ROOSEVELT TO HUNT BIG GAME ABROAD

Will Travel Extensively After Retirement so as Not to Bother Taft

Mr. Roosevelt's plan is to see some of the rugged and little-frequented portions of foreign lands, as well as to travel the beaten track of the tourist. He will hunt big game, too.

It was at the recent dinner of the Boone and Crockett Club in this city that the president last told of his intentions for next year. It is expected that the "Summer Capitol" at Oyter Bay will be opened for business before the end of June. It is the president's intention to remain at the White House until the return from the Chicago convention have been received, but it is likely that Mrs. Roosevelt will have the family settled in the old estate before the president reaches there.

It is predicted that the usual regime
