

BINDER TWINE BINDER TWINE

LEAVE YOUR ORDER AT
Westman Bros.

THEY WILL PROTECT YOU AGAINST HIGH PRICES. EVERY POUND FULLY WARRANTED. DON'T DELAY AS IT WILL BE HIGHER.

..Westman Bros..

G. W. Cornell

Dentist

Cor. 6th and King Sts.,
Over Geo. E. Young's Grocery.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS

DIED.

GRANDBOIS.—Died at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Monday, 12th March, Thomas Oliver Grandbois, aged 58 years. The funeral will take place on Thursday, at 2 o'clock p.m. from his late residence in Bloomfield, to the Dolsen Cemetery.

LOCAL BRIEFS

First-class waist-maker wanted. Apply to Madame Skirving, manager Thomas Stone's dressmaking department.

The Side Bankrupt Shoe Stock will be opened for sale on Saturday, the 17th inst. The store will be to rent after April 1st.

Ex-Ad. John Dyer accompanied his daughter Eva as far as Detroit this morning on her way to Dakota where she will spend the summer with her aunt.

Mr. R. Victor Carter, who has been ill with a gripe and confined to the house of his sister, Mrs. Edward Newman, at Ridgeway, for the past ten days, has sufficiently recovered to be able to return to Chatham to resume his teaching.

$2,638.51 worth of shoes and rubbers at the Side Bankrupt Sale, to be closed out by 1st of April opens Saturday, the 17th.

George Dean, colored, was convicted at this morning's police court of the larceny of an overcoat. He claimed to be too ill to undergo sentence, and Judge Houston remanded him for medical examination.

Rufus Stephenson, ex-M. P., who was a warm personal friend of the late Caleb Coatsworth, will attend the funeral in Romney to-morrow afternoon.

Side Bankrupt Shoe Sale, winding up business, shoes and rubbers cheap. Store opens Saturday, the 17th inst.

This afternoon W. N. Morley, of this city, received a telegram announcing the demise of his brother, Washington Morley, of Toronto. Mr. Morley will go to Toronto to attend the obsequies.

Miss Edwards, who has been an inmate of the Public General Hospital for some time but was recovering, went for a walk yesterday. The young lady had the misfortune to step on the icy pavement and break her thigh. She was taken to the hospital where the fracture was attended to. Miss Edwards seems to be resting easily this morning.

SPRING HATS. It's a little early, but if you are in need of a hat you might just as well buy a spring hat as one that will be out of date in six weeks. We have sold hats for four years, but we never had such a display of Derby and Fedora hats as we are now showing. Another case of Barrington Fedoras that arrived this morning.—The 2 T's.

A WHIST MATCH. A pleasant whist match took place last evening at the residence of A. F. Falls between six members of the senior whist club and six members of the junior whist club. The result was a victory for the seniors by a majority of eight points. The score: Table No. 1—Dr. J. L. Bray and G. P. Schofield vs. C. H. Gurn and B. R. Clayton. Score 93 to 89. Table No. 2—Dr. McKeough and A. F. Falls vs. F. Gibson and L. C. Mercer. Score 94 to 93. Table No. 3—Dr. Cornell and H. A. Stevens vs. W. Bray and H. A. Willoughby. Score 95 to 90.

DELICIOUS AND WHOLESOME BREAD

It is not only the staff of life, but tempting to the dairy palate for bread. Our bread is nutritious, pure and healthful, is made from the best flour and is the same of the best to be had.

EAT RICHARDS' BREAD

Mrs. Mellish, Cross street, fell on Sunday, and broke her arm.

NEARLY POISONED.

A two year old daughter of Robert Learst, Park street, swallowed a quantity chloroform and sweet oil which immediately put the baby into a profound sleep. Under the influence of medical treatment the child rallied and has a chance of recovery. The mixture of chloroform and sweet oil was used for dropping in the ear and the child managed to get hold of it.

THE BOWLING CLUB.

The bowling club held its annual meeting last evening. The election of officers, resulted as follows: President, W. A. Taylor; vice-president, J. S. Black; secretary-treasurer, R. G. Fleming; executive committee, J. Thrasher, J. Hendershot, W. A. Sowerby. Representatives to the Western Ontario Bowling Association in London, Dr. R. V. Bray and W. A. Thrasher.

THOS. O. GRANDBOIS DEAD.

Thomas Oliver Grandbois, of Bloomfield, passed away Monday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital in his 58th year. Mr. Grandbois had been ailing for several weeks with pernicious anaemia and his condition became so alarming that he was removed to the hospital where he died. A widow and a family of two children, Ed Grandbois employed at Park Bros. and Ethel at home. Three brothers also survive: William and Charles who resided with their brother and John Grandbois, Elizabeth St. The funeral will take place Thursday at 2 o'clock from the family residence at Dolsen's burying ground on the river road.

CALEB COATSWORTH DEAD.

Collector of Customs Rufus Stephenson this morning received a telegram stating that ex-Warden Caleb Coatsworth, of Romney, passed away last evening in his 73rd year. Mr. Coatsworth had been suffering from a cancer in his throat. Twice surgical operations were resorted to to save Mr. Coatsworth's life but, though affording relief for a time, they did not prove wholly successful. Some time ago Mr. Coatsworth returned from Detroit, after undergoing the second operation. It was evident even to himself that he could not survive for long, but he bore his affliction with a patient resignation. Born in England on Nov. 6, 1828, he came to this country when a young man, and perceiving the timber wealth and the agricultural productivity of the country in the vicinity of the Lake Shore, he settled in Romney in the heart of the primitive forest.

As the land became cleared and smiling farms took the place of the bush, Mr. Coatsworth became a prominent figure in the community. He held all the municipal offices in the gift of the people of Romney, and for several years, as representative of that town, he sat in the county council as its representative. While in the latter body, he had the honor conferred upon him of being elected its warden. In 1876, he was appointed preventive officer in Her Majesty's customs for Romney at a salary of $400 per annum, which position Mr. Coatsworth has since held. The schooner, Eliza Allen, used to carry slaves from Romney to Buffalo and it was necessary to have an officer at the port of export, so Mr. Coatsworth was given the position. In politics, he was a life-long Conservative, and one of the hardest campaign workers in the country. His widow and two sons and two daughters survive him. The sons are Sidney and Robert. Withrow and Frank Coatsworth, of this city, are nephews. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

The man who thinks he knows it all May find out by and by. That the man who isn't always sure Eats much less humble pie.

SEE OUR WINDOW

An Elegant Line

Fancy Vases

and Ornaments

AT REASONABLE PRICES

F. C. DUNNE & CO.

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

Next the Druggist's Old Stand.

SEE OUR WINDOW

An Elegant Line

Fancy Vases

and Ornaments

AT REASONABLE PRICES

F. C. DUNNE & CO.

JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS

Next the Druggist's Old Stand.

SEIZED THE RAILWAY.

General French's Sharp Work Cuts Off Boer Communication to the South.

London, March 13.—The War Office has received a despatch from Lord Roberts announcing that after a fight with the Boers Gen. French occupied two hills close to the station commanding Bloemfontein. Following is the text of the despatch:

"Venters Vlei, March 13.—I directed Gen. French, if there were time before dark, to seize the railway station at Bloemfontein and thus secure the rolling stock. At midnight I received a reply from him that after considerable opposition he had been able to occupy two hills close to the railway station, which command Bloemfontein."

"A brother of President Steyn has been made prisoner. The telegraph line leading northward has been cut and the railway broken up."

PRETTY HEAVY LOSS.

"I am now starting with the third cavalry brigade, which I called up from the seventh division near Pretoria yesterday and the mounted infantry to reinforce the cavalry divisions. The rest of the force will follow as quickly as possible."

Prior to this Lord Roberts sent the following from Venters Vlei: "Our march was again unopposed. We are now about 18 miles from Bloemfontein. The cavalry division is astride the railway six miles south of Bloemfontein. There were 321 men wounded at Drifontein, and about sixty or seventy killed or are missing. Col. Umphrey has died of his wounds. Lieut. Pratt, of the Essex Regiment, was wounded severely. The wounds are as a rule more serious than usual owing to the expanding bullets which are freely used by the Boers."

MEDIATION REJECTED.

London, March 13.—The United States government, at the request of President Kruger and President Steyn, has refused to mediate between the Boers and the British government in their dispute over the Orange Free State.

BRITAIN'S REPLY. London, March 13.—In the House of Lords to-day the Premier, Lord Salisbury, read the British Government's reply to President Kruger and Steyn. The concluding sentence is as follows:—"Her Majesty's Government can only answer your honours' telegram by saying it is not prepared to assent to the independence of either."

AT BIGGARSBERG. Ladysmen, Monday, March 12.—The main body of the Boers is in position at Biggarsberg. Gen. Joubert is at Glencoe. There is reason to believe that a few Boers are at Dundee, though the place is well fortified.

MAFEEKING'S CONDITION. A despatch to the Times from Mafeking, dated Monday, March 5, says the garrison were then feeling acutely the stress of the siege. They were reduced to the use of horse flesh and bread made from horse forage, while the water was parasitically contaminated.

TYPHOID, dysentery and diphtheria were epidemic but it was impossible to isolate the victims. The sufferings of the women and children were terrible and there were deaths in the women's hospital daily. The native population was starving.

The military operations were progressing favorably. They had been extended to the brick fields whence the enemy had been completely expelled.

A despatch received by a South Africa firm in London, dated Mafeking, Tuesday, March 6, via Lobatse, March 9, says: "All well, but town still besieged."

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

Waterman's "Ideal"

The favorite with the Court Stenographer, the Busy Merchant, the Professional Man, and all who seek for excellence in a loaded pen.

Costs $2.50, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00

Do You Catch On?

Is approved by millions Is always ready. Doesn't clog. Doesn't drip. Feeds regularly. Is not complicated. Never corrodes. May be relied on.

That is what you get when you buy

Waterman's "Ideal"

Do You Catch On?

Is approved by millions Is always ready. Doesn't clog. Doesn't drip. Feeds regularly. Is not complicated. Never corrodes. May be relied on.

That is what you get when you buy

Waterman's "Ideal"

Do You Catch On?

Is approved by millions Is always ready. Doesn't clog. Doesn't drip. Feeds regularly. Is not complicated. Never corrodes. May be relied on.

That is what you get when you buy

Waterman's "Ideal"

of the South African Republics or the Orange Free State."

FRANCE'S POLICY.

Paris, March 13.—A representative of the Associated Press has secured from a responsible mouthpiece of the French government the exposition of France's attitude in the matter of intervention in the Anglo-Boer war, which, it is said, has been decided upon. The same policy will be followed by Russia. There will be no intervention of any sort, not even a suggestion of mediation. The reason for this is fear of further exciting the public feeling on both sides of the English channel.

IS THERE OPPOSITION?

London, March 13.—Lord Roberts' actual entry into the Orange Free State capital seems likely to be delayed until to-morrow or late to-day, as his statement that he is going to reinforce Gen. French implies that opposition is being encountered on the outskirts of the town, though the definite statement that the British cavalry leader has positions which command the situation leaves no doubt that the occupation will speedily be effected, and with it, so the London critics think, will accrue to the British important captures of supplies, if not of prisoners. However, it may be that the Boers may make a strenuous resistance, which will not be overcome until Lord Roberts' main army catches up with the cavalry.

The strategic importance of what is taken to be the practical capture of one of the enemy's seats of government has created little enthusiasm in London, as for days it had been regarded as certain that Lord Roberts would soon be at Bloemfontein.

AT BIGGARSBERG.

Ladysmen, Monday, March 12.—The main body of the Boers is in position at Biggarsberg. Gen. Joubert is at Glencoe. There is reason to believe that a few Boers are at Dundee, though the place is well fortified.

MAFEEKING'S CONDITION. A despatch to the Times from Mafeking, dated Monday, March 5, says the garrison were then feeling acutely the stress of the siege. They were reduced to the use of horse flesh and bread made from horse forage, while the water was parasitically contaminated.

TYPHOID, dysentery and diphtheria were epidemic but it was impossible to isolate the victims. The sufferings of the women and children were terrible and there were deaths in the women's hospital daily. The native population was starving.

The military operations were progressing favorably. They had been extended to the brick fields whence the enemy had been completely expelled.

A despatch received by a South Africa firm in London, dated Mafeking, Tuesday, March 6, via Lobatse, March 9, says: "All well, but town still besieged."

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

ARRIVED TOO LATE. Drifontein, Orange Free State, March 12.—The Canadians, with the headquarters staff of Lord Roberts' army, quitted here after dark last evening, too late to take part in the unexpected engagement at this point with the Boers, who were come upon the advance guard of cavalry strongly entrenched in the neighboring kopjes. It was expected that the battle would be resumed this morning, in which event the Canadian troops would have been actively engaged. When daylight came, however, it was found that under cover of the darkness the enemy had retired, taking his guns with him.

Dress, Goods and Millinery | C. Austin & Co. | Carpets Clothing

New Spring Values

Having the right kind of goods and knowing that our prices are right, we would be indeed shortsighted if we failed to emphasize and duly exploit the merits of the different lines. We could tell of scores of new lines, but lack of space won't permit, but the articles and prices mentioned below will be enough to arouse your interest for buying early.

- I.—Just arrived, new crash skirting, full 36 in. wide, in navy and brown, white and brown checks, also tweed effects, this material is correct for skirts and summer suits, per yd. 25c
- II.—Tucked Apron Lawn, we have an excellent assortment of these goods now in stock for your inspection, here are a few special quotations:—
 - 40 in. special apron lawn, ready hemmed, with two wide tucks, extra fine lawn, 12 1/2 per yd. 12 1/2
 - 37 in. extra fine quality of cloth, with tucks and Valenciennes, insertion and hem-stitched, value per yd. 25c
 - 42 in. extra special fine soft finish, suitable for skirts or aprons, with four tucks and as many rows of insertion, per yd. 25c
- III.—New tea cloth, all pure Irish linen, best value in the trade, blue or red, borders, with the name woven in white letters, size 20x30, 10c each, 23x32, 12 1/2c each
- Loom Damask Table Napkins, disc patterns, special value, ready hemmed, 17x17 in., special per dozen. 75c

At Per Pair 25c

- IV.—22x40 special buck towels, heavy quality, fancy red border. 18x36, plain linen hemmed towels, very heavy, red border. 18x36, pure white damask towels, fancy patterns, extra fine for the price.

- V.—Broadened P. K's., white grounds, with colored polka dot patterns, special for children's dresses or shirt waists, per yd. 18c
- VI.—Special values in dress ducks, white grounds, with fine stripes, spots and fancy designs, reg. 10c quality for per yd. 9c
- VII.—A big assortment of lace striped muslins, for children's wear, 25 and 26 in. wide, very special per yd. 7c and 8c
- VIII.—We don't have to say much about our table linens, nearly every lady in Chatham is aware of the excellent values we give, but here are two lines worthy of praise:—
 - Full 72 in. half bleached tabling, good patterns, heavy quality, per yd. 40c
 - Full 60 and 62 1/2 in. pure linen damask, choice designs, extra heavy and will bleach very quickly, special per yd. 50c

The Great One Price Clothing House

Always endeavors to deal fairly with customers and cannot help being appreciated by keen buyers, never before were such clothing values shown over a counter as we will show for this season.

Watch Our 1900 Mode

Keep your eye on this space from this out for Clothing News.

New Arrivals This Week

See our Men's Swool Whipcord Top Coats, beauties, $7.50 and $10.00.

Men's Solid Serge Suits $4.50, in dark navy blue serge, good weight, well made and lined, full range of sizes 36 to 44, very special value.

Men's Honest Tweed Suit, $5.00, made from good wearing tweeds, neat checks and overplaid, nice shades brown and green effects, single and double breasted styles, sizes from 36 to 44.

Men's Nobby Pattern Tweed Suits $6.50 a very special all-wool tweed, nobby gray overplaid, a wearer, especially well made, sizes 36 to 42.

Men's Swool Tweed and Serge Suits $7.50, the swellest and best line of men's suits shown for the price, nobby checks, overplaid and plain serge, A 1 fitters, sizes 36 to 42, very pretty colorings.

The Very Latest Patterns in Men's Suits $9.00, at this price we are showing a very special range of patterns and neat Shepherd checks and the rough goods, also plain serge, all the new shading, beauties, all sizes.

Special Values in Men's Black Suits $7.00