BELGIUM HAS NEW PLAN TO FORCE BERLIN

London, May 1.—A plan for reconciliation of the British and French views were the steps to be taken to enforce the payment of reparations by Germany was submitted by M. Jaspar, Belgian foreign minister at a meeting of the Supreme Council this afternoon.
This plan now is under consideration by the British Cabinet, the Allied experts and the other delegations, and will be further discussed at another meeting of the council at eleven o'clock Monday morning.
The plan would allow France to continue her preparations for the penalties to be applied in view of the failure of Germany to comply with the terms of the treaty with respect to reparations and war criminals and at the same time would meet the British view that Germany should be given a short extension of time to meet the Allied terms and give guarantees.

Belgian Terms
M. Jaspar's plan, proposes, first, that the terms should be submitted to Germany with an ultimatum, and second, that immediate military preparations should be made to enforce the terms at the conclusion of the period named in the ultimatum. Premier Lloyd George would not commit himself to the plan before consulting his cabinet, which he did soon after the council broke up. Even then all that British official circles would say was: "There seems to be a movement of opinion on the part of the Allies favoring this suggestion." Hope was expressed that the experts would submit a unanimous report on tomorrow's meeting of the council.

Short Council Meeting
There was only a short meeting of the council today, the one fixed for this morning being called off as the experts who had been at work hours on it and had not completed the British and French plans and because of the new situation arising in view of the British learning of the Reparation Commission's report with regard to Germany's indebtedness to the Allies. Premier Briand and Mr. Lloyd George, however, had a half hour's conversation. The afternoon session at which M. Jaspar's proposal was submitted also a brief one, for it was considered this should go before the experts, who met tonight to consider it in conjunction with other matters, while a small drafting committee was appointed to deal with it.

Application of Penalties
Another committee on which the military and financial experts are sitting was formed to draw up plans for application of the penalties should Germany fail to satisfy the Allies. These committees of experts include members of the various governments. Great Britain being represented by Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for the colonies, Edward S. Montague, secretary for India; Alfred Mond, secretary for health, and Sir Liang-Worthington-Evans, secretary for war; France, by M. Berthelot, general secretary of the foreign office and C. Doumer, minister of finance; Belgium by L. Theunys, minister of finance, and Italy by the Marquis Della Torretta.

Paris, May 1.—The reparations commission today made public its note to the German war burdens commission on reparation. The communication which is dated May 1, informs the German commission of the intention of the reparations commission to establish within the shortest time possible the amount of damages for which Germany owes reparations under Article 233 of the treaty of Versailles.

Meanwhile without prejudice for the foregoing accounting, the reparations commission, notifies the War Burdens Commission that twelve billion marks in gold are due today. The note is signed by Louis Dubois, president of the reparations commission and M. De LaCroix, former premier of Belgium.

Teeth Extraction In Year 1833

The extraction of teeth in the thirties at Westcock, N. B.
A very amusing incident is related by Mr. Bosford, of Moncton, as to how Mr. Wetmore (afterwards Judge Wetmore) had his lower molar pulled out on one occasion. It is well known that the marshes of Sackville were formerly the sportsman's paradise and many a large bag of snipe, woodcock, duck and partridge were shot on the Tantramar. (The name Tantramar is taken, it is believed, from the noise the wild fowl made). In the fall sportsmen from Halifax, St. John and other places frequented Sackville in the sporting season. Among the many who visited the old colonial home of the late Judge William Bosford was Mr. Wetmore, also the late Chief Justice Allen. One day Mr. Wetmore was taken with an excruciating toothache. Many were the remedies, lotions and panaceas tried in vain; the toothache became unbearable something had to be done, at last one of the company suggested that a stout string be tied securely around the tooth; then a hole was bored through a leaden gunball. The gun was loaded with a small charge of gun powder and the ball with the string attached to it was put into the gun. They went to the front door, out in the portico. Mr. Wetmore was instructed to open his mouth as wide as he could. Bang went the gun, out came the tooth; every one looked surprised, especially when some one on looking up saw a three prong tooth embedded in the ceiling of the portico. The tooth was too large to follow the gun ball, which had gone through the ceiling and roof, but the tooth was left in the ceiling, and many a good laugh visitors had, years afterwards, when told of the ridiculous incident. Anyway it cured the toothache and the gentleman was none the worse for the improvised forceps, ball and powder.

"YES, and that is just how I feel."
"What seems to be the matter?"
"Why, I had tonsillitis, and my whole system seemed to be poisoned and run down. So much so that I do not seem to gain strength."
"Will you let me be your doctor and do as I tell you?"
"I will do anything to get strong and well. I have been sitting here too long already."
"Well, you send to the drug store for six boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and take one pill after each meal and at bedtime. Believe me, it will not be long until you feel the benefit of this treatment and find yourself gaining in health and vigor."
"How do you know?"
"I know from personal experience. After I had the 'flu' I was left just like you are now—all run down; could not sleep; the little food I ate did not seem to do me any good, and I was getting pretty blue."
"Yes."
"Well, my wife had been using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and insisting on me giving it a trial. You know the rest, for I was soon about again, as hale and hearty as ever. I have told lots of people about this Nerve Food, and never knew it to fail yet."
"You are to be the doctor in this case, so I will follow your advice."
