

Canada - United States - Mexico Conference at White Sulphur Springs

At the invitation of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent and President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines of Mexico paid an official visit to the United States on March 26 and 27. Mr. St. Laurent and Senor Cortines met with President Eisenhower at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, where the three government leaders held talks about recent developments in the international field and about questions of hemispheric concern. Among the officials who were present were the United States Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles, Canada's Secretary of State for External Affairs, L. B. Pearson, Mexico's Foreign Minister, Luis Padilla Nervo, the Canadian Ambassador to the United States, A. D. P. Heeney, and the Mexican Ambassador to the United States, Manuel Tello.

There was no pre-determined agenda. Formal discussions were restricted to one tripartite meeting on the morning of March 27, and to short bilateral

—EJIS
President Cortines of Mexico, left, President Eisenhower and Prime Minister St. Laurent, at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.