A 42 COLUMN PAPER.

The Best in the Maritime Provinces!

The Paily Tribune.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 25.

The brief sketch of the literary life of John Boyd, Esq., on the first page, will be read by everybody with wonder and has found time for so much work out-side of his business, and admiration for the success that has attended it and the Amus purpose that inspired it. Thousands of men with smaller and less care-exacting businesses find no time to read, no time to write, no time for recreation, and no time for the ordinary courtesies of social ntercourse. There must be something wrong in their methods, or else the man who refreshes his faculties by devoting a portion of his time to something foreign to his business is able to do more in a few hours' work than they are ab'e to do in many. The truth is that their in presence of the master, and the master on First Page: Poetry—"Where?" tion and esteem of everyone. Dr. Thos. James I. Fellows, Esq.—Dear Sir: In the winter of 1866, I was afflicted with a severe attack of Bronchitis, and although our doctors were very attentive, and used all means in their power, they failed to afford me much relief. I obtained your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and took it until it made a permanent cure. I am now in perfect health and free from Bronchitis. Respectfully yours, MENDALL CROCKER.
