THE CARNEGIE GIFT

Smith's Falls Beautiful Building—its Library

This is a handsome building, evidently designed by a very competent architect, and painted by an artist. It is at once a model of beauty and simplicity, located in the Gore, a town property, which also includes the town hall and high school, and which will be ultimately decorated and screened by shrubbery and beautiful trees.

Mr. Carnegie's gift was eleven thousand dollars, and every dollar of this has been well and wisely laid out.

In the rustic, well-lighted basement are caretaker's apartments—kitchen, dining room, parlor, bath and bedrooms—on the east central are furnace and fuel rooms—on the north is a fine apartment where gentlemen smoke the pipe of meditation and, with a quiet dignity, play games of checkers or draughts, sitting strictly in a subdued undertone, an evidence of good society.

First flat, east side, boys' reading room, ladies' waiting room, wash room, etc.; central, large general waiting room, fronting the library in the rear; on the north, the general reading room with its table of newspapers, journals and magazines.

The numerous arches and heavily moulded ceiling are attractive. Electric lighting and heating are perfection.

Second flat is occupied chiefly with an excellent lecture room.

The provisions made for maintaining order, quiet, and perfect respect—almost reverence—are faultless. The citizens of this town may well feel pleased, even proud, of this institution.

The residences of this town are uniformly a fine class of buildings, exceptionally so. I do not call to mind where to go to find a dilapidated building—a few require a fresh coat of paint.

The place all know is prettily located on the Rideau, and the modest murmur of the falls makes melody night and day—an echo of pleasantness constantly pervades the air—and while I cheerfully inscribe my name on the tablet of time as belonging to the Past, I feel that I am inhaling here a spirit and strength—Progression—and I must regard this Gift as a balance-wheel to the activities of young and old.

The seniors in this town know right well they are stepping down and out while the highly cultured young ladies and gentlemen well know that they are stepping into a rich, a charming inheritance.

The cheerful, the prompt manner in which this town accepted the generous offer contrasts slightly with the reluctance expressed by Brockville at the same time in the same case—and this expression is accentuated by the claim that Brockville is identified with millionaires.

This is a bright, enterprising town, and may well expect in the near future to include millionaires. In future, the happy homes of refinement and culture will be more numerous in Smith's Falls by the gift of Mr. Carnegie, which was supplemented by

Senator Frost.....$300
C. B. Frost.....200
W. H. Frost.....100

these sums to be paid annually for twenty years—the handsome total of $10,000—to be expended in taking care of and running the building and grounds. This frees the town from all cost, excepting its annual gift of books, and it is to be hoped that those entrusted with the selection of newspapers, journals and magazines will have wisdom given.

In a retrospect, we may fancy ourselves on the "exceeding high mountain" and hear the Seven Thunders," when He said, "Let the dry land appear," and material substantially stepped forth in glorious robes—as vast coraline, green-crowned spires shot up from the depths in groups of lovely isles in the great Pacific ocean—immense plains were unrolled over our globe in undulating valleys—amid the plications of lofty mountain ranges. As the tears of sympathy fall, the same Voice thundered in the cavern of Lazarus—for all the details, even the minutest minutia He is cognizant of—the roll of that thunder is now echoing over our valleys and plains, and is saying to a 100 invisible embryo—towns like Smith's Falls—"Come forth—adorn, gem this grand, glorious Dominion from ocean to ocean.

To Prove what Anti Pill, the Great System Treatment will do for you. Every Reader of this paper may have a Sample Bottle sent Free by Mail.

Derangement of the stomach is responsible for much sickness and suffering. Every organ of the body depends upon the stomach for its nutriment and strength—If the stomach is not working right the blood carries to the liver, heart, nerves and kidney tissue imperfect nutrition—They become weak and unable to perform their work—become clogged, diseased, and throw out their distress symptoms. Now you may get stimulative, temporary relief by the taking of a kidney, liver, nerve or heart specific, but the cause remains—The stomach is at fault, and so long as it keeps loading the blood with impurity—waste, so long will the blood transport and deposit disease bringing elements in the weak places—When you feel sick, help the stomach first. A well stomach means a well body. Anti Pill, the Great System Treatment, is a new discovery that has a marvelous influence in correcting system ailments. Address, Wilson-Fyle Co., Niagara Falls, Ont., for free sample. Regular size, a month's treatment, 50 cents at Druggists.
