — Implied warranty.] — The plaintiff was a saw-mill owner and farmer residing in Ontario. He gave a stallion into the custody of M., a horse dealer, to bring to Manitoba with other horses which he had, and he told M. to sell the horse to the best advantage. He gave M. no authority to warrant, but left the selling and price entirely in his hands. The horse was Canadian-bred, but from imported Clydesdale stock. M. brought the horse to Manitoba and sold him to the defendants for
