More Power to Him.

It would appear that the end is not yet in regard to the investigation of the anarchy and violence which has alienated sympathy from some of the labour agitators in America. Mr. W. J. Burns, who had charge of the investigation against the McNamara's, states that there are developments to come in reference to the dynamiting conspiracy and that men higher up in official life than the McNamara's are to be arrested. There is also a suspicion that some of those most vehement in shouting for the hanging of the two convicted men want to see them silenced, and some of the Union have not been slow in giving expression to their suspicions. It would be beneficial to the States, it would be especially helpful to the principle of unionism if American unionism should be purged from the sinister influence of murder and criminal conspiracy. All men who can give utterance to such a plea as James B. McNamara did, viz., "I am guilty, but I did what I did for principle," are a danger to society and a menace to unionism. Such a detestable doctrine as murder for "principle" should be frowned upon by all right thinking men and women, and all who hold it wooded out from industrial and other societies. The American authorities have a duty to perform in this respect, and the general body of union workers will, we are sure, help them to perform it thoroughly and will back Detective Burns in exposing all who are bringing unionism into hatred and contempt by murder and other criminal outrages.

HAD RUG STOLEN.—A man named Piccott yesterday evening reported to the police that a rug was stolen from his carriage as it stood on Water St., and while he was away from it for a few minutes. He has no idea of who the thief is.

Rumor of Assassination Of the King.

Special to Evening Telegram.
HALIFAX, N.S., Noon.
Message has been received from London this morning stating that the rumor is abroad that the King was assassinated at the Royal Camp at Delhi. The rumor was circulated broadcast in London this morning and created tremendous excitement. Officials, however, insisted that the rumor was without foundation, and declared that it probably arose through a report of a slight fire last night in a tent adjoining that of the King. This is the second time such a rumor has been noted abroad. It is extremely improbable there is any foundation whatever for it.

Queen Mary's Earrings

It is because Queen Mary is never seen without earrings that so many smart women of to-day are wearing them. Her Majesty has a really fine collection of these ornaments, some of which are of great historic interest. Many fine pairs were bequeathed to the Queen by her late mother, Mary, Duchess of Teck, who also had a great penchant for earrings. For day wear the Queen usually favors short earrings, generally of single stones which rest on the ear, but in the evening she adopts the picturesque long shape. Her ears are pierced in the old-fashioned style, and she will have nothing to do with the screw fastenings which are almost universally used to-day.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES DIS-TEMPER.

Not Men Enough to Man Life-boats.

Special to Evening Telegram.
WASHINGTON, To-day.
Mr. Frasier, Secretary of the Seamen's Union, Boston, startled the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries by declaring that the majority of passenger carrying ships on the Atlantic coast had not enough members of the crew to man the lifeboats. He said most of the ships carry only boats enough for 75 per cent of the passengers, carrying capacity of the ships. This witness was one of a score of sailors of various trades who urged the passage of the Wilson Bill to improve the conditions of the men in the seafaring trade. The Bill would increase from 72 to 1,000 cubic feet the space for each member of the crew, and from 12 to 16 feet the deck space. It would provide for more efficient men in the fire rooms and for other reforms.

BURNT OUT.

Barely Escaped With Their Lives.
Mr. Devereaux, M. H. A., had two messages this morning. One was from Mr. J. L. Murphy who stated that the residence of George Curtis was burnt to the ground this morning and that nothing was saved, and that the inmates barely escaped with their lives. The other message was from Father Renouf which added that they did not even save their clothes.
The messages relative to above were received from Trepassay.

Died at Heart's Ease.

Mr. George Martin, of Heart's Ease, T.B., who left the General Hospital last Sunday week in the ambulance pronounced incurable, died at his late home last Monday, leaving a widow and one child. Deceased was in his 55th year. His widow writes to Mr. Eli Whiteway, the sad news, thanking him for the great kindness that was shown by him to herself and her husband while in the city. Mr. Martin was buried at Little Heart's Ease, T.B., Wednesday and had a large funeral.

THE DENTIST.

The dentist is an agile mechanic who disseminates a universal sense of duty. He is a pleasing odor of carbolic acid. There is nothing that will break a man of the perfume habit quicker than a chatty tete-a-tete of two hours in a dental office, with most of the chatting being carried on by an electric drill. The dentist is not a backbiter. Whenever he has anything to say to you, he meets you face to face and
