

- 29.—REID, J. T. The physical sufferings of the poor, viewed from a sanitary and sociological stand point. Montreal, Wm. Drysdale & Co. 35 p. in 8, unbound. 50
- 30.—BORTHWICK, Rev. J. Douglass. The tourist pleasure book or the Water falls of Canada, its lakes and rivers, illustrated. Montreal, printed by John Lovell, 1874. 28 p. in 8, unbound, very rare. 75
- 31.—HINCKS, Sir Francis, Banquet to... Montreal, May 31st 1883, 39 p. in 8, unbound. 75
Numerous speeches were delivered and amongst them, one by T. S. Brown, the late Commander of the bells at St. Charles, who said that he was standing before them eighty years old and blind; that he had knocked about the streets for sixty five years and had had somewhat of an excentric career, like a knight errant dashing into every skirmish, without seeking companionship or asking reward, etc. This speech is very curious and interesting.
- 32.—LEMOINE, J. M. The Quebec garrison club, St. Louis Street and its storied past. Quebec, Morning Chronicle, 1891, 19 p. in 16, unbound. 50
Compliments of the author J. Douglas Borthwick.
- 33.—Annexe aux Procès-Verbaux de la Séance de l'Assemblée Législative du 14 mars 1905. Rapport de la Commission d'Enquête nommée par l'Assemblée Législative pour s'enquérir des accusations que les honorables sénateurs Choquette et Legris pourraient porter contre le premier ministre de cette Province, l'Honorable S. N. Parent ou son administration du département des terres, mines et pêcheries. Québec, Imp. par ordre de Législature, 1905, 70 p. in 8, unbound, very interesting. 50
- 34.—LAURIER, Sir Wilfrid, Premier Ministre du Canada, (Traduction d'une étude parue dans la revue "The Messenger" de New-York, publiée par les R. P. Jésuites.) s. l. n. d., unbound. 50
- 35.—RIBOUT, A. Le Nouvel Ontario comme champ de colonisation, une des contrées les plus fertiles du Canada, contenant des millions d'acres d'excellentes terres faciles à