The following gentlemen acted as Judges at the Exhibition:
FOR CATTLE AND HORSES.
Messrs. JOHN CAMPBELL, Zoro.
WILLIAM SHIPLEY, London.
ROBERT ROBSON, do.
W. BRYTH, Nissour.
S. PUYOGLLE, S. Easthope.
JOHN BIDNER, Nissour.
FOR FARM PRODUCE.
Messrs. L. COUTTENDEN, St. Mary.
WILLIAM GATES, Nissour.
M. HARRISON, St. Mary.
When the business of the day was over 33 Gentlemen sat down to an excellent Dinner, prepared by mine host Mr. SAMUEL FRILLER, and as the hour was late (5 o'clock), the party seemed to themselves ample justice. The cloth being removed, the usual legal and private toasts were given; a number of choice songs were sung, which added greatly to the hilarity of the evening. As a late hour the whole party departed, all delighted with the occasion which had called them together. The day was fine and there was a good turn out of Cattle—the judges allowed they were in better condition by far than what can be found in other settlements. As a proof of this assertion, I may state that Twenty-three hundred dollars was left in St. Mary for Cattle sold to dealers, who had come from a distance. This certainly looks well in a place like this, when only six years ago it was a dreary wilderness, seldom visited by the white man.
I may mention also that the first blast was taken (some day) in the new Foundry lately erected by Messrs. Burdock, Veree & Co., and as they are determined to sell their castings as cheap as they can be had in old establishments, it will be a great advantage to the settlers.
Yours truly,
WILLIAM BARRON, Secy.

THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT
AND
COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.
Published every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.
The Transcript is printed on a sheet nearly as large as any used in the Province; and should circumstances permit, it will be still further enlarged in the course of the ensuing summer.
During the approaching Session of Parliament the Transcript will contain Reports of the Proceedings sufficiently comprehensive to furnish Record of all that occurs in both Legislative Bodies.
As a Family Newspaper, the Transcript will support its old character. A portion of its spare space will be devoted to the insertion of miscellaneous matter of every interesting and Literary character, and every thing otherwise to morals will be carefully avoided.
We have commenced, and intended to continue, a series of Biographical Sketches from Chambers' Miscellany of Useful and Entertaining Tracts and other Works; and during the present season, notice will be taken of the Lectures delivered at the several Literary Institutions of this city, which we commenced last winter, and which gave general satisfaction.
TERMS OF THE TRANSCRIPT BY MAIL.
The price of Subscription of the Montreal Transcript, (when sent by mail) is TWELVE SHILLINGS per annum, payable in advance. To facilitate the remittance of the price, we will send three different copies of the Transcript enclosed in blue or green covers; and if no remittance is made, the paper shall, in every case, be discontinued. As the paper is given to subscribers at the lowest possible price, all money letters must be post paid; and those which are not, the amount of postage will be deducted from the money sent.
The Transcript is sent to Subscribers in the country twice or three times a week, at their option. The whole of the reading matter of Thursday and Saturday papers being put into one sheet—thus saving the Subscriber one-third postage, the price of subscription to the both is the same. Subscribers, in writing for the Transcript, will please mention whether they wish the tri-weekly or semi-weekly paper sent to them.
Newspapers with whom we exchange, please copy this Notice, which we will be happy to reciprocate in the same way.

NEW WORKS.
CHAMBERS' MISCELLANY.
OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE, Edited by ROBERT CHAMBERS, author of Cyclopaedia of English Literature: With Elegant Illustrative Engravings. Price 25s. per No.
GOLD, KENDALL & LINCOLN are happy to announce that they have completed arrangements with Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for the re-publication, in semi-monthly numbers, of the Cyclopaedia of English Literature; and to bring all the aids of the press to bear on the cultivation of the feelings of the people—to impress correct views on important moral and social questions—suppress every species of error and fraud—and to diffuse foreign science—give a zest to every-day occupations by ballad and lyrical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive friend and guide, a lively Fireside companion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books.
The universally acknowledged merits of the Cyclopaedia of English Literature, by the same author, connected with its rapid sale, and the unbounded commendation bestowed by the press, give the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire success of the present work.
The publication has already commenced, and will be continued semi-monthly. Each number will form a complete work, and every third number will be furnished with a title page and table of contents, thus forming a beautifully illustrated volume of over 500 pages of useful and entertaining reading, adapted to every class of readers. The whole will be completed in THIRTY numbers, forming Ten elegant Volumes.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
We are glad to see an American issue of this publication, and especially in so neat and convenient a form. It is a gem of a compilation, distinguished by the good taste which has been shown in all the publications of the Messrs. Chambers. It unites the useful and the entertaining. We hope its circulation will be large enough to supplant, to a great extent, the namby-pamby and immoral works which have so long been too widely circulated.
This work can be sent by mail to any part of the country. A direct remittance to the publishers of Six Dollars will pay for the entire work. This liberal discount for advance payment will nearly cover the cost of postage on the work. Those wishing for one or more sample numbers can remit their orders to the following:—Bookellers and Agents supplied on the most liberal terms.

NEW WORKS.
CHAMBERS' MISCELLANY.
OF USEFUL AND ENTERTAINING KNOWLEDGE, Edited by ROBERT CHAMBERS, author of Cyclopaedia of English Literature: With Elegant Illustrative Engravings. Price 25s. per No.
GOLD, KENDALL & LINCOLN are happy to announce that they have completed arrangements with Messrs. Chambers, of Edinburgh, for the re-publication, in semi-monthly numbers, of the Cyclopaedia of English Literature; and to bring all the aids of the press to bear on the cultivation of the feelings of the people—to impress correct views on important moral and social questions—suppress every species of error and fraud—and to diffuse foreign science—give a zest to every-day occupations by ballad and lyrical poetry—in short, to furnish an unobtrusive friend and guide, a lively Fireside companion, as far as that object can be attained through the instrumentality of books.
The universally acknowledged merits of the Cyclopaedia of English Literature, by the same author, connected with its rapid sale, and the unbounded commendation bestowed by the press, give the publishers full confidence in the real value and entire success of the present work.
The publication has already commenced, and will be continued semi-monthly. Each number will form a complete work, and every third number will be furnished with a title page and table of contents, thus forming a beautifully illustrated volume of over 500 pages of useful and entertaining reading, adapted to every class of readers. The whole will be completed in THIRTY numbers, forming Ten elegant Volumes.
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
From the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.
We are glad to see an American issue of this publication, and especially in so neat and convenient a form. It is a gem of a compilation, distinguished by the good taste which has been shown in all the publications of the Messrs. Chambers. It unites the useful and the entertaining. We hope its circulation will be large enough to supplant, to a great extent, the namby-pamby and immoral works which have so long been too widely circulated.
This work can be sent by mail to any part of the country. A direct remittance to the publishers of Six Dollars will pay for the entire work. This liberal discount for advance payment will nearly cover the cost of postage on the work. Those wishing for one or more sample numbers can remit their orders to the following:—Bookellers and Agents supplied on the most liberal terms.
