C A P. CLIV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Countervailing Duties on the Importation into Great Britain of refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland; and for allowing additional Drawbacks or Bounties on the Exportation to Ireland of refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, during the Continuance of certain Acts; and for allowing, until the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and four, a Bounty on the Importation of Salmon and Cod Fish from the Island of Newfoundland and the Coast of Labrador, into Great Britain and Ireland. [12th August 1803.]

WHEREAS the Rate of the Duty of Customs on Sugar imported into Great Britain has been increased since the Union of Great Britain and Ireland: And whereas it is just and reasonable in respect thereof, and pursuant to the Provisions contained in the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that additional Duties of Customs should be charged on all refined Sugar being of the Manufacture
