

THE ACADIAN

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JUNE 17, 1892.

Terrific Storm.

On Tuesday evening a most terrific storm of lightning, thunder, wind, rain and hail passed down the valley, leaving in its track dire damage on every hand.

The death of Capt. Stairs, the companion of Stanley in darkest Africa, is announced. He died at Chinde, on his way explorer left England just a year ago, leading an expedition from the east coast into the heart of the Dark Continent.

Kentville News.

The sad death of Mrs E. A. Dodge occurred at her home last Saturday. She was only 28 years of age and leaves three sorrowing children.

Miss Hattie Eaton, of Parrishboro, lately a teacher at Acadia Seminary, has been visiting her relatives at Kentville.

It is reported that the W. & A. R. have about completed their arrangements for taking over the C. V. R. and will soon be in charge.

Avard Pines, Acadia B. A. 1892, has arrived with W. E. Roscoe, Esq., and entered his office here for the summer, and then go to Dalhousie Law School in September.

The organ-grinder and his monkey struck the town last Saturday and did it up thoroughly. The euphonious sound of the scissor-grinder's bell was also heard on the same day.

A Kentville bicycle club is one of the things that is talked about here at the present time. Before a club can be started a good many new wheels will have to be bought, as there are only six in use here at present.

The foundation for the new hotel is being laid on the land leased from the C. V. Railway near their station, a number of car loads of stone have arrived and been placed in position.

In Sheffield vs Green a case tried in the last County Court Judge Chipman has given judgment for the defendant, and fixing the costs at $40.00.

Mr W. E. Webster has had a new plate front put in his shop on Webster street, and an addition is being built on in the rear. Inside the shop has been handsomely fitted and when finished this will be an attractive stand.

The annual competition of the Rifle Association took place at the Kentville range on Wednesday. The scores are said to be the lowest made for several years. Prizes were distributed in the evening.

The Supreme Court opened at Kentville Tuesday 7th inst., Chief Justice McDonald presiding. The only true bill found by the jury was in the Queen vs Boyle. When this case came up for trial the crown failed to establish a case and the jury found a verdict of "not guilty" without leaving the box.

At a little past seven o'clock Monday evening Mr W. A. Calnek suddenly fell to the floor and expired in the shop of John Lockett, Bridgetown. Mr Calnek was a man of much ability and possessed of a fund of useful information.

The British American Citizen is now publishing each week a list of provinces people who will take summer holidays. These are inserted free of charge, and make a valuable little directory for Americans.

Joe Edwards' Farewell.

To the Patrons of the Windsor & Annapolis Railway and the reading public generally.

After twenty-two years of active service as conductor on the W. & A. R. I am sorry to inform you that owing to failing health and father time creeping into my bones, I am forced to give up the position of ticket puncher on this railway, and through the kindness of those in authority have been promoted to station agent at Annapolis.

THE WHITE RIBBON.

"For God and Home and Native Land."

Conducted by the Ladies of the W. C. T. U.

President—Mrs W. H. Young. Vice-Presidents—Mrs R. D. Ross, Mrs J. B. Hemmison, Mrs Charles H. Borden. Recording Secretary—Mrs McLean. Cor. Secretary—Miss Minnie Fitch. Treasurer—Mrs J. W. Caldwell. Auditor—Mrs A. E. Caldwell. Organist—Miss Bertha Sleep.

Next meeting in Temperance Hall, Thursday, June 23rd, at 3.30 p. m. The meetings are always open to any who wish to become members.

Gospel Temperance meetings, conducted by members of the W. C. T. U., are held every Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the vestry of the Methodist church. All are welcome.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of this place has, during the past week, sustained a heavy loss in the event of the resignation of its much loved President, Mrs Young, who has so ably and acceptably filled this important position since the organization of the Union in Feby, last.

At the Union meeting held June 9, the President thanked the Union for their sympathy and support, and expressed her deep regret at the step which she found it necessary to take. Mrs Young then followed the remarks with an earnest and loving appeal to the members of the Union, assuring them of great possibilities, and urging them to broader work, and greater effort in the cause they represent.

The President then placed her resignation in the hands of the recording secretary, Mrs McLean, to be read before the Union. This was done, and the resignation was accepted by them just because it was the only thing they could do under the circumstances.

Mrs Taft then stepped forward and read a most appropriate address which beautifully voiced the sentiment of all present, this fact being attested by tears which flowed freely.

Mrs Young's reply to this address was most touching and impressive. Mrs Hemmison also, who has filled well her position of vice-president, resigned her office at this meeting, as she expects soon to leave the place. Mrs D. F. Higgins replied briefly to this resignation, assuring Mrs Hemmison that her work had been appreciated, and that she had the sympathy and good wishes of the Union.

At the close of the meeting the members were asked to remain and spend a social hour together. The Hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, and ice cream and cake provided for refreshment. Several honorary members from our own town and visitors from other Unions were present and a very enjoyable time was spent, encouraging words were spoken, and the bonds of Christian Union strengthened. The social was closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again."

At the urgent request of some of the members the address given to the President, has been secured for publication in this issue.

DEAR MRS PRESIDENT,—I stand here to represent every loyal member of this Union in an expression of unfeigned regret that the time has come when you will no longer be able to preside at our meetings or to act as our leader in this holy war. Our organization has so recently been launched into life we feel that we can ill afford to lose any of our strength, much less to undergo the mourning of so important a link. We are green wood and need the environment of fortuitous elements that we warp not before attaining a well seasoned and permanent basis for future work.

But since this leaving-taking must needs be, accept this expression of our hearty appreciation for the service you have rendered while President of this Union. We thank you for the example you have set before us of modest strength, of lofty purpose, and steady endeavor. We thank you for the enthusiasm with which you have inspired us, and for the broad outlook into future work toward which you have ever aimed to direct our vision.

You came among us a stranger from another people, and have endeared yourself to us all, and have made us aware how much stronger is the bond of common interest and Christian fellowship than any tie where this does not exist. But though our hearts are heavy to-day with this farewell message, and our horizon clouded with a sense of loss, we do not feel that your work among us is ended.

We do not lose you altogether when you go away. No impression made upon a human heart is ever erased. No deed of use or work of worth is ever lost. "Like warp and wool" all destinies are woven fast.

Linked in sympathy like the keys of an organ vast. This ribbon white is a band of Union stronger than the separating influence of time and space.

Our aims are still in unison, our work along the same lines, and our prayers ascending to the same throne. To you shall remain the honor of having set in motion the stone that we shall aim to keep rolling till it has helped to smooth away the rough edges of our social evil. We cannot fail to move forward, and demonstrate to every doubter that it has a right to be, that there is room among us for its fullest growth. More and more the conditions of modern life are teaching us the value of organized work. More and more apparent becomes the fact that the day has gone by when woman, blameless, can fold her hands, or withhold her sympathy from any human need, or confine their ministrations to the circle of home life. This sacred sphere she will all the more enrich with health-giving and uplifting influences, if her mental vision and her spiritual energy are not confined by its four walls. And so, as you lay aside this work be assured that other fields of usefulness are waiting for you, and that you carry our hearts with you as you move toward them. And may God speed us both in the work to which we have put our hands.

We have not seen, we may not see our hopes for man take form in fact, But God will give the victory. In due time; in that faith we act. And he who sees the future sure, The baffling present may endure. And lo! the unseen, the unseen Hand that leads The hearts desires beyond the halting step of leads.

Whatever failures or shortcomings may mar our weak endeavors, all the same this blessed work shall go on, and the heavy cause of interdependence be lifted from our sin laden humanity. No power on earth or in hell beneath can retard the eternal step of progress, "And if beats To that great anthem calm and slow Which God repeats."

Dear sister, pray for us that our faith fail not, that we weary not in well doing but emulate "The patience of immortal Love, Outwearing human sin" And now, farewell, you take with you our loving recognition of a noble and refined Christian woman. You take with you earnest wishes for future weal. May God's richest blessing rest on you and yours, "His own blessing that maketh rich, and addeth no sorrow thereto." In His strength may you and we alike, go forward dauntless, and lift high the banner that floats for God and Home and every land. MARRIE W. TORRS. Wolfville, June 9th, 1892.
