

24.—That of the number of Members appointed to compose a Committee, such number thereof shall be equal to a majority of the whole number chosen shall be a quorum competent to proceed to business.

25.—That in a Committee of the whole House, a motion that the Chairman leave the Chair, shall always be in order, and take precedence of every motion, and that when the motion is made on account of any question of order or privilege arising, the Speaker shall resume the Chair without discussion or vote of the committee.

26.—That in a committee of the whole House, all motions relating to the matter under consideration shall be put in the order in which they are proposed.

27.—That the Yeas and Nays shall be taken and entered on the minutes at the request of any one Member.

28.—That one day's notice shall be given of all motions for introducing new matter, other than matters of privilege and bringing up petitions.

29.—That a motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

30.—That after a motion is read by the Speaker, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, with permission of the House.

31.—That a motion for commitment, until it is decided, shall preclude all amendment of the main question.

32.—That if any motion be made for any public aid, subsidy, duty or charge upon the people, the consideration and debate thereon shall not presently be entered upon, but adjourned till such further day as the House shall think fit to