

Governor in Council empowered to make Orders to give effect to this Act.

4th. The Governor in Council may from time to time make such Orders as are necessary for carrying this Act into full effect; and may also make such other Orders as may be requisite for the transmission through the Post of Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews and Pamphlets, to and from other British Colonies and the United States without passing through the United Kingdom, in conformity, as far as may be, with the foregoing charges and scale of weights.

Orders published in the Royal Gazette to be deemed part of this Act.

5th. All Orders made by the Governor in Council and published in the Royal Gazette under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed and taken as part of the same, and have the authority of law.

How Post Office Acts to be referred to.

6th. In all Orders made by the Governor in Council in pursuance of this or the first recited Act, or in contracts, legal proceedings, or otherwise however, it shall in all cases be sufficient to refer to and designate the said recited Act as "The Post Office Act of 1850," and this Act as "The Post Office Act of 1851."

Commencement and interpretation of this Act.

7th. This Act shall come into operation at the same time as "The Post Office Act of 1850," and all words used in this Act shall be interpreted in the same manner as in that Act prescribed.

This Act may be altered.

8th. This Act may be altered or amended during the present Session of the Legislature.

SCHEDULE.

Regulations for the transmission of Printed Books.

Regulations as to the transmission of Printed Books referred to in Section 3 of the foregoing Act :

1st. The charge shall be the same, whether the Printed Book, Magazine, Review or Pamphlet be posted or delivered at a Post Town on the Frontier or Sea Coast of the Province, or at a Post Office in the interior of the same.

2d. The postage shall in all cases be pre-paid; one third of the charge being considered as paid for British Inland rate; one third for Sea rate; and one third for Inland Colonial rate.

3rd. To prevent the inconvenience which might arise from a large quantity of Books being sent by one Mail, Postmasters shall have authority in cases of necessity to delay the dispatch of such Books until the dispatch of the next Mail after that by which they would have been sent in the usual course, at their option, for a period not exceeding one week.

4th. No Printed Book, Magazine, Review or Pamphlet shall be sent by any route which will entail the expense of transit postage on the Post Office Department.

5th. All Printed Books, Magazines, Reviews and Pamphlets sent through the Post, shall be subject in all respects to the same conditions and restrictions to which Newspapers are liable by "The Post Office Act of 1850."

CAP. II.

An Act to make further provision for the service of Non-Bailable Process.

Passed 15th March 1851.

Preamble.

‘ WHEREAS in and by the several Acts of Assembly regulating the service of Non-Bailable Process issuing out of the several Courts of Law in this Province, no sufficient provision is made for the case of persons carrying on business therein, who may have a place of business but no place of residence in this Province, or for persons who may have temporarily left the Province for the purpose of avoiding the service of Process;’
