A lady had ordered a calf's head he has sold his tongue." There were friends with the mistress, who were greatly astonished by this announcement.

THE GRIM REAPER

Sweops down on young and old alike The promising buds are nipped off almost as certainly as the fading blossom. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart has stayed death's hands more times than you will count. Relieves in 3: minutes. Over 40 cases of sudden deaths from heart disease were noted in the das'v papers in Canada during the past ten days. It seems incredible and proves the uncertainty of life where there is a tendency to heart weakness. Dr. Ag ew's Cure for the Heart is a never failing r medy for heart disease. It acts like magic Never fails to give relief in seemingly hopeless at acks in 30 minutes, and to cure permanently.

-You cannot possibly be safe in using your Christian liberty to its utmost extent. Safety without self-denial is the safety of the child gambolling on the edge of the precipice, and of the moth fluttering in the ray of the candle.

CATARRH IS A DISEASE

Which requires a constitutional remedy. It cannot be cured by local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla is wonderfully successful in curing catarrh because it eradicates from the blood the scrofulous taints which cause i'. Sufferers with catarrh find a cure in Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other remedies utterly fail.

Hood's Pills are prompt, efficient, always reliable, easy to take, easy to operate.

—There is nothing so remote from vanity as true genius; it is almost as natural for those who are endowed with the highest power of the human mind to produce the miracles of art as for other men to breathe or move.

After serious illness, like typhoid fever, pneumonia, or the grip, Hood's Sarsapanilia has wonderful strengthgiving power.

"APPLES OR PARS?"

It costs something now and then to be courteous. Yet a gentleman will not hesitate to pay the price. Several years ago three young men, just graduated from college, went on a hunting tour through West Virginia, seeking sport and health. One day they stopped at a farmer's house to take dinner. They were cordially welcomed by the good man and his wife, whose table was bountifully spread. At the close of the meal a basket of apples and pears was placed on the table.

"Mr. Ames, will you take apples or p'ars?" asked the farmer's wife, addressing one of the young men.

The young man was perplexed. He wanted pears. "But," he said to himself, "if I say pears I may mortify my hostess by seeming to correct her pronunciation, Should I say 'p'ars' the boys would laugh." "An apple, if you please," he answered. denying himself that he might be courteous.

A similar question was put to Mr. Childs, who also concluded to deny his appetite for the sake of courtesy, and take an apple. Mr. Smith, the third student, had made up his mind that he would take a pear. When the lady and an ox tongue. Her maid came asked, "Mr. Smith, will you take apinto the room and said: "William ples or p'ars?" he answered, as courte-Hughes says he has no head and that ously as if addressing a duchess: 'Thank you madam, I'll take p'ars.'

> Two beautiful pears were passed to him, somewhat to the chagrin of his companions. As they were leaving the house the kind-hearted matron gave to Ames and Childs several apples, but to Smith three or four pears,

"Boys," said Ames, "I wouldn't have mortified the old lady for a baspronunciation ketful of pears."

Business men and travellers carry them in vest pockets, ladies carry them in purses, housekeepers keep them in medicine closets, friends recommend them to friends. 25c.

"Nor I have said 'pears' "remarked Smith. "There's a time and place for everything, but the dinner table is not the place to correct your hostess' depends upon the publicity it receives

Therefore, when a Sunday school entertainment is to be held, or special church services are to be conducted, it is important that as many persons as possible be made acquainted with the fact. There is no better way of accomplishing this than by attractive poster and newspaper advertising. We print posters that people stop to read, and compose advertisements for newspapers equally attractive.
