Dear Colonel MacPherson:

I am indeed indebted to you for your letter of 12th November. I can quite understand why you had to mark it confidential, but I would like to send a copy to Dick Hanson with instructions not under any conditions to make known the source of his information.

The control of news and of the dissemination of news is just about as complete here as in Germany. The control of the news is about really all that is necessary.

Yours very truly,
