MINERS THEMSELVES CONTROL THE SITUATION

Both Operators and Miners' Representatives are Anxious for Men to Return to Work but Except in Fernie and Lundbrek, the Men Voted Against Going Back--The Mines are Idle To day--Conciliation Board Meets Tomorrow.

FROM OUR OWN MAN. Fernie, April 28.--There will be no work in any of the mines today, and the situation here is now very serious.

On Saturday Deputy Minister of Labor Mackenzie King had posters printed and put up around town telling of the dispute between the various coal companies and their employees.

Miners Fear a Ruse. Seen Sunday night, President Sherman of the miners' organization said the reason the vote went contrary to expectation was that the men were afraid to go back to work without an agreement.

Men Talking of Arming Themselves. The miners seem to have the idea that an armed force will be called in, and the topic among groups on street corners this afternoon was sharp shooting and arms and ammunition.

Representative Disappointed. William Graham, representative of No. 2 Bankhead, representing Frank Coleman, Little, Bellevue, Hillcrest and Lundbrek, says that since the miners have voted against the proposition to return to work.

King's Explanation of Vote. Interviewed tonight, Mackenzie King said that the adverse vote down in the Crow's Nest Pass was due to the men not having had a complete and sympathetic explanation of the law.

RIVER NOW OPEN. The remaining river ice between Edmonton and Strathcona went out at noon yesterday and with the exception of some cakes along the banks the river is now clear of ice.

BANK CLEARINGS CONTINUE TO SOAR. Edmonton bank clearings continue to show upward and a new high level in the history of the city was this week established, reaching $1,122,389.

ADDITION TO PUBLIC HOSPITAL. The addition to the Public Hospital will be ready to receive patients after another week. It will contain two large public wards for male patients and will accommodate about thirty beds.

NEW STAGE ROUTE. A company of local men known as the Edmonton, Pembina and North West Stage Co. has been organized in a stage line from this city to the Red River, eighty miles distant, and intervening points.

DEATH OF JOHN J. DOWNING. The death of John J. Downing, bartender at the Pandemonium Hotel, occurred at his home, 672 Elizabeth street, this morning at seven o'clock. The deceased had been seriously ill with pneumonia for the past week. He had come to Edmonton from England seven years ago and was about 40 years of age. He leaves a wife and three children.

PHENIX. The Phoenix is the oldest and most respected citizens' club in the city. It was organized in 1870 and has since that time been a source of pride to the community. The club has a large membership and is active in various social and sporting events.

FIVE PREMIERS AT CONFERENCE

The eyes of a world-wide empire have turned to old London, where there have gathered the Premiers of the great self-governing colonies for a conference on imperial affairs.

President Lindsay, of the Operators' Association, interviewed tonight said he had nothing to say except that the operators have done their best to settle matters, and after rejecting every offer made by the district board of miners are willing to rest their case with the public and an investigation board.

Observing Secrecy. The statement regarding last week's conference proceedings, and which would prove of great interest to the public, is being kept secret by both parties.

Situation Saturday. Fernie, B. C., April 27.--There was little change in the situation here today. At Bankhead and Bellevue and Coleman, the miners voted for going back to work on Monday. The majority, and 125 against. The majority was largely against a resumption of work.

LOCALS. The Elks Club meet this evening in Rennie's Academy. Count Von Hammerstein left yesterday for Athabasca Landing.

DEATH OF JOHN J. DOWNING. The death of John J. Downing, bartender at the Pandemonium Hotel, occurred at his home, 672 Elizabeth street, this morning at seven o'clock. The deceased had been seriously ill with pneumonia for the past week.

For Houde. Important Evidence Taken at Wood Murder Trial This Morning.

The most important evidence yet adduced by the crown to connect Victor Houde with the murder of George Wood was brought forward this morning in the three witnesses who gave their testimony before Magistrate Wade.

By the testimony of Mrs. Starratt, sergeant Tidsbury and Chief of Police Evans, it was brought out that Houde came out of the shack several minutes after Wood entered, at about twenty minutes before the evening of April 4th, that Houde stated the next day when being taken to the station that he had in row the previous afternoon with Wood and that Houde after his arrest wished Dr. Braithwaite to examine his face in order to give evidence at his trial of how badly Wood had used him.

The evidence given this morning follows: Mrs. Starratt, whose residence is a short distance from the shack, where the fatality occurred, testified as follows: "I live in Edmonton near the Houde shack. I knew Wood, Houde and John Peacock the night when on the evening of Thursday, 4th April, I saw George Wood go into the shack about two minutes before eight o'clock. This was between fifteen and twenty minutes to six. This was the last I saw of either of them."

To Mr. Robertson--"I saw the accused twice at our place. I have seen several times in the evening of the season last night. A good musical program was provided in which the Young Men's Club of McDougall church held the meeting following Tuesday afternoon the following officers were elected for the evening year: President, Miss M. Cheung; vice-president, Archie Jones; secretary, York Blayney; treasurer, Miss Ada S. Entwistle.
