Books and Stationery Daie. SPENCERIAN STEEL PENS. RM - 200

E AND

BEATTY,

RNS!

MILLS—Singl

& SON.

THE

cco

388-13

NDON, E.C.,

£50—4 per cent £100—3 do. £100—2 do.

ments with-litoba!

CH, 1880.

Conver-s, etc., by he Teeth,

400-39

CE,

ITS OF

B.

Superior English make. A E FARM by mail, on receipt of 20 cents ALEX. BUNTIN & CO., MONTREAL; LE AGENTS FOR CANADA. 36 POPULAR MUSIC BOOKS. Temperance Jewels. New Temperance Songs of the best quality. 30cts. (Nearly Ready.) AL. GLASS. White Robes. The Sweetest Sabbath Song Book ever made. 30cts. Gem Gleaner. Superior collection of Anthems for Church Service. $1.00. Prodigal Son. A grand Cantata. By to Music Societies. 75cts. American Glee Book. Mixed One of the very best Glee and Chorus Books. $1.50 Emerson's Vocal Method. or Voice Training. One of the very best. $1.50. Dr. of Alcantara. Fine Opera. Good Music and easy to ## Specimens of these or any other books, or any of of Sheet Music mailed anywhere, post

OLIVER DITSON & CO. BOSTON. H. Ditson & Co., 843 Broadway New York.

Educational.

PICKERING COLLEGE.

riends, but open to young people of both sexes of il denominations, aims to give a thorough practi-financial.

invested in Wall street Stocks makes fortunes every month. Book sent free explaining everything. BAXTER & CO.. Bankers, 7 Wall st., N.Y.

WALL STREET SYNDICATES. 4 The Syndicate System offers the best guarantees for

$1.200 RETURNS IN 36 reports free. Like profits weekly on stock options of $10 to $50. Address T. POTTER WIGHT & CO. Bankers, 35 Wall street, New York. 370-52

Tobaccos.

TOBACCOS.

For the last TWENTY-ONE years this TRADE MARK has been known throughout Canada as the safest guide to RELIABLE TOBACCOS.

IDOL SMOKING

TOBACCO

THE IDOL brand of Bright Tobacco ENUINE: yields a rich, fra-AYLOR, grant smoke, that will be highly appreciated by veteran smokers. surpassing that of any other Tobacco to be had in Canada. RAL PRODUCE

THERE IS A TIN STAMP AS REPRESENTED ABOVE ON THE WORLD. EVERY PLUG.

Nº1 PRINCE of WALES

For sale by all FIRST CLASS Grocery Houses throughout the Domi-MANITOBA nion.

> W. C. McDONALD, Manufacturer, MONTREAL.

TIE, THE WEEKLY MAIL published every Thursday morning in time for the English mail, second edition on Friday, and de-atched by first trains and express to all parts of ORONTO. action by irst trains and express to an income of the common. Price $4.00 a year.

Advertisements for casual insertion are charged the rate of fifteen cents per line; contract rates the year made known on application. Condensed wertisements are inserted at the rate of fifty cents retwenty words, and two cents each additional ord.

THE WEEKLY MAIL torms an excellent edium through which to reach the public, circuiting from every Post Office and prominent point is stario, and largely in the sister Previnces of Quec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, British Columbia, and Manitch and Manitoba.

THE WEEKLY MAIL—Printed and published by CHRISTOPHER W. BUNTING, at the office corner of King and Bay streets ing the City and Toronto.

VOL. VIII. NO. 401.

TORONTO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1879.

UNUSUAL FORBRARANCE.

STARTLING MEASURES PROMISED.

PRICE THREE CENTS

IRELAND'S TROUBLES

The Last of the Prisoners Committed for Trial.

LIVELY SCENES IN COURT

Extraordinary Conduct of the Counsel for the Defense.

Interview with the Arrest

Great Demonstrations of Sympathizers.

Inflammatory Speech by Mr. Gladstone BY CARLE TO THE MAIL!

LONDON, Nov. 26. At the trial of the agitators to-day Mr. Monroe, Q.C., said Killen, being a barrister, might lead people to believe they could act upon his advice. He made long quotations from Killen's speech at the Gurteen meeting, on which he (Mr. Monroe) relied for Killen's committal, to the effect that he would like nothing better than to see thousands of men combetter than to see thousands of ing over the mountains, rifle in hand. He showed that others who were present at the meeting had remonstrated against Rea made a long rambling speech for the defence. He was ordered by the Bench to sit down. The shorthand writers and others were then examined.

violent scene occurred in the Court room.
Mr. Rea, counsel for Killen, accused Mr. Parnell of arrogating to himself sovereign rights, and of inciting well-meaning and loyal subjects to acts of treason. Malony sprung to his feet, and in a wild manner denounced Rea as a liar, blackguard and many times that whenever he has a case it is always expected as a matter to kick up a row in before Preliment to committee, a characteristic scene at the bar of the House of Commons, from which he had to be carried by main force and confined till they got tired keeping him-for John never submits. one of the ablest attorneys in Ireland and has an immense knowledge of law. He is a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, and a man of extensive reading. A man of independent means, he practices law from and in 1848 was a staunch adherent of John Mitchel. Although a Nationalist he can always obtain a hearing from the Orangemen as well as from the Catholics, and once-told a mixed meeting of Ulstermen that they have the best blood of the three kingsoms in their veins, being descended from the men who conquered at Clontarf, Bannackburn, Creey, Aginoourt and the Yellow Ford from Crusaders, Covenanters, Cavaliers and Roundheads."]

The cross-examination of witnesses by Mr. Rea was not concluded when the Court adjourned

SLIGO, Nov. 27. The close of the proceedings against the three Irish prisoners was to-day enlivened by the eacentricities of Mr. John Rea, attorney-at-daw from Belfast. As soon as Mr. Monroe, prosecuting for the Crown, had resumed his seat, and had said that he left with letters demanding my arrest. They never had to encounter such a spirit of independence and resistance as the peasantry have exhibited sine the agitation began. Ordinarily, the peer Irish farmer, who is politically and socially at the mercy of his territorial master, is afraid to dress summons against Dr. McCabe, the Catholic Archbishop of Dublin. "What right," he demanded, "had the counsel for the Crown to read the pastoral published by a foe to read the pastoral published by a foe to read the pastoral published by a foe to for a redress of the land law grievances.

The Cauer Cleared.

With letters demanding my arrest. They never had to encounter such a spirit of independence and resistance as the peasantry have not he agitation began. Ordinarily, the peer Irish farmer, who is politically and socially at the mercy of his territorial master, is afraid to dress himself and his children comfortably, or even to enjoy substantial food, lest the Erish peeple. What right had the Archbishop to say that they were driving God from their side by a wolation of his law. What right had he to say that the doctrines preached by his elsent struck at the root of good faith and mutual confidence. This pastoral was a libel on test can be enough the form of the country of the

Court adjourned

the Magistrates hurriedly began to leave their seats, but the attention of the vast erowd in Court was closely held by the apeaker. He extolled the Fenians and Ribbonmen as heroes and martyrs. He said that Ireland should yet have a Parliament sitting mear the statue of King William. He called on the Magistrates to return to the Bench and administer equitably. In their place a fyle of policemen cutered the doors at the back and surrounded the spectators. Mr. Rea told the Sheriff not to obey the order he had re-Sheriff not to obey the order he had re-ceived to clear the Court. He addressed

"I am not sure that the Governme form, and had interrupted and contradicted them, so making them angry, and driving the persons thus bullied into saying strenger things than were altogether advisable."

Killen complained of the prison discithe evening and get up at six in the morn-A SCENE IN COURT.

After the magistrates had ordered the committal of Davitt to await his trial, a three-quarters of an hour were allowed for exercise in the open air. No communication might be held with one and munication might be held with one and the state of th other. No lights were furnished, or news-papers or book. Killen said he would never cease from his task of agitation till the great work of reform was accomplished.

DAVITT'S VIEWS,

Davitt is in a cent near by. He is comfortable and cheerful, as indeed he might denounced Rea as a liar, blackguard and ruffian. The scene for some time was one of great excitement. [Killen's counsel is thus described by a writer, who apparently is well acquainted with his eccentricities and the chief incidents in his past career:—

"There are a great many eccentric men in Ireland, but John Rea, the Belfast attorney, who loves to call himself 'the Orange-Fenian-'Prentice-Boy,' is decidedly the most eccentric man 'within the four walls' of the Emerald Isle. He has been in more scrapes than any man who ever troot the scrapes than any man who ever troot the scrapes. The speech for which he is reported correctly. He said that landlordism was a conspiracy which must be crushed. Mr. Monroe to-day characterized him as the most dangerous of all the prisoners. He said that the reports from a number of counties, all of the which indicated that the agitators would meet with more difficulty than they an ticipated, the people not being in sympathy with their extreme views, although generally approving of the struggle for reforms. He said that the reports of disturbances in a great many districts were untrue, or greatly exaggerated for partisan purposes. He believed that the good sense of the great mass of th ne has somebody to fight. He has committed for contempt of Court so times that whenever he has a big it is always expected as a matter of the that time has been constantly in en," and that John is to be at least was he who revived O'Connell's plan for the reconstruction of the Irish House of the present unruly feeling was wide-spread, and he expected that the place of all others where he layer the place of all others where he layer that they expressed his place of all others where he layer that they expressed his place of the respectable people would yet prevail, although he would not during the winter the demagogues at the place of all others where he layer that they expressed his place of all others where he layer that they expressed his place of the present unruly feeling was wide-spread, and he expected that the post of the present unruly feeling was wide-spread, and he expected that the post of the great mass of the respectable people would yet prevail, although he would not during the winter the demagogues at the post of the present unruly feeling was wide-spread, and he expected that the post of the great mass of the respectable people would yet prevail, although he would not during the winter the demagogues at the present unruly feeling was wide-spread, and he expected that the good sense of the great mass of the respectable people would yet prevail, although he would not during the winter the demagogues at the present unruly feeling was without the present unruly feeling was with the present unruly feeling was without the present unruly feelin be necessary to organize the country, and to make the National Convention a therough success. He thought the people should be prepared for the election of Irish members to sit, where they ought to sit, on Those who were leading the movements of the state of the leading of the members to sit, where they ought to sit, on Those who were leading the movements.

members to sit, where they ought to sit, on ances. Those who were leading the movedeeping him—for John never submits. He once got into a rew with the Mayor of Belfast, and, failing to obtain 'justice' in Belfast, he appealed to a higher court in Dublin for the Mayor's arrest, and, after a heated argument, the Judge failing to comply, he was demounced in the fiercest should be by ballot. I relieved my intervals to the variety of the value of the value of the voting should be by ballot. I relieved my intervals to the value of the value of the value of the voting should be by ballot. I relieved my intervals to the value of the v comply, he was demounced in the fiercest manner on the very bench as a partisan.

On another occasion when John was tried for libel, he defended himself, and, after what the papers called an 'inflammatory' speech, he wound up by saying, 'Gentlement of a well packed jury, cenvict me if you can. I defy your verdict,' The report states that the scene that followed was indescribable. Juries, however, generally let him off easy. He is regarded as a privileged character, and has an awkward habit of filing bills of exceptions which result in endless litigation. With all this eccentricity John Rea is unquestionably

THE LANDLORDS EARN NOTHING sheer love of it and because, as one of his countrymen once said, he 'couldn't keep doing nothing.' A Presbyterian in religion, he has always espoused the popular side, and in 1848 was a staunch adherent of John Mitchel. Although a Nationalist he can

Dublin Castle."
"Do I understand you to say," I tinued, "that the landlords are implicated in these proceedings?"

"Certainly," said Davitt, "they have floeded the Castle for the past three months with letters demanding my arrest. They never had to encounter such a spirit of independence and registrace as the months.

To this philippie the Magistrates merely replied that if Mr. John Rea, attorney at law, did not call his witnesses they would at once close the case. Notwithstanding this injunctions from the Bench, Mr. Rea still continued his excited harangue. On this, the Magistrates hurriedly began to leave their seats, but the attention of the vast longer paid?"

in that rent should be no cheering and calling for Daiy to appear, and make a speech, but in consequence of the advice of Mr. Parnell and others, he would not Government believes there is no organization. "I don't say there is," said Killen, "and I don't say there is not, but they think we shall be easily broken up. The object of the Government is to drive the agitators to acts of desperation. They only sought an excuse for military interference. The of the Government is to drive the agitators to acts of desperation. They only sought an excuse for military interference. The speakers would never have gone so far as down. Is it right that landlore should be shot down. Is it right that landlore should be shot down. speakers would never have gone so that they did except for the opposition of the Catholic priests, who had gone on the platbut squander it in London and Paris absentee landlords in Mayo, for instance, Sir Roger Palmer, Lord Dillon, and the Marquis of Eligo, take £100,000, out of the country, and devil a farthing do they spend in it. There are 500,000,000 Christians pline. He was obliged to retire at five in in the world, and in ne other country but Ireland do they toil the year round and give fifteen shillings out of twenty to the landlord. If a farmer makes a little more,

> DUBLIN, Nov. 27. An interview with his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has been made public. His Grace reviewed the situation

creased rent.

said that the Right Hon. Jas. Lowener, Chief Secretary for Ireland, was hourly expected from London, and would take steps toward inaugurating a system of Government works, which would afford employment to the needy poor. Means would also be taken to afford conditional monetary aid to deserving farmers. His Grace also said, no additional arrests were contemplated, and none would be made unless there were additional incitings to rebelliousness. He added that he thought the present litigation and expenses might have been saved and more relief given to the poer.

APPRALING TO EUROPE. O'Donnell, Home Rule member of Parliament, is now in Paris. He advocates the formation in Paris of an organization of Irishmen resident there with the object of keeping continental journals acquainted with the facts of the Irish situation and appealing to the sympathetic opinion of MANIFESTO FROM THE LAND LEAGUE. MANIFESTO FROM THE LAND LEAGUE.

The Executive Committee of the Irish Land League have addressed a manifesto, signed by Messrs. Parnell, Biggar, Davitt, and others, appealing to the Irish farmers for practical assistance in the movement for a redress of the land law grievances.

KILLEN COMMITTED. |Villen's case was called in the Court Nillen's case was called in the Court House this morning. As soon as the magistrate took his seat, he asked Mr. Rea, the attorney, if he intended to call any witne uses for the defence. Mr. Rea replied that he desired the presence of Archbishop McCabe, of Dublin. He also summoned several other dignitaries, among them Canon McDermott. The Magistrate said he should refuse to hear any such testimony. He then closed the case perempnow prominently mentioned for Parliament. Rea afterwards announced that the Mayor had given him the use of the Town Hall to protest against the decision. The Mayor denied this. Res proceeded to de-Mayor denied this. Res proceeded to denounce the stipendiary magistrate as a police spy. Persons acquainted with the English form of procedure were astonished at the forbearance of the Court toward Rea.

STARTING MEASURES PROMISED In consequence of some technical points

Court of Queen's Bench and attempt to quash the magisterial proceedings on various points. The assizes will be opened at Carrick-on-Shannon 11th prox., when bills will be sent to the Grand Jury. The PANNING THE FLAME. Crown will then suggest the removal of the cases to a special commission of the Queen's Bench at Dublin. Killen stated Queen's Bench at Dublin. Killen stated the some startling measures would be taken in his behalf in the law Courts. Several Sligo gentlemen were ready to bail him to-day.

London. Nov. 29.

London. Nov. 29.

LONDON, Nov. 29. A great sensation has been caused in Ireland by Mr. Gladstone's references to the Irish Church. "Down to the year MURDERED BY A WOMAN. 1868," says the ex-Premier, " and the dissolution of that year, the whole question of the Irish Church was dead, nobody cared for it, nobody paid attention to it. In England, circumstances occurred which drew the attention of the people to the Irish Church. I had in 1865 said that I believed it was out of the range of practical control of the range of the

however of the the applie was however open under droumstand which drew the attention of the English people to the state of Ireland, and when, in Manchester, a policeman was murdered in the execution of his duty, at once the whole country became alive to the question of the Irish Church. It came within the range of practical politics. The Irish Church Act followed. A LOGICAL DEDUCTION

The natural inference among the op-ponents of landlordism in Ireland is that if the blowing up of one gaol, and the murdering of a solitary policeman, brought about the passing of the Church Act, per-haps the blowing up of two gaols, and the killing of a few landlords, would pass the Land Act. At all events, the agitators feel greatly encouraged by Mr. Gladstone's language. I understand, from leaders of the agitation, that they intend to carry the movement into England, where many large meetings have already been organized. The next three or four weeks will probably witness a great development of the agitation. More organizations exist in the West of Ireland than is generally believed. I was informed last night, by a gentleman in a position to know, that secret organized drilling is going off constantly there. It is now stated that Parnell will probably not go to is generally believed. I was informed last people, but against the Crown, from whom it held authority, than by perverting the forms of law in order to gain political ad-vantage over political opponents. That was what the Government had done. HIS FAVOURITE SIMILE. Mr. Parnell thought the result would be made a greater mistake in tackling the Irish people than when they tackled the Afghans and the Zulus. He and his felow workers were engaged in a constitutional agitation for the purpose of obtaining a reform of the land laws. The Government had come forward and had attempted to put down the agitation, but the people of Ireland knowing their rights, and knowing their strength under the constitution, would stand by the movement until landlordism, as an institution, was forever abolished from the country. Resolutions moved by Mr. Parnell were carried with enthusiasm, to the effect were carried with enthusiasm, to the effect that the arrests were arbitrary, uuconsti-tutional, and calculated to weaken the con-fidence of the people of Ireland in the im-partiality of the law, and that a Govern-ment which squanders the bloed and treas-ure of the people in unjust wars abroad, while misery and famine are unrelieved at home, stands condemned in the eyes of all right-minded and thoughtful men. Mright-minded and thoughtful men. Mr. Finnigan, obstructionist member of Parliament for Ennis, spoke strongly, denounce ing the Government. There was no dis-turbance. The authorities had taken strong precautions. The committee at a prior meeting had issued an appeal to the Irish to maintain a firm but peaceful atti-

AN INTERVEW WITH THE PARROSCHE.

On Saturday Mr. Parroll goes to Liverpool, and on Monday to London. Mr.
Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Durith is now on his ways to Newcastle.

Mr. Duri

Mayo present, Father Stenson was elected to preside. He said that he hoped before he died to have the honour of presiding at a meeting of peasant proprietors. Encouraging letters were received and read to the meeting from Messrs. Davitt, Biggar, and S. P. Smythe. Caner. McDawatt, tool S. P. Smythe. Canon McDermott stood up courageously for Davitt and his con-ductat Gurteen. Father O'Haraadvised the people not to pay any rents except the overplus of the year's proceeds. Mr. Daly said that he did not care whether his words were Purveyors for the Sultan's Palace have suspended daily supplies, owing to the non-payment of long-standing bills, but Osman Pasha is still able to draw his enormous salary.

A Vienna despatch says the failure of the stand together and to fight the Government, and the leaders were imprisoned in their thousands. Various resolutions were passed condemning the recent action of the Government.

A Vienna correspondent learns that before Prince Lobanoff left Constantinople, In consequence of some technical points of inquiry having been omitted in the confusion, it is intended to apply for a writ of habeas corpus to bring Killen before the Court of Queen's Bench and attempt to the Court of Queen's Bench and Att

A banquet was held at Ballaghradereen at night. Mr. Dillon said that the Government, in its recent action, had only fur-thered the cause which they all had at LONDON, Nov. 30. deeper, if not more demonstrative. A bailiff, on attempting within a day or two to serve a decree of ejectment upon a farmer coupying a small holding in Kerry, was attacked and killed by the farmer to the format of the Dominion.

Several tenant farmers, delegates, have arrived home from Canada. They recommend Ontario and Quebec to farmers with large capital; and Manitoba and the North-West for young farmers. They speak in high terms of the Dominion.

The German Postmaster Conservation of the Conservat by officers of the law to arrest the woman.

DEMONSTRATION IN HYDE PARK.

The gathering at Hyde Park to-day in response to the call for a demonstration in favour of the Irish agitators consisted of an immense mob. Great enthusiasm was manifested. Speeches were made and resolutions adopted. Speakers at side meetings used most seditions language. The ings used most seditious language. The authorities apparently took no precautions for the maintenance of order. The meeting was very orderly, It is estimated 50,000 were present. NEWCASTLE AND GLASGOW. Davitt addressed a crowded meeting at Newcastle on the Tyne. He spoke temperately. A meeting of sympathizers at Glasgow passed resolutions the action of the Government. COMING TO AMERICA. Mr. Parnell is expected to sail for America within the next fortnight. He will be accompanied by Mr. Finigan, member of Parliament. LONDON, Dec. 1.

Late advices from several important points in Ireland indicate a better feeling prevailing, and there is reason to believe the culminating point of the agitation has been passed. There is a marked increase in the disposition on the part of the tenants to pay rents, and it is believed but for the

Mr. Parnell spoke at Birkenhead last evening, while Mr. Davitt spoke at Glas-gow. The latter, in his speech, expressed his willingness to accept Home Rule as a settlement for all Irish demands.

BOGUS HORSE-DEALERS.

A Bank Swindled Out of Three Thousand OTTAWA, Nov. 30 —On Saturday night the officials of the Bank of Mentreal received a telegram from New York, pronouncing the cashier's draft for $3,000 a forgery. It cashler's draft for $3,000 a forgery. It was purported to have been drawn by the Commercial Bank of Rochester on the American Exchange of New York. It was presented by two men named Wilson and Smith, horse dealers, who have been in the city for the past ten days, and accepted without enquiry, the days, and accepted without enquiry, the sharpers being introduced by an Ottawa man. Both escaped to the United States, but have been heard from in Utica. They drew $2,500 on Thursday and $500 on Friday, but the fraud was not discovered un-til Saturday night, after they had made good their escape. The fellows bought a number of horses, but only paid $5 earnest Toothache. - Do you suffer with it? Go buy a bottle of Pain Killer and find re-lief in the twinkle of an eye—for Toothache it is a specific.

Sheriff not to obey the order he had received to clear the Court. He addressed clear the Court. He addressed meeting, and there denounce the Magistrates as prejudiced and incompetent. The Court was then cleared, and Mr. Roa was then cleared, and Mr. Roa was the last to leave it, shouting and gestion.

Court was the last to leave it, shouting and gestion.

The dovernment will stop at the arrests already made?"

Canon M. Dermott. The Magistrates said he should refuse to hear any such testing the should refuse to hear any such testing to vanced Liberal, will contest the seat in Parliament made vacant at Sheffield by the death of Mr. Roebuck. A Madrid telegram says the vineyards of Malaga covering 29,000 hectares have been attacked by phylloxera. The pest is increasing in Gerona and Catalonia. A Constantinople despatch says Baker Pasha started for his post as representative of the Sultan to superintend the intro-duction of reforms throughout Asia Minor. Purveyors for the Sultan's Palace have of the Dominion of Canada, so Mr. Chairman and Gentle

A Vienna correspondent learns that before Prince Lobanoff left Constantinople, he concluded an understanding between Russia and the Porte, which will have the force of an alltance in certain eventualities.

It is stated authoritatively that Prof. Andre has at length perfected his electric light. He claims for it, that it exceeds all to there heretofore exhibited in continuity of light and economy in use, and hence in cheanness.

A Constantinople despatch says that Mr. Layard, British ambassador, has pro-tested against the concession to a French company to construct the quays at Con-stantinople and levying tonnage duty as being contrary to capitulations. al tenant farmers, delegat common carriers. A loan is preposed of 24,380,000 marks at four and one-half per now friendly. The tone of the article seems to confirm the recent intelligence of an understanding between England and Persia.

Government against allewing Austria to inherit Turkish supremacy.

A new political Club has been formed at Vienna, consisting of upwards of thirty members of the Reichsrath, who are interested in agricultural matters. members of the Reichsrath, who are in-terested in agricultural matters. All parties are represented in this Club, whose object is to examine all bills relating to agriculture, which may be brought before the House, and to decide what course is to be adopted by the members of the Club with regard to them. Each member pledges himself to adopt the view of the parties in insert to adopt the view of the majority of the Clarb in such cases, and to endeavour to secure its adoption by the political party to which he belongs.

The North German Gazette publishes the

However gratifying these proofs of sympathy, I am, unfortunately, not yet well enough to thank the senders by letter. I, therefore, beg all those who have given me pleasure by their benevolent wishes to help me, to accept my most sincere thanks through this channel."

UNITED STATES.

General Jeff C. Davis died at Chicago on Sunday, aged 53. He caught cold at the Army of Cumberland re-union at Washington and died of pneumonia.

Washington E. Hall, inspector of elections, New York, convicted of making false re-turns of votes, has been sentenced to eighteen months in State prison. Mrs. Franklin Chase died suddenly at

A comprehensive summary of the mes-sage which President Hayes will send to Congress at its opening was received by telegraphyesterday, but the crowded state of our columns, and the press of werk, pre-vented its publication this morning.

The trustees of Dr. Talmage's church at Brooklyn, N.Y., on Monday unanimously adopted a resolution favouring the separation of the Brooklyn tabernacle from the Presbyterian denomination so long as the attack on Talmage by his ministerial brethren continues.

rea continues.

At a New York hotel on Thursday (Thanksgiving Day)-six tons of poultry were cooked for different charities.

Mrs. Hannah Dailey, aged forty-five, dropped dead at Brooklyn on Thursday, just after her Thanksgiv. A mass meeting of Irishmen is called for Decem-eer 8th, in St. Louis, to advance a project of pro-iding for the destitute Irish in Ireland.

The little child of James Madison, of Guttenber N.J., fell over a precipice at the palisades on Suday a distance of 100 feet and escaped with triffic pluries. Menlo Park by his electric light on Christmas Eve. Wires have been run fram house to house and in vitations have been scattered far and wide to pro

ST. ANDREW'S DAY.

Grand Banquet at Montreal.

Sir Alexander Galt on the Future of the Montreal, Dec. 1.— About one hundred gentlemen sat down to the St. Andrew's dinner in the Windsor Hotel this evening. The chair was occupied by Mr. J. C. Watson, President of the Society, and among those present were Sir A. T. Galt. Col. Dyde, Mr. J. G. Smith, United States Consul, the Presidents of the various societies, and a heet of other prominent gentlemen. The usual loyal toasts were proposed, and the national toast, waich was proposed by the Presidents of the President of the United States was responded to by Consul-General Smith, and that of the "Pects and Poetry of Scotland" by Rev. Jas. Mackie, ef St. Paul's church.

Sir Alexander Galt. in responding to the teast

Sir ALEXANDER GALT, in responding to the teast

of the Dominion be so great, have we not also great reason to be glad and proud of the fact that its population is drawn from the two foremost countries of the world—England and France? I remember a lecture which was delivered by the late-lamented D'Arcy McGes—(applause)—on the mentul outlit of the Canadian. I wish that I could recail the elequent terms in which he speke of the advantages which this country had in the two great recis which occupied it. I will not quete his words, but will refer to the fact that we possess the mist perfect civil and religious liberty. (Great applause.) We now friendly. The tone of the article seems to confirm the recent intelligence of an understanding between England and Persia.

A sensation has been caused by the killing of an Alsatian exile by a German gendrame. The Alsatian was clandestinely visiting his parents at Dannemare, within the German frontier. He fled from the gendrame, who fired. The villagers were much excited and tried to lynch the gendrame.

A Rome despately says the Propaganda Fide has approved the proposal of Cardinal McCloskey for the establishment of three bishoprics in America under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of New York. The Propaganda will instruct Cardinal McCloskey as to the most suitable location of the See.

The Protectionist Association of French Industry, addressing a petition to the Government, states that the crisis has assumed larger proportions than ever in the last ten months. The very existence of the state of the great state in the latest should we administer the trust reposed in us? It cannet for one ment the McCloskey for the establishment of three bishoprics in America under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of New York. The Propaganda will instruct Cardinal McCloskey as to the most suitable location of the See.

The Protectionist Association of French Industry, addressing a petition to the Government, states that the crisis has assumed larger proportions than ever in the last ten months. The very existence of that of the state of the great state is the suitable force of the state of the great state in the latest showed the three trust reposed in us? It cannot for one month the McCloskey for the establishment of three bishoprics in America under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of New York. The Propaganda will instruct Cardinal McCloskey as to the most suitable location of the See.

The Protectionist Association of French Industry, addressing a petition to the Government, states that the crisis has assumed larger proportions than ever in the state of the great state of the great state of the great state of the THE FUTURE OF CANADA

Late advices from several important agoing off constantly there. It is now stated that Parnell will probably not go to America, in consequence of the arrests and coming trials.

GREAT MERTING AT LIVERPOOL.

A great Home Rule meeting was held at Liverpool this afternoon opposite St. Georgie Rill. I twas highly successful in point of numbers. It is estimated that 20,000 persons were gathered together. Mr. Parnell and Mr. Finnigan, both members of Parliament, spoke energetically against the action of the Government with regard to the Irish arrests. The proceeding were orderly. The amnouncement that the agitations were determined to carry on the work they had begun was hailed with greats enthusiasm. Mr. Parnells and Mr. Finnigan, both members of Parliament, spoke energetically against the action of the Government with regard to the Irish arrests. The proceeding power entrusted to them for the purpose of putting into force a process of law which should give them political advantage. He work they had begun was hailed with greats enthusiasm. Mr. Parnells and the self-stream of the catholic churches of the Metropol, but against the Coron, from whom it held authority, than by perverting the forms of law in order throughout it reland undicate a better feeling the negative proportions than ever in the Coron, from a sarked increase in the disposition on the part of the tents at the various poor the coron of law which as the various poor the coron of the coron of

believe that

"HE POLICY OF PREE TRADE

adopted in England thirty years age would, had it been adopted by foreign countries, by the United States, and the continent of Europe at that time, or sconer, led to such a deeire in England simply for the acquisition of wealth, as would have caused her people to lose sight of their duties in regard to more important matters. I believe it would have had the effect of weakening, if not of destraying, the connection between her colonies and herself.

Sir Alexander concluded with a putrietic appeal to Canadians to be ever ready to attest their loyalty, and resumed his seat amidst enthusiastic cheers.

MELANCHOLY DROWNING AC-CIDENT.

The Bodies of Three Children Found. CAYUGA, Dec. 1.—About three miles from Cayuga on Suaday afternoon, Nov. 30th, two children of Wm. Lercy, farmer, a boy and a girl and a daughter of Benj. Foster were found drowned in a small poid near Lercy's dwelling. The pond being partially covered with ice, it is supposed they went sut for amosement, and broke through. The children's ages rayed from through. The children's ages ranged from eight to fourteen years.

Now is the time of year for Pneumonia, Lung Fover, &c. Every family should have a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. Don't allow for one moment that cough to Don't allow for one moment was cough to take hold of your child, your family or yourself. Consumption, Asthma, Preumonia, Croup, Hemmorrhages, and other fatal diseases may set in. Although it is true GERMAN SYRUF is curing thousands of these dread diseases, yet it is much better to have it at hand when three doses will cure you. One bottle will last your whole Westport, Mass., on the 20th November.
The life-like appearance of the remains induced friends to postpone the funeral.
There is no change in the body thus far.

Tamily a winter and keep you safe from danger. If you are consumptive, do not rest until you have tried this remedy.

Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75-cents. Sold by your Department. family a winter and keep you safe from