To the Parishioners of St. Stephen.

My Dran Paniestosens are Frience.—Your very kind Address is so mexpected as it is gratifial to my Bellings in this trying moment, which separates me gorm my dear flock for the first time during the space, of "a quarter of a century" that I have had the efficient fock for the first time during
the space, of "a quarter of a century" that I have had the relations of "Restor among your. This express sion of your rally alies to our common Pather above, for ma, during my voyage and separation from you.

Be assared you will never-be furgotten in my daily addresses to the throne of Grace.

I feel my dear Frienda, that I wished to be in all the relations of "Restor and Pastor—of neighbour and friend," all that your kind Address gives meredit for having been, but I feel and gle conscious that in too many instances. I have come far short of the measure of Pastoral duty among your, which I had traced out for myself,—as far as the feelings, thave mean and move of Pastoral duty among your, which I had traced out for myself,—as far as the feelings, thave mean of Pastoral duty among your, which I had
