To the R. W. Grand Lodge of Canada West, I. O. O. F. :

OFFICERS REPRESENTATIVES AND BROTHERS : According to ancient usage it now becomes my duty to render an account of my stewardship for the past year. Notwithstanding the many self-promises I had made to try and do all I could both by writing and visiting the several Lodges in and under this jurisdiction, my hopes and plans were sadly frustrated by that dread element "fire," in consequence of which there was entailed upon me such a vast amount of work and attention, as prevented me from carrying out what I had fondly hoped I should have had the honor of doing. Nevertheless, brothers, I can assure you that I was not asleep as to the interests of our beloved Order, but did all I could as far as my ability and time allowed to advance the glorious cause.

Those Lodges I have visited are flourishing. Everywhere I was affectionately received and hospitably entertained, and I must say here that I see no other organization that equals ours in social merits. Odd Fellows, everywhere I meet them seem to feel their duty summed up in the golden rule "to love God, and their neighbor as themselves."
