Lt.-Col. Smart Calls the Attention of Cavalry Officers to Very Real Menace

MANY HUNTING LICENSES

Three Times as Many Hunting Licenses Issued by State of Maine This Season as Usual—Fron-tier Should be Patrolled to Prevent Stragglers From Coming Across

"As a people we scarcely seem to realize that we are at war, while all of us are taking matters far too easily," declared Colonel Smart at an informal meeting of the cavalry officers representing the regiments in Montreal and the Eastern Townships held in the Mount Royal Riding School last night, and presided over by the Colonel. Discussion took place as to what should be done towards utilizing the cavalry regiments which have volunteered for service but which are not to be sent to the front.

The Government at Ottawa has just announced that four regiments of mounted rifles will be organiz ed—one from British Columbia, one from Saskatche wan, one from Manitoba and one from Ontario. According to these plans, no provision is made for the Province of Quebec, and unless ways and means are discovered of utilizing the cavalry regiments located in this Province, it will go without representat

Colonel Smart is doubtless right in saying that the Candian people are too indifferent in regard to this whole matter. As a nation, we hardly realize that we are at war with a powerful, resourceful and unscrupulous enemy.
