Work in Store of Antigonish plogie of Nova Scotia Tele-one Co. Killed in Fall

OLIS ROYAL, N. S. Oct. 21.—The of Charles Gas, Bayfield, county, wherein is also a post office, was burglarized day night or early Friday.
The safe was "blown open" contents, $120, stolen. The burglars were rather clumsy, as the safe was wholly de-top of it being driven up the ceiling. Sixty dollars belonged to the post office to Mr. Gas. There is no indentity of the burglars and not much likelihood of and in custody.
An accident occurred in New Ger-at Friday whereby a young his life. Alvin T. Hebb, son of the Nova Scotia Telephone Co., climbed a telephone pole many for the purpose of fixing a pole. When Hebb, placed the wire the strain caused it to part and the pole broke the base and fell, carrying the man partially on his back, fracturing a compound fracture of the the chin, and also had an abra-and was otherwise injured.
Medical aid was summoned and was done to relieve his suffering, but at ten o'clock Hebb's inquest was held on yesterday afternoon at Wharton's chamber below Forester's. The

STILL NO CHANGE IN STRIKE SITUATION RIVAL SULTANS HAVE THEIR FIRST CONFLICT

The Men Have Received Telegram from Deputy Minister of Labor

But It Does Not Give All the Information They Asked For—Strike Not Likely to Last Much Longer

SPRINGHILL MINES, Oct. 21.—The strike situation shows no signs of change. The men have received a telegram from the deputy minister of labor Friday, but it does not give all the information they were asking for. Accordingly another telegram was sent to Ottawa this afternoon and it is believed that the answer to this will have much to do with the duration of the strike. It is impossible to learn the nature of the telegram sent on Friday. It is stated on the street that it contained Chairman Graham's recent explanation, coupled with the question as to whether if the men return to work at once, the matter in dispute can be taken up for consideration before another board. The answer received this morning has not been authoritatively made public, but it is learned from pretty good sources that the deputy minister states that no question that has once been passed on by a board can be opened up for discussion by a later board. It is stated now that the men's last message is to find out what the labor department interprets Chairman Graham's pronoun-ments to really mean. An unusually heavy snow storm accompanied by a keen raw wind prevailed this morning and afternoon and this morning and daytime like six inches of snow accumulated in quite large drifts.
The storm brought about a cessation of the strike. There is an awful lack of fuel in town and that if the strike is not ended shortly some vicious measures will have to be taken to supply the shortage.

Several weeks ago a few car loads of coal were brought into town, but they were difficult to get at, and there have been at least a half dozen applicants for every one. Last week one small hopewell came into town, and this week it was known that there will be anything but a half dozen applicants for every one. The present cold snap would cause many of our people to suffer considerably. The men so far have shown any particular concern over the strike of the matter, and the statement is made with endless iteration by some of the leaders that they can if necessary hold out all winter. Most people would readily admit that the men could do this, but the serious question is, can the business men who have to carry the men hold out all winter.
The answer is, no. The business men of the town are not viewing the prospect with any degree of pleasure. They are not, but they are not to be blamed for not wanting to have to do it. On the hopeful side, however, the general feeling in town tonight is that the strike will not last much longer.

CANADA MUST SOME TIME BE HEADSHIP OF EMPIRE

Her Destiny Nothing Lower Than
This, Says Kipling

Posts of Command for All the White Men, but Foreign Labor is Necessary
He Thinks.

OTTAWA, Oct. 21.—Rudyard Kipling was the guest of the Canadian Club today at a luncheon given in the railway committee room of the house of commons. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was on his right, and other guests were Honorable Fisher, Fielding, Lemieux and Brodeur and Col. Hanbury Williams.
Kipling made the most important speech he has delivered since coming to Canada.

He said he had known and learned from many men who have done constructive work for the Empire. "I wish that some of these men could have been with me on my recent wonderful trip through the breadth of your fair Dominion. They would have reposed as I reposed at the existence of an assured spirit of nationality without which the greatest country on the map can only be an ethnological museum.
This was the end that we were all hoping, working and praying for, because you realize that it is impossible for the individual and administrator an Empire of peoples who have not such a national spirit.

"No one ever under-estimates the peculiar difficulties that beset Canada on her path to nationhood. You have had the most difficult task of all—to search for your soul within sight and earshot of the crowd. This is not an easy task for the individual, for the nation it is especially hard. These were anxious days in your progress. I do not think you realize how large Canada bulks and has always bulked in the imagination of other members of the imperial family. I do not think perhaps you imagine how keenly all over the world men watched in these years to see what part Canada would take as a reason for the desertions that Ratuili, in retaliation for the French interference in steps taken to release Sir Harry MacLean, intends to 'kill MacLean by inches.'"

The ambassador of a French recon-quering party while proceeding yesterday from Casablanca in the direction of Fez, resulting in the killing of Captain Jondri and a private of the Chasseurs d'Afrique and the wounding of six men, will, it is said, have the case of a nation perhaps a little wiser than some of its leaders.
Between these two forces was born, I believe, the feeling of hostility that has been the cause of so much trouble.
One of the signs of a nation is its signs, one said it now as much by
and we behold its spirit in its own tongues and in the words of its people. The case of a nation is its
people.

STABBING AFFRAY AT CAMPBELLTON

May Build Bridge Across the Restigouche River Near Campbellton—Teacher Resigns from Grammar School

CAMPBELLTON, Oct. 21.—The announcement of Thomas Malcolm of the International Railway that arrangements have been completed for the immediate construction of a bridge to post in the vicinity of $800,000, across the Restigouche at Campbellton, has aroused great interest and discussion in the town. For some years Campbellton has been rapidly growing in population and becoming a great business centre. It is felt that the construction of such a bridge connecting the Atlantic Quebec and Western Railway with the International Railway will bring a boom in trade and population which will make Campbellton the most important town on the North Shore. It is said that work on the new bridge is likely to begin early next spring.

Miss Hazel McCain has been compelled on account of ill health to resign her position as teacher in the Grammar School. She was somewhat run down in health when the term opened, and the strain of teaching proved too much for her. It was feared on Friday that she was on the verge of nervous prostration, but she is much better today. Although only residing here a few months, she made many friends and especially in the Baptist church, where she sang in the choir. She leaves on Monday for Montreal, where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Gordon.

Mrs. Barney gave a very enjoyable lecture in the Baptist church on Friday evening under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. The lecture was quite largely attended.
Police Magistrate Matheson disposed of two liquor cases yesterday. John Grey, for selling liquor without a license, was fined $50. N. Bernatchez, wholesale liquor dealer, was fined $30 for selling in less quantities than a gallon.

A large number of men are departing for the woods for the winter's work. In a few weeks there will be a greater exodus, when the mills close.
The Charles mills, owned by Wm. Currie & Co., will shut up for the season some time this week. The Shives mills will probably close the first week in November.

Robert Shives of Campbellton has been successful in winning a prize for a photograph of grass growing on the Restigouche. The prize was given by the Canadian Courier and there were a large number of competitors.
The dredge St. Lawrence, with three barges and a tug, left for St. John last week, where it will be engaged in the work of deepening the harbor.
The case of Frank Valeron, charged with stabbing two sailors, was resumed on Friday in the police court before Police Magistrate Matheson. The information against him for stabbing Carlson was dismissed, but he was sent up for trial on the charge of assaulting Hendricksen with intent to commit an indictable offence. The case will come before Judge McLatchey at Dulouise on Nov. 12th. Valeron has secured bail and has retained A. T. Le Blanc to defend him.

Still another stabbing affray took place in Boudreau's boarding house on Gerrard street on Friday evening. A number of men lately employed on I.
N. R. tried to take possession of the house, and a fight ensued. Several of the men were injured and arrested.
The police were sent after the men and one of the others stabbed a man with a knife. The scene of the affray was in the rear of the house.

Several changes have recently taken place in the New Brunswick Telephone Co.'s office. Miss Connors has resigned her position to become a housewife. J. E. Miller & Co., Wallace Scott, who was night operator, has also resigned and entered the service of the J. C. R. Wesley Devereaux has been appointed in his place.
There is a report in circulation that a Jack-the-Hugger has put in an appearance in the town. Several well known ladies have been annoyed by his attention. The scene of his amorous operations is near the power house.
The police are making an effort to locate the individual, and if caught there will be meted out to him the full penalty of the law. In spite of the fact that a lot of liquor is consumed in the town and drunken men are common ladies have always been safe from intrusion.

Friday noon a cold wave set with a slight flurry of snow on Saturday. Today the ice did not melt in the gutters although the sun shone brightly.
Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore returned on Friday morning from their wedding trip to New York and Boston.
They are residing in their new home on Rossberry street.
J. H. Kelly, M. P. for Bonaventure, was in town on Wednesday.
J. E. Kelly, brother of the well known lawyer, J. King Kelly of St.
John, has accepted the position of manager in Geo. G. McKenzie & Co.'s grocery department.

OF A YOUNG DAUGHTER TO THE RECTORY.
A farewell party in honor of Miss Harper was given Tuesday evening by Mrs. Dr. Lunan. Miss Harper has ac-

Luke's church, Charlottetown.
Miss Annie Carr, daughter of Rev.

TENSION IN BANKING COMMUNITY RELIEVED

Improvement Reflected in Buoyancy of Stock Market

The Situation Better Than Was Expected Committee Feels Equal to Meet Any Emergency

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The recent tension of the banking community was today considerably relieved and the day passed with no adverse developments of a serious character, but with much that was reassuring. At the same time there was evidence that some of the banks most affected by recent events were still in need of assistance, but the promptness with which the clearing house, accorded it did much to allay further alarm.

The general improvement was reflected in the buoyancy of the stock market and the steady advance in prices from previous low levels. On the other hand, the conservative element deferred a too optimistic view until the relief given by the clearing house had continued for several days and had permanently re-established the stability of some of the weaker institutions, notably the Mercantile National Bank and the New American National Bank.

The clearing house was called upon today to meet debit balances of the Mercantile and the New Amsterdam banks to the extent of upwards of $2,000,000, of which the Mercantile owed about $1,000,000, and the New Amsterdam $200,000. The debit balance of the National Bank of North America amounted to $850,000. While there was said to have been some discussion between the clearing house committees and the officers of the latter bank as to the necessity of giving it any support, it was not found necessary to do so and Wm. H. Havemeyer, the new president of the National Bank, had not and would not ask one dollar's aid from the clearing house.

"The situation," Mr. Havemeyer said, "is really far better than we expected. So far only about $150,000 has been withdrawn. When the bank opened this morning we had a million dollars on hand to pay all comers, but only a small portion was used." The fact that the clearing house committee regards the situation as still serious was shown by the remark of a member of the committee that the Mercantile Bank's debit balance was "unexpectedly large and disconcerting."

The committee remained in session the greater part of the day discussing a general plan of policy with regard to assisting such banks as might need help.

After the committee had adjourned yesterday, James T. Woodward, president of the Hanover National Bank and chairman of the committee, said that conditions were improving and that the clearing house committee was meeting any emergency that might arise tomorrow.

William Sherer, manager of the clearing house, said the situation was under control and that the more advanced features had been eliminated and that from this time there would begin a new era in New York banking. Sherer also said that the more backward features had been eliminated

begin a new era in New York banking.

On the stock exchange the improved banking condition resulted in a rally of pronounced proportions. The more active issues advancing two and three points, with greater gains in some of the specialties. Part of this advantage was lost by a flurry in call loans, the rate for which advanced to 3-4.

On the curb the feature was the heavy selling at severe declines of Consolidated S. S. bonds, which one time sold at 118, a decline of 5-8 points from the high. The net loss for the day was two points. The Consolidated S. S. Company is controlled by Charles W. Morse.

One development today which did not tend to ease the prevailing condition was the application for a receiver for the firm of Otto Helms & Co., the broken who were suspended from the New York stock exchange last week, after a disagreement between that firm and Gross & Kleberg over the acceptance of a block of stock of the United Copper Company. Argument on the motion for the appointment of a receiver was deferred until Wednesday.
