

ADDITIONAL SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B-116425, Private Donald St. Clair ANDERSON, Royal Canadian Army Medical Corps, No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

"order the Accused to take the annual T&BT inoculation and I heard the Accused refuse. Captain Rose asked the soldier for reasons. The Accused stated that he had no reasons and that he just did not want to take them. The accused understood the order."

Charley K. Sanderson
.....Sergeant,
No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
Captain John J. WEDGEWOOD, Officer Commanding R.B. & D.M. Company, No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Captain John J. Wedgewood, Officer Commanding R.B. & D.M. Company, No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. Following his refusal to accept an inoculation, the Accused was paraded before me on orders on 15 NOV 44. I asked him if it was his intention, if he was sent back for an opportunity to take the inoculation, whether he would accept it. He stated that he would not, as long as he lived, take another inoculation. I asked him if he had any religious or medical reason for refusing it, and he said 'NO'. Thereupon I remanded him to the Commanding Officer's Orders."

John J. Wedgewood
.....Captain,
No. 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit.

The Accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED

"Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give, will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

After the above caution the accused does not wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence at this time.

I certify that the above Additional Summary of Evidence, consisting of two pages, was taken down by me in the hearing and presence of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.
