

PROVINCIAL NEWS

EDMUNSTON, N. B., April 16.—The first town election was held here today, the result being the election of the full improvement ticket, consisting of Samuel E. Burpee for mayor, with Dr. C. G. Main, Dr. J. A. Guy, A. Lawson, L. A. Dugal, F. X. Carlier, Napoleon Dube, Jos. Michael and Jos. Martin for aldermen.

Mr. Dube led the poll while Burpee's majority over LaForest for mayor was 100.

The town is to be congratulated on having chosen such an able and capable lot of men to attend to its interests.

JACKSONVILLE, N. B., April 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark, accompanied by their daughter, Nellie, returned from Houlton, where they have been spending the winter, and are now occupying their residence here.

Last Monday a child of Gilbert Palmer fell through the barn loft injuring himself severely.

On Tuesday Dr. Hand was telephoned for to attend Charles Wheeler, who was suddenly seized with an attack of paralysis. There is little hope of his recovery. All his family are home except his son Wilfred.

Miss Nellie Clarke, who has been very ill, is able to be out again.

Mr. Cronk, at one time teacher of the Grafton school and later a student of the U. N. B., assumed charge of the school here on Monday, the 16th inst. He is an efficient teacher, and his disciplinary, whose scholarly attainments are well used in the training of the youth under his care.

Charles Plummer is daily expected home from Butte City, Mont., where he is to spend the summer at Fort Fairfield.

Ernest Plummer has been visiting in Toronto.

ST. ANDREWS, April 11.—In compliance with application made to the town council by P. Kennedy & Co., live stable men, a plot 30 by 60 feet adjoining their stable was leased to them yesterday at auction for a term of four years, at one dollar per year.

Kennedy & Co. intend building an extension to their stable to accommodate their growing business in the live line.

George J. Clarke, M. P., drove here from St. Stephen on Sunday to visit his friend, F. P. McCaul.

Capt. Nelson M. Clarke was the purchaser of the Watson farm, real estate, east end of Water street.

HAMPTON, Kings Co., April 11.—A preliminary school election of Sunday school was held last evening in the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. B. Glover in the chair, to make arrangements for the gathering of delegates to be held in the Village Baptist Church, on Monday and Tuesday, May 8th and 9th. These will be the opening sessions of the second annual town of the Provincial Sunday School Association. Some forty-five or fifty delegates representing the Evangelical Sunday schools of the county, are expected to be present, and at last night's meeting Rev. Messrs. Glover, Spidell and Fulton were appointed a committee to secure entertainment for those who will attend.

Rev. Mr. Glover is chairman, and to him should be sent the names of delegates, together with information as to the time and means by which they will arrive, so that they may be met and shown to their temporary homes. The choir are to meet and assist Mr. Talbot, who, as last year, will have charge of the musical exercises. The hymn book to be used is the collection of Tuller & Meredith.

The chief speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Blackman of Boston, whose reputation as a speaker on topics connected with Sunday school work, is more than local. He will be assisted by the Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary, and the ministers of the county.

EDMUNSTON, N. B., April 11.—The first election for mayor and aldermen of this town, recently incorporated, took place on Monday. Two full tickets were in the field and a great deal of interest was taken in the contest. The following are the town council as chosen in yesterday's election: Mayor, Samuel E. Burpee; aldermen, F. X. Carlier, Napoleon Dube, L. A. Dugal, J. Adolph Guy, M. D., Aaron Lawson, C. G. Main, M. D., Joseph Martin, A. Max, Joseph Michaud.

The defeated candidates for honors were: For mayor, Fred Laforest; for aldermen, Joseph Martin, M. D., Paul Hebert, Eliot R. Cyr, Fred Lafleur, L. Medley Richards, William Emerson, Thomas Lorton, Joseph Verbe.

The two tickets were voted for generally straight, but there were some exceptions. The vote for mayor was: Burpee, 151; Laforest, 90, and the aldermen on the respective tickets carried about the same vote.

ST. MARTIN'S, N. B., April 6.—The funeral of John E. Burchill, who died very suddenly of heart trouble at his home Tuesday night, was held at the residence Thursday afternoon. Interment was made in the Baptist cemetery.

The deceased was in his 63rd year and leaves a wife, who is in delicate health. One daughter, Mrs. Capt. Pritchard, also is left. He was a kind neighbor and friend, and will be much missed. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Townsend.

The harbor just now presents a busy scene. There are loading with lumber for the O'Neill Lumber Co. a number of schooners, so that the accumulation of year's lumber is being rapidly shipped. On the De Long blocks by the schooner Winnie Lawry, owned by D. J. Purdy of St. John, is practically being new topped, which is giving employment to a large number of men.

Other schooners are also being repaired in the harbor. Mr. De Long finds his blocks occupied most of the year and his work includes repairs done for all parts of the province and some from the United States.

SUSSEX, April 10.—The police court was occupied this morning hearing the case of the King, on the complaint of Medwin W. Carrier, against Joseph Hamilton of Hampton for threatening to shoot him. Mr. Joseph of Fowler, Joseph & Parlee, appeared for Carrier, and J. M. McIntyre and F. M. Sproul for Hamilton. After hearing the evidence of several witnesses the case was adjourned till Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., left this afternoon for Boston.

Miss Alice Barnett of Boston is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Fairweather, Church avenue.

ST. ANDREWS, N. B., April 10.—The warehouses owned by the Glenn estate and A. B. O'Neill, the latter formerly known as the Street & Co. warehouse, situated along the Street wharf, had the supporting piles and bents weakened by accumulation of ice, carried away by wind and tide.

Thursday last, during a heavy storm, the ice broke up, and the supporting piles and bents were weakened by accumulation of ice, carried away by wind and tide.

F. McDougall of the Royal Bank, Moncton, was in town yesterday.

Miss Grace Embree leaves today for Fall River, Mass., to resume her professional duties as nurse.

George Fawcett of Fawcett, Maine, is spending a few days in his native town.

HOPWELL HILL, April 11.—After a long and painful illness, a severe winter with no mail in the ice bound waters for months, the appearance of shipping in the bay this week was quite a cheerful sight, adding a welcome touch of animation to a scene that had been a rather dreary one since the closing of navigation. Two three-masted, the Daylight and the Cox and Green, came up yesterday and also a bark, the Westmorland, Capt. Watson.

The remains were accompanied here by Mrs. Brewster and daughter, Miss Glendine Brewster.

Intelligence has been received here of the death at New York of Asael Wells, a former well known resident of Harvey, A. C., who passed away on Sunday after a short illness of pneumonia. The deceased was 71 years of age, and was high sheriff of Albert county for eleven years before taking up his residence in New York some 14 years ago. He leaves a widow and a large family of sons and daughters, all in New York. The sons are Winn, in the express business; Dr. E. H. L. S. Merritt, a dentist; and Charles H. V. Brewster, a lawyer.

The body of Capt. Miles Brewster of Hopewell Cape, who died in New York, came to Cape station by today's train, and was interred in the cemetery at Lower Cape. Rev. Dr. Brown, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The remains were accompanied here by Mrs. Brewster and daughter, Miss Glendine Brewster.

COLES ISLAND, Queens Co., April 9.—G. F. Colston has gone on the drive for A. Wilson.

Bert L. Sleep expects to go on the drive Wednesday for A. Wilson.

The Cole Bros., who have been doing a big business with the hoop poles, are through, and are back once more at their old trade, catching muskrats.

Miss Annie H. Evans, formerly of north end, St. John, N. B., expects to leave in a few days for New York to attend the Conservatory of Music.

The school meeting was held here on Saturday morning, John S. Murray, a highly respected gentleman of this place being appointed trustee.

ALMA, April 8.—Last evening Alma Lodge, which the I. O. G. T., gave a lunch in honor of Mrs. Ruth Foster, who shortly leaves with her children for LaConner, Washington, her future home. Three of her children have been taken to the lodge for a long time and it was therefore deemed fitting that the lodge should in this way manifest its sincere and cordial respect for Mrs. Foster and her children.

C. T., called the meeting to order and short addresses suitable to the occasion were given by Coun. W. Rommel, D. A. McQuaid, and Rev. E. Wagstaff.

The meeting was closed with devotion by the reverend gentleman.

Yesterday W. H. Banks, representing Emerson & Fisher of St. John, visited the town.

CHATHAM, N. B., April 12.—An alarm was sounded upon the fire bell in city hall this afternoon. It was sent in from the box near the post office, and in consequence of a slight blaze on the roof of the Chinese laundry near to MacKenzie's drug store. The fire department responded quickly, but there was no necessity for stretching hose, the fire having been extinguished by willing workers with a few buckets of water.

The death of the Handley child can hardly be attributed to smallpox, it is the result of the child's falling from a high place.

The almanac contest is developing new phases and there are now ten or twelve candidates, with a prospect of the place.

FREDERICTON JUNCTION, N. B., April 11.—Chas. Everett Boone of Houlton, Me., has purchased the property of Wm. Harris.

Mr. Harris, who has been in the place for some time, is now installed on his new purchase. Mr. Boone is an enterprising man and will raise hens extensively. He will be a distinct acquisition to the social life of the place.

Today Wm. Artes and family left for Lincoln, where he takes a position on the Mitchell beam. William has for years been the janitor of the school here, and it will be difficult to fill his position.

Jos. Kingston, one of the oldest section men in the C. P. R. employ, who has injured over the years by falling from a hand car, is now recovering.

JEFFRIES, April 7.—Although there has been no heavy rain as yet the snow and sleet have been melting and the roads are being used daily between here and Sussex.

The butter factory here after being closed since last fall, was opened on Monday.

The management of the factory is being operated this season by William Fowler of Sussex.

The congregation of All Saints were much disappointed that the condition of the roads on Sunday, March 26th, rendered it impossible for the Rev. A. J. A. Gollmer to hold his farewell service here and many of the people were thus unable to bid their much loved pastor and his estimable wife farewell.

No successor has yet been obtained for this parish as far as your correspondent can learn.

MONCTON, April 11.—B. R. Steeves, son of Dr. Steeves of
