A HUNDRED LIVES LOST

Steamer Columbia Sinks in Five Minutes Off Californian Coast.

Terrible Midnight Catastrophe Blights Many Homes—Vessel Was Struck By a Lumber Boat and Cut to the Water's Edge—Eighty Persons Saved After Hours in the Water —Captain Was Drowned.

San Francisco, July 23.—More than 100 lives were lost last Saturday night when the steamer Columbia, bound north from this port for Portland, collided with the lumber steamer San Pedro off Shelter Cove, Mendocino County.

Eighty other persons who were on the Columbia were rescued after being in the water several hours.

There was a heavy fog at the time, and the San Pedro, heavily laden with lumber, struck the Columbia on the port bow with such terrific force that she was cut down to the water and sank in about five minutes.

Of the 180 passengers many succeeded in reaching the San Pedro, which remained afloat. Only 80 of them remained, however, when after many hours the steamer Roanoke came up to their rescue.

Captain P. A. Doran of the Columbia went down with his vessel.
The San Pedro was picked up by the steamer George W. Elder, and is now being towed into Eureka.

The collision occurred at midnight when all on board save the lookout and officers on the bridge were asleep in their berths.

The Columbia was steaming north at an easy rate, having left here at noon Saturday.

Suddenly out of the fog loomed the dark hulk of the San Pedro, southbound, which was evidently out of her course.

Whistles were blown and frantic ef-orts made by the helmsman of each vessel to avert the collision, but they were of no avail.

The San Pedro struck the steamer in the port bow, tearing an immense hole in her side, through which the water rushed in great volume.

Alarms were sounded throughout the passenger ship, and the terrified passengers scrambled from their state rooms in an effort to escape from the doomed vessel.

But the time was too short to aid the life savers. The vessel sank within five minutes of the time of the collision.

A life raft was launched with a number of passengers on board, but only a few of the entire number on board were saved.

During the earthquake and fire the Columbia was lying at the drydock of the Union Iron Works, and the shock loosened some of the blocks, with the result that the vessel was capsized.
But she was entirely refitted and when she left here Saturday she carried a full list of passengers.

The assistant to President Frey of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Co. yesterday gave out the following figures:

"Cabin passengers upon the Columbia 168; steerage passengers 21; total passengers 189; crew 60. This makes a total of 249 souls on board."

"Reported saved 98; unaccounted for 151."

Except for the lists of those on board, Mr. Frey would not vouch for the accuracy of these figures. He said:

"We have made every effort by wire to confirm from Eureka and other points along the coast, but all that we learned thus far has come from the Roanoke and the newspapers."

According to J. C. Flynn, a rescued passenger of the Columbia, every woman passenger on board was lost.

The steamer Roanoke spoke to the sinking Columbia, and the latter had on board eighty-eight passengers and crew from the Columbia.

The San Pedro is in a water-logged condition. Her stern is gone, her main mast broken off, and her foremast sprung. The San Pedro's cargo was lost.

When spoken by the Roanoke the Elder was trying to tow her to Eureka, but was making slow progress.

The Merchants' Exchange of this city has been besieged by anxious relatives and friends of the Columbia passengers since yesterday morning.

The Columbia was owned by the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Co., and hailed from Portland, Ore. She is 310 feet long, registers 1,746 tons, and was built in Chester, Pa., in 1880.

The San Pedro hails from San Francisco, and is 183 feet long, registers 659 tons, and was built in 1899 at Aberdeen, Washington.

Boy Burned to Death.

Brookville, July 23.—From injuries received by being burned with gasoline H. Cubley, aged 10 years, died at the home of his father, W. H. Cub-ley. He was accompanying his parents in a skiff to their summer home on the river when the gasoline became ignited, spreading to Cubley's clothing. To escape being burned to death he jumped into the water and was afterwards rescued. The flames ad burned deeply into the flesh, and he lived only a short time.

China Ready For Rebellion.

New York, July 23.—A letter just received at the headquarters of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian Church, describing the conditions around Canton, says that only a leader is necessary for a widespread rebellion in that part of China.

Killed by Lightning.

Rochester, N.Y., July 23.—Lightning Sunday night struck and killed Peter O'Brien, 14 years old, at East Williamson. The lad with his father sought shelter from the storm under a tree. The elder O'Brien was shocked, but recovered.

Ottawa Hotelmen Summoned.

Ottawa, July 23.—The hotelmen of Ottawa are evidently not obeying the law. Charges of selling during prohibited hours have been laid by the provincial license inspector against fourteen hotelmen.

BABY'S FACE IN TERRIBLE STATE

Awful Humor Was Eating Away Face

—Three Doctors Tried to Help Little Sufferer But She Grew

Dollars On Doctors and Medicine

CUTICURA CURES IN TWO WEEKS AT COST OF 75c.

"I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter.
She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without result. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was being eaten away. Her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used a half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-born babe's.
I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicine without any benefit whatever. Mrs. George J.
Steege, 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, Aug. 30, 1905."

A LOST CONTRACT.

The Little Thing That May Sometimes Prevent a Sale.

A pen once lost me an order. I had just worked up the executive of a large concern into a desire to buy. I had my contract form lying on his desk with my finger on the dotted line.
He reached over toward his pen rack, took off a pen and plunged it into the ink well. He turned to me with a frown on his face—the well was empty.

I was ready with a fountain pen.
The pen was uncapped. I handed it to him. He started to write. The ink would not flow. I took it and shook it.
Again he made the attempt, with no result.

"I will get one," he said. So he stepped into the other room. Evidently some one stopped him with a question.
For he did not come back for three minutes. Then he stood at his desk.
He looked down at the contract.

"I believe I had better think this matter over again," he said. And all the talk I put up could not budge him.

I had lost a sale because my fountain pen was empty. Now, one of my regular morning duties, week in and week out, just as regular as clockwork, is my checking over of bills he has made and the making out of my expense account, is filling my fountain pen—

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the un-tutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until today we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them and use them as directed, we could cure points with pride in the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never failed to be the most potent stomachic, tonic, liver, invigor-ant, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R.
V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cure it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and dysfunctions, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of published testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhs, leukorrhea, irregular periods, irregularities, prolapsus, and other displacements caused by weakness, necrosation of uterus and kindred affections, or by the use of other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of the medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and are carried out by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. The medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs, and full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper.

Time is the most valuable thing a man can spend.

OPPOSE NATIONALISTS

Sinn Fein Movement Invades
Irish Bye-Elections.

Advocates Will Precipitate Exciting Struggle With the Irish Party—Mr. Blake's Seat to Be Fought—Member for North Wexford Boldly Declared Himself a Sinn Feiner—
The Outcome Uncertain.

Dublin, July 23.—The Sinn Fein Society evidently is preparing for a trial of strength against the Irish Nationalist party in the pending miniature Irish general elections. The reignation of Edward Blake, Irish Nationalist, for the south division of Longford, makes the fourth vacancy, and if the Nationalists challenge Sir Thomas Henry Grafton Esmonde's contest in North Wexford, five seats will be vacated.

Sir Thomas has declared himself flatly as a Sinn Feiner. At a big Sinn Fein demonstration held by his constituency at Enniscorthy yesterday, a letter from him was read denouncing parliamentary agitation as worthless, "since England would never give Home Rule or any other concession for the asking."

"Ireland," the letter continued, "is no colony, she is a foreign nation, and should give up begging with bated breath and whimpering humblesness in a foreign Legislature for the restoration of her stolen liberties."

A meeting was arranged to be held in Phoenix Park, here, Sunday, to support the Sinn Fein policy. It was attended by only five hundred persons, although the park was crowded with Sunday visitors.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Irish League, at Manor Hamilton, the centre of Charles J.
Dolan's constituency, Mr. Dolan's action in joining the Sinn Fein Society was condemned, and resolutions were adopted calling upon him to resign his seat in Parliament. The present prospects of the Sinn Feiners carrying any constituency except North Wexford are remote.

PLEA FOR HIS LIFE.

Haywood's Counsel Takes Up the Argument For the Defence At Boise.

Boise, Idaho, July 23.—For four and one-half hours yesterday, E. F. Richardson pleaded with the jury for the life of William D. Haywood.

Under order of the court the hours for the day's session were changed, and, instead of sitting in the afternoon, court met at 6 o'clock last night.
Judge Wood was informed by the jurthat the extreme heat of the courtroom was too trying on some of the jurors, and he complied with the request for a late evening session.

The preliminary hearing of the case of Dr. I. L. McGee, one of the witness-jury, came up yesterday afternoon,

CURIOUS CAIRO.

The Water Sellers, Coffee Makers and Fakers of the Streets.

The most numerous and also the most interesting of street figures in Cairo are the water sellers, some of whom go about with hideous looking goatskins filled with Nile water.

Others carry more inviting looking, reddish clay jars, decorated with brass bands, and these jars often have a piece of ice at their mouth and a sprig of mint protruding on either side of the ice. The carrier with the goatskin calls out his mission, but the other with the jar carries in his left hand two brass saucers, which he clicks together with a sort of musical jingle.

The water in either case is not filtered, but is taken straight from the Nile, and the purchasers are all natives, who pay a fraction of a penny for all they are able to drink.

The street sellers of coffee are everywhere, squatting about on the pavements in the most unexpected places.
Their outfits comprise merely a kettle of charcoal, a small copper coffee cup with a long handle, two or three small bowls of china and a supply of coffee and sugar. It takes one only a few minutes to brew a fresh cup, and as Turkish coffee goes that brewed by the street seller is not really bad.

The ever present conjurer is worth stopping to watch, although the tricks are in most part generally on the order of conjurers' tricks in other countries. The most interesting part of their paraphernalia is their sign, which is a small live rabbit. The moment the performance begins the little animal rolls over, to all appearances dead, but when some ten minutes later all of the tricks have been done, some of which are admittedly more or less puzzling, up jumps the little rabbit as chipper and gay as ever. It is claimed that the ego of the rabbit leaves the body for the express purpose of assisting the conjurer, and one for a moment is inclined to give credence to this while watching the performance and after having seen the rabbit go into its trance.—Harriet Quimby in Leslie's Weekly.
