

No one to vote more than once. and no person shall be permitted to give more than one vote at any election.

Section 13 of 14 and 15 Vie., ch. 128, explained.

VI. And whereas doubts have arisen as to the true intent and meaning of that enactment of the fifteenth section of the Act last cited, whereby power is given to the Board of Revisors to correct any mistake, or supply any accidental omission made by the Assessors in the voters' lists, be it therefore declared, and further ordained and enacted, that the power so given shall not extend to the adding to, or erasing from, the said lists, or any of them, of any voter's name, unless a request be made in writing to that effect, in the manner and within the delay prescribed by the 14th section of the said Act: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the said Board from erasing from any of the said lists, the name of any person that may be proved to them to be dead at the time of the revision of the said lists, or of any person whose name may have been erroneously included in any one or more lists, than the voter's list of the ward in which, according to the provisions of the 24th section of the said Act, he is alone entitled to vote; neither shall it prevent the said Board from correcting any mistake made in the Christian or first name of any voter whose name is inserted on any of the said lists, or in the spelling of the surname of any such voter, or from adding to, or removing from, the said lists any second or intermediate name or names that may have been erroneously omitted from, or added to, the name of any voter thereon, or from correcting any obviously clerical error in the name, residence, or occupation of any voter in the said lists.

Recital.

VII. And whereas it is necessary to make provisions whereby a poll or contest may be avoided in certain cases where no division of opinion exists amongst the electors, in respect of the person intended to be elected Mayor of the said City, or in respect of those intended to be elected Councillors in any or all of the wards thereof; and it is also necessary to provide, that the Candidates for any of the said offices shall be publicly known, and that none other but those named shall be or may be elected: Be it therefore enacted, that hereafter the twelfth day of February in each year, or if that be a holiday, then the next following not being a holiday, shall be and the same is hereby fixed as the nomination day for all Candidates for the offices of Mayor of the said City and of Councillors for the several wards thereof; and such Alderman or City Councillor as shall at the last previous meeting of the City Council have been named and appointed for that purpose, shall preside at each of the nominations of candidates for the offices of Mayor and of Councillors respectively which shall be held in the open air; that for the office of Mayor at the Bonsecours Market, and those for Councillors at such places in the several wards, to be fixed by the said Council, as that all the electors may have free access thereto; and at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said day, the Alderman or Councillor appointed to preside at each such nomination shall proceed to the place where the same is to be held as aforesaid, and shall then and there require the electors there present to name the person or persons whom they wish to choose as Mayor, or as Councillor or Councillors, as the case may be, and any two duly qualified electors of the said City may openly and publicly address to the Aldermen or Councillor presiding at the nomination for the office of Mayor, a demand or requisition that the person by them named be elected Mayor of the said City for the next ensuing term of the said office of Mayor; and in the event of there being only one such Nomination day for the office of Mayor or Councillor.

Who shall preside.

Where to be held.

Nomination.

If only one person be