The hall of the Trinity church Sunday school building was well filled last night to listen to an illustrated lecture by Bishop White of Honan, China. The bishop told in a very interesting manner of his work in that far away land and the pictures used brought the scenes as he described them vividly before the audience. A number of the local Chinese were present and conversed with the bishop for a short time in their own language.

OUR COMPETITIONS For Boys and Girls

CAN YOU FIND THE NAMES OF FLOWERS?

This competition is similar to the recent Tree competition. In each paragraph the name of a flower will be found, but on this occasion the name is spelled backwards; that is to say from right to left, as in this example: "Well, sir, I think all able young men should enlist." Here you will find that the words "sir" and "I" read backwards, make the word "iris," which, of course, is the flower meant. Try and find the names of the other flowers in these paragraphs:

1. He was one of the first to don khaki. Is he sorry for it?—oh dear no!
2. After she had taken the lid off, a delicious stew was exposed to view.
3. "I know it is hard to bear, but do not fret," said the girl to her companion, kindly.
4. The tale was one concerning great bravery; no episode of the war could be more interesting.
5. A bleak, nipping wind was blowing during our snowshoe tramp.
6. "Bring the paraffin oil, Edna dear, it is time to light the lamps," she said.
7. Directly she left the farm her health began to fail. Had she remained at home she would probably not be now sick.
8. The team won the match by good combination work and by snappy play.

The contest is open to any boy or girl not over fifteen years of age, and each entry must be accompanied by one of the usual coupons correctly filled in. To the senders of the two most correct, and neatly written out list of flowers in these paragraphs. All attempts must reach this office by April 12th addressed to:

UNCLE DICK,
THE STANDARD,
ST. JOHN, N. B.

whose decision must be considered as final.
