Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th Instant enclosing a letter from Mr. Newhouse, in which he states that he has suffered damage by his neighbors' cattle and horses trespassing on his property, and asking for redress; and in reply I have to inform you that the De-partment concurs in your view of the matter, that Newhouse's claim is one for the Sir Nations Council to deal with, and it should be done by that body framing ^{Rules and} Regulations in respect to such matters under Section

C. D. Cameron Esq.
