

LISTOWEL STANDARD.
FRIDAY, SEPT. 8, 1882.

DONEGAL.
The "string band" has reorganized for the season.

Mrs. Jno. Armstrong and Miss Annie Armstrong are over from Iowa on a visit to their friends here.

A corps of the Salvation Army held the usual public service at the "Corner" on Sunday evening. Few conversions were made, but everybody seemed to have a good time.

The neighborhood is getting exercised over the rumor that ghosts and haunted bars are running about loose. We know there is a good ghost this year, but we never supposed it would effect a bars' raid to such an extent as to make it appear as if longer than a dog's tail.

MILVERTON.
Two strangers were in town on the evening of August 24th, trying to pass a bogus twenty dollar bill. They did not succeed however in duping any of our wiseacre citizens.

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of a noble and highly respected citizen of Eliza, who had been ailing for some time, but lately his friends were led to believe that he would be spared to them. This hope was suddenly broken on Friday August 25th for death came unexpectedly and he has left behind a wife and a young son, a native of England, a member of the Methodist church, and a loyal and good conservative. He remains in the hands of the undertaker, Mr. J. J. Milverton, on Monday Aug. 28th, whether they were followed by a large assemblage of mourners and friends, as permitted in the midst of his life was in death.

PALMERSTON.
A meeting of Palmerston Conservative association will be held on Friday evening, 8th inst.

The Palmerston Fall show will be held on the 20th and 21st inst. Intending exhibitors are requested to make their entries with the secretary as early as possible.

Mr. McEwing and Mr. J. G. Milne have returned from the Northwest. The last named gentleman, who was secretary of the Palmerston Conservative Association, will leave Palmerston for his home in about a month's time.

On Friday last one of Mr. Hadden's children, aged 1 year, fell backwards in a wash tub of water, and was so badly injured that he died in the arms of his mother on the 21st inst. The child was a native of England, and was a member of the Methodist church. His death was a great loss to his parents, and the community.

AUTHOR.
DEATH OF THE REV. H. B. HARRISON.—After a protracted illness the Rev. H. B. Harrison, of the English Mission, died on the 21st inst. at his residence here on Monday, Sept. 4, at a week's age, leaving only the age of 38 years. He was a devoted and successful minister of the Gospel, whose death has caused a feeling of great regret amongst all classes, and especially amongst the members of the English Mission. He was a native of England, and was a member of the Methodist church. His death was a great loss to his church and to the community.

STARBUCK.
The rate of taxation for the current year is two cents on the dollar.

Letter boxes—Starbuck will soon take another step upwards, through the representations of our diligent member, Mr. S. H. Brown, the Post Office has indicated his intention to have letter boxes placed in different parts of the town, and letters will be collected three times a week. We believe we are entitled to have a letter box, and we are sure that the Post Office will be glad to oblige us.

ARMY OFFICERS.
The number of registrations made with the Town Clerk, Division Registrar, during the month of July were as follows:—Marriages, 7; Births, 10; Deaths, 10.

MR. E. HARRISON.
Mr. E. Harrison, of this town, who has been studying in Cambridge (Eng.) University for the past two months, returned last Wednesday. He was in the city of Cambridge, and was a member of the Methodist church. His death was a great loss to his church and to the community.

WALLACE.
The bulk of the harvest has been gathered in, and farmers are busy sowing their fall wheat. Those who have threefold fall wheat give glowing accounts of the yield.

The members of Zion Church, 7th Con. Wallace, intend giving a lawn social at Mr. B. Melburn's on the evening of the 18th inst. The proceeds will be applied to the erection of a new church.

The brickwork of the German Evangelical church, etc., is completed, and the carpenter has commenced the woodwork. The roof will be one of the finest in the county.

As some of Mr. J. Robinson's family and some relations were driving up Bond's hill, the carriage was overturned, and the driver was killed. The driver was a native of England, and was a member of the Methodist church. His death was a great loss to his family and to the community.

carried. Moved by J. Robinson, seconded by A. Kennedy, that the funeral expenses of Barbara Siebert, widow, and her children, be paid for by the congregation. Moved by A. Kennedy, that the funeral expenses of Barbara Siebert, widow, and her children, be paid for by the congregation. Moved by A. THE WAR IN THE EAST.
WOLSELEY'S PLANS DISBURGED.
NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—A United Press cable from Ismailia, dated Sunday, says:—The delay in the arrival at Kassassin of the expected reinforcements has so far frustrated General Wolseley's plans, so that it is not thought likely that the general engagement expected to take place on Monday or Tuesday will occur.

It is estimated that General Wolseley's force available for immediate advance does not exceed 10,000 men. It is also estimated that the force of the Egyptian army at Kassassin is not more than 15,000 men.
