SUNNY MRS. WIGGS Will be Seen in Her Cabbage Patch at the Grand

Phone 276.

Mr. Clayton Smale returned home

To-night.

Anne Crawford Flexner, who dra-matized "Mrs Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which opens its local season at the Grand Thursday, Dec. 31. re-ceived thousands of letters from so-cialists all over the world, arguing that Mrs Wiggs' optimistic mood is got calculated to make fair progress. A discontented woman would be more of an inspiration, the dramatist, and likewise the author, are told However, they persist in regarding sunshine as a greater blessing than gloom. The play will be presented here under the management of the United Play Company. last night, from Broadview, Sask. Mr. Percey Tipper, is spending the New Years' holidays in Toronto.

GOOD-BYE, OLD YEAR! Good-bye, Old Year, thou didst start well thy life of months and days, And didst command our admiration and our praise; We trusted thee, thou promised well to give us wealth and ease, So carelessly we walked, ourselves alone to please.

J. M. YOUNG & CO.

But now all things are changed. Dark clouds and lowering clouds of grief From war's dread scourge have covered all, and there comes no relief; Self is forgotten—we have learned to think of others' needs, And love Hows freer than before in kindly deeds.

The infant New Year coming soon, born 'mid such darkness drear, With new-born strength may rise with might the clouds to clear; May it be so, but we would keep these high-born aims to bless, A happy New Year may be ours, markes with success.
