CHATHAM GRAIN MARKET.; J. B. Stringer & Co., give the follow ing grain gossip: Wheat.-Market here unchanged, in value. Receipts next to nothing. The American market yesterday was 114 cents lower, due to favorable crop reports. Millers are getting shy of wheat, but cannot afford to pay more than 65 cents at present price of flour. Oats.-Light receipts. Prices unchanged. Exporters are not taking any quantity owing to high ocean freights. All arriving here are sold for local use at 30 cents a bushel. Barley-Quotations nominal at 75c per cwt, There is neither demand nor Corn-The demand has dropped off so that orders now are few amongst dealers. Pastures are now open for stock and this has been the cause of The top price now is 35c.

Wool-We would recommend farmers to wash their wool this season. Last year nearly half of the crop was unwashed. As the American duty is the same on unwashed as washed, we are just about prohibited from the American market as far as unwashed wool is concerned. The price of unwashed wool for shipment to the the United States, is only from 8 to 9 cents a lb. , whereas 15 cents is readily paid for wool washed on the sheep's back. We are paying from 8 to 9 cents for unwashed wool just how, but at great risk, as we have only the Canadian trade to depend on dnd it is of small moment to Western Ontario dealers. The unwashed wool lies on our hands and is almost un-Saturday's market on the square was only fairly attended, by sellers. The raw morning and muddy roads evidently had a deterrent effect on the farmers and their wives. The supply of vegetables, however, covered a wide range and were of good quality. Potatoes were in the largest quantities, and sold at 50 cents a bag. They looked nice and were firm and solid. Onions and asparagus were the more prominent of the garden vegetables. Green onions brought five cents for two bunches and asparagus sold at three bunches for 25 cents, or 10 cents a bunch.

It may be of interest to readers of The Planet to know that R.A. Glover, of Dover, has received a letter from his son, Trooper W. M. Glover, now in South Africa. He Wm. M. Glover, now in South Africa. He was one of the first to offer his services as a was one of the first to offer his services as a recruit for the second contingent and accepted. He writes from Stellanboth, 40 miles from Cape Town, on April 6th, that the boys were in the best of health and having a good time. The people think the Canadians are the stuff and seem kind of pleased at the loyalty of Canada and the material it sends out. He says Uncle Paul has offered $50 a head far every Canadian bagged. They were encamped near where the Boer prisoners were held, and saw five of them shot while trying to escape. Trooper Glover's company with others were told off to escort 1,500 prisoners to the boat for shipment to St. Helena. Thousands of them, however, are still in the colony. The them, however, are still in the colony. The boys are engaged at rifle and revolver practice and the competition is keen among the several companies. In a recent competition several companies. In a recent competition Trooper Glover's company stood first with an average score of 27 out of a possible 28. They are all very anxious to go to the front to show what they are made of. In fact they had just received an order to go and were wild over it, as they were anxious to show Uncle Paul what Canadians can do.
