

THE TABLE, G. T. M. SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

Table with columns for destination, departure, and arrival times for various routes.

Huron Signal.

GODERICH, JULY 12, 1866.

WHAT IS TO BE?

We had almost added "Will be," complete the well-worn assertion of a philosopher who is not considered by many any more orthodox than he should be, but it would be presumption on our part to meddle with a theme which has engaged the loftiest intellects of the world of thought.

The Amalgamation Bill.

As to the probable fate of the Amalgamation Bill now before the House, the Ottawa correspondent writes: "I have taken some pains to ascertain the feeling of the House as regards the Bill to amalgamate the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway with the Grand Trunk."

The Fenian Dead.

How is it that we have had no intimation thus far as to the number of Fenians killed at Ridgeway? A member of the Queen's Own—a highly respectable young man—was in Goderich yesterday and informed us that he saw thirty eight dead Fenians buried in two pits at Ridgeway.

A Liberal Offer.

On Monday last Mr. Banks introduced a bill establishing conditions for the admission of the states of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Canada East and Canada West, and for the organization of territorial governments.

Horrible Accident.

An accident almost too terrible to conceive occurred a fortnight ago to a man named Thomas, of the name of the "Huron" on the Toronto and Goderich route.

THE 4TH OF JULY.

Our good town seems fated to celebrate the 4th of July. Last year an inadvertent proclamation was issued proclaiming that day a holiday in order to enable parties to join in an excursion to Eggleston, and this year a 1st man, Woods, alias the Canadian Blondin sent up a few bills announcing that he would on the 4th of July "walk the rope."

MR. GALT'S MONEY SCHEME.

The scheme of Mr. Galt for raising $5,000,000 by the issue of legal tender notes instead of borrowing from England, is more extensive than at first appeared by the public. We have not yet before us a full explanation of the matter, but from all the information that can be gathered, it would appear that the banks of the country are to be called upon during this year to give up their own circulation and send out government notes instead, the inducement being a discount of five per cent. We cannot but regard this scheme as dangerous in the extreme. It is true that the banks of Canada have not acted during the past few years upon the principle of extending the greatest possible benefits to the greatest possible number, but they have been established upon a sound basis, and it is obvious that by expanding their circulation largely at certain seasons, they have aided materially in enabling us to market our agricultural products.

DEPARTURE OF THE TROOPS.

The Volunteer force stationed at Goderich has been broken up very hastily. On Wednesday evening, (4th) an order came up from the Colonel commanding the Seaforth and Hamburg Cos. to be relieved from active service for the present, and to be sent home, and for the Southampton Rifles to be prepared to march to Sarona.

HURON TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Annual Meeting of this Association will be held in the Clinton School House on Saturday the 21st inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Township of Huron.

The midsummer examination of the scholars in school section No. 8 in the Township of Huron, came off on Saturday 30th ult., and the Teacher Mr. Truss hit upon the idea of having a Social Feast after the usual course of examination was ended.

THE MILLINIA ESTIMATES.

The general estimate of the Millinias for the year ending 30th June, 1865, was brought down after the House adjourned. The following are the items: Departmental salaries and contingencies, $92,850; Compensation for accidents on drill, 2,600; Ammunition, 30,500; Military Schools, 100,000; Books of arms, salaries of storekeepers, 50,000; Clothing and equipment, 241,000; Brigade Major's allowance, 19,000; Efficient volunteer corps, 110,000; Amount to Imperial Government, 45,000; For stores, 820; Buildings for Magazines of arms and military stores at London, 20,000; Compensation in lieu of land, 10,000; For general militia service, 74,300; Total, $1,500,000.

Benedek the Austrian Commander.

Of Benedek's later experiences in war, and especially his operations in the Balkans, we find the following in a contemporary: "At the breaking out of the war with Prussia and France in 1859, Benedek, promoted to field-marshal lieutenant, found himself at the head of the division composed of the 8th and 5th brigades which he had therefore not participated in Magenta, but distinguished himself greatly in command of the 2nd division, which he led to a victory at the battle of Custoza, where he lost 9,000 men against 36,000 French, and which the latter lost 17,000 men, two generals and 22 staff officers, which his own loss amounted to 370."

The General Plan of the Campaign in Germany.

Gradually the form of the campaign in central Europe begins to unfold. We can say that the Austrian plan has been adopted, because we know what they originally were, but it seems certain that those which a fortnight ago were attributed to them in Germany can hardly be carried into execution. It was said that the Austrians, having massed a powerful army in Bohemia, and completely isolated the alliance of Saxony, would make the best use of the advantage. A railway and several roads made the country in a few hours would place the whole of the kingdom in their hands. What, then, would be the nature of the campaign? It would be the occupation of Dresden, and that in a few days after a declaration of war, their lines should extend from Leipzig to the Elbe, and the Prussian army, which was in the hands of the Austrians, would be completely isolated. The Austrians have no doubt, some of their generals are, their troops eager, and it is their obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. But as yet all the advantages have been on the side of the Prussians. Yesterday the telegraph announced that the Prussians had taken possession of Pina, and that the Saxons were marching to the aid of the Prussians. It is said that the Prussians had taken possession of Pina, and that the Saxons were marching to the aid of the Prussians. FROM OTTAWA.

The following extract from a letter to the Hon. Mr. Edward Cardwell, to Viscount Monck, dated Downing Street, 23rd June, 1866, is of interest to day. "I have received with great satisfaction the intelligence conveyed to me by your despatch, No. 47, of the 6th inst. I do not doubt that the Prussian army, which is in the hands of the Austrians, would be completely isolated. The Austrians have no doubt, some of their generals are, their troops eager, and it is their obvious interest to be successful at the beginning of the campaign. But as yet all the advantages have been on the side of the Prussians.
