GRIFFITH'S "WAY DOWN EAST" COMING

D. W. Griffith's picturization of "Way Down East," based on the stage play by Lottie Blair Parker, which for the past twenty-two years was one of the rural classics of the American theatre, will be presented at the Glencoe Opera House May 13th, with Lillian Gish, Richard Barthelmess and an all-star cast.
Mr. Griffith's production of "Way Down East" represents ten months' work of the most exacting character, for in his screen version of the story he has endeavored to follow closely the narrative of the stage play, with here and there a digression for the purpose of dramatic value or elaboration.

"Way Down East" is the biggest production Mr. Griffith has made. Several Griffith innovations are promised, including a thrilling snowstorm and a genuine New England ice break on the river.
Taniac is the people's medicine and the people themselves have made it what it is.—P. E. Lumley.

RADIO IS AID TO FARMERS

Speaker Says It Will Keep the Young People on the Farm

Detroit, May 3.—That radio will work wonders in keeping the young folks down on the farm was a theory expounded in the General Motors' building, where a record crowd of more than 5,000 persons turned out for Detroit's first radio show. The speaker was Prof. T. E. Reynolds, of the University of Detroit.

Prof. Reynolds, speaking before an audience that packed the assembly hall, painted a graphic picture of what the radio will do on a farm. He showed the glamour and entertainment that can be brought into the uneventful existence of farmers through the radio. He also told of the benefit the radio will be to the farmer in bringing to his door the latest stock and market quotations. Following his remarks on the radio and the farmer, he explained in a manner intelligible to the layman how to get the best results from the ordinary radio outfit.

Young folks leave the farm, according to Prof. Reynolds, because there is no opportunity for amusement and entertainment. With the radio in a farmhouse, he said, the old and young may listen to the best of the world of amusement affords. They also may provide themselves with a liberal education on almost any conceivable subject, he added. He predicted the time will come when aerials will be as common on farmers' houses as lightning rods used to be on their barns.

WARDSVILLE WEDDING

Nuptials of James W. Ward and Miss Waitie Quigley

An event of social interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cornelle, Wardsville, on Saturday, April 28th, when the marriage of James Westman Ward, of Windsor, builder and contractor, and Miss Waitie Lloella Quigley, daughter of Mrs. Cornelle, was duly solemnized by Rev. Dr. Husser, pastor, in front of a bank of ferns and palms in the presence of near relatives and a few intimate friends. At 3 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. A. Wilson, the bride entered the drawing room with Mr. Cornelle. The groomsmen were J. F. McGregor, reeve of Aldborough, the bridesmaid being Miss Ila Quigley sister of the bride, and a member of Essex public school staff. The bride was becomingly gowned in ivory satin trimmed with lace and seed pearls. Her veil was Juliet cap with orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridegroom wore an orchid crepe and lace and she carried Opheila roses. After congratulations a dainty luncheon was served, the tables being prettily decorated in white and pink. Amid showers of confetti the happy couple left by motor for London and Hamilton. After the honeymoon they will reside at their new home on Douglass avenue, Windsor. There were thirty-six guests present, from Napanee, Treton, Dresden, Chatham and Windsor.

ALDBOROUGH FARMER LOSES HOME BY FIRE

The farm residence of Arthur Avey, Graham road, opposite Argyle school, Aldborough, was totally destroyed by fire at noon on Tuesday, along with considerable of the contents. Mrs. Avey was at home alone and in the absence of suitable ladders the neighbors were helpless in combating the flames. Many of the most valuable pieces of furniture were removed, along with the piano. Mr. Avey's loss will amount to about $3,000, with only $800 insurance.
