

PAGEANT SCENES IN QUEBEC

View of Levis Shore—First class Battleships in the Harbour.

Streets in Gala Attire. City Hall on left, with Basilica in background.

One of the main Avenues in the Tented City, where 4,000 visitors may be entertained.

Champlain visits the Court of Henry IV.

Mr. Frank Lascelles, Director of Pageant, with his Secretary.

A Court Scene of the Sixteenth Century

Indians burying the dead after an attack.