The Literary exercises to consist of an OgATION.—Subject, Tennyson, a Delate on the question of "Free Trade in the Dominion," and the reading of the society's Paper.

THURSDAY, 18th APRIL

Sciety's Paper.

In zoldic in to the Vocal Music, which rill cord to fa Scio, and Choruses, there sill be a Grand EIGHT HANDED OVERTURE—a brilliant piece, imported from Europe for the occasion. As the flusteal Department is under the direction of Prof. 7. H. A. Martens, we hope to be able to furnish the Music-loving public a constraint.

This meeting, 'under aken as the last, attirely on the responsibility of the students, is to be held for the purpose of pasing funds to erect a Portico to the college Building.

The members of the exhibition are led to give a second entertainment from the consideration that many of their friends, shout they expected to eat the last, were unfortunately hardered from being present by the detention of the train.

Through the kindness of Mr. Carvel, a ppecial train will leave Amberst for Sack-alle at 61-2 o'clock, returning at close of meeting—at one first-class fare. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Exercises to commence at 7 1-2 o'clock.

Admission—25 cents.

Admission—26 cents.

"A horse and cart
Swiftly running away,
Much damage once created,
Poor Pompey's wooden leg
In ruins lay:
His dog was decandated.

But "Liquin Giff"

Thrice happy tho ight—
Makes all such aractures stronger
It cured the leg.
To make a long tale short,
And made the short tale longer."
