The Red'N White Basketball Tourney hosted by York University last weekend met with immediate success. Sixteen top Ontario High School Teams competed for trophies and assorted prizes.

J.F. Ross took the Championship Cup; T.A. Blakelock from Oakville won the consolation and the York Cup; Overlea High School came second and received Adidas T-Shirts for their effort. The Lyons Cup, presented to the team which best illustrates discipline and personal conduct was awarded to fourth place Burlington Central High.

Brock University was the location for action last Saturday as the Yeowomen volleyball team won the first tournament of the season. Playing against York were Laurentian, McMaster, Ryerson, and Windsor.

The team enjoyed decisive victories against each opposing faction. The overwhelming was aided by strong serving from Ellana McKendry, Jane Goldie, Marla Taylor and Sandra Hart.

Rookies Helen Witruk, Karen Nelson and Brenda Lord showed excellent promise and the team is excited about the prospect of a winning season.

This coming weekend the Yeowomen field hockey team will be hosting the second half of the OWIAA Field Hockey Championships. Scores of last weekend's games were not available at press time. The season record thus far is three wins, two losses and two ties — placing York in an overall tie for third position with McGill.

An "Applied Sciences Symposium" will be held at U of T's Medical Sciences Building on November 4 and 5. Nationally recognized sports psychologists representing the Soviet Union, Norway, the United States and Canada will lecture on varied aspects of sports psychology.

The symposium takes place between 9 a.m. and 8:30 p.m. both days and registration occurs between 8:00 - 9:00 a.m. Pre-registration can occur only before October 25 and only the first 500 people will be admitted. The fee is $35, $30.00 for pre-registration.

Yeowomen place fifth in tennis

The York Yeowomen hosted the OWIAA Doubles Tennis Finals Tournament last weekend at the Mayfair Tennis Club. York was well represented by three teams in two of the three divisions. They played long, hard matches and placed York fifth in the team standings out of nine.

York's number one team Dianna Dimmer and Ruth Arnold, won the consolation championship in the Flight "A" division. They lost their first game to the team of Moss and White from Guelph, but went on to defeat Wilcox and Swan, a team from Brock by scores of 3-6, 6-9, (8-6, T.B.). The winners of the Flight "A" division were Debbie Wilson and Susan Dale of University of Toronto, who upset their teammates, Pam Gollish and Tracy Solo, in a match that went on for an hour. The scores were 6-7, 6-2 (7-0, T.B.).

York did not have representatives in the Flight "B" division.

York had two teams in the flight "C" division, one of which was Marie Pillo and Darlene Herman who finished second in this division to Bay Mott-Trille and Carol Eberts of Guelph. York's Rose Crawford and Heidi Rothfuss finished third in the consolation round of this division.

The Yeowomen will travel to the University of Western Ontario next weekend to compete in the OWIAA Singles Final Tournament.
