number of People Sentenced Death Constantly Increasing Zurwich, Switzerland, July 13 .-Correspondence of The Associat Press)-Private letters received here from Jerusalem state that the number of Libanese and Syrians senten ced to death by the Turkish authorities is constantly increasing.
In consequence of the rapid spread of spotted typus, whooping cough and smallpox, the Turkish Govern-ment has closed all the schools in Jerusalem. Newspapers are appear ing with black bordered sheets and a-apr6-15 are filled with death notices.

Despite the censorship, the jour nals publish long articles sharply criticizing the Turkish Government for its neglect to enforce the mos elementary sanitary measures. Wounded and plague-stricken soldiers are brought from the battle-fields on the Canal and transported primitive manne through inhabited districts.
