The Surplus Earned.

In 1912 the Canadian Life earned surplus of $1,530,667, exceeding by over $237,000 the earnings of 1911, and by a much larger amount the earnings of any previous year. This is of importance to policyholders, for their Dividends must come from this account.

The Psychology of Sex.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

The dictionary defines sex as a physical difference between man and woman. But sex is vastly more than that. It is really a wide, psychological difference, as difficult to define as it is easy to feel. The peculiar way in which we classify certain things as feminine and others masculine is an interesting expression of the psychological side of sex. For instance, almost every one speaks of a cat as she and a dog as he, without regard to the actual sex of the animal in question. You know yourself that it is quite impossible to see the clumsy, irresponsible, lovable gambols of a puppy and think of him in anything but terms of masculinity (you notice I wrote "him"; I did that quite unconsciously). On the other hand, the cuddly softness, the domesticity, the grace and quickness, in fact the whole temperament and quality of a cat is quite as distinctly feminine. That we would speak of a cow as she has of course a physical foundation. But why should a horse always be he? And yet almost everyone except a horse fancier or a horse owner naturally refers to a horse in the masculine.

Our bestowal of sex upon vegetable and mineral life and upon inanimate objects is an even more striking proof of the psychological character of sex. Theoretically, all such things should be referred to as "it." Actually we express our sense of their masculinity or femininity by the use of he or she. Take the sun and moon, for instance. The sun is "he" and the moon is "she." Sometimes to be sure we do call either of them "it," but it would be quite impossible to call the sun she and the moon he, would it not? That the ancient peoples felt this too their dedications show. In all mythologies the sun was a god and the moon a goddess. One feels just why this is but it is rather difficult to define. I suppose it is because the sun is larger, fiercer and more masterful, while the moon is his gentler and cooler satellite. Why flowers should always be "she" is obvious. Imagine saying "The rose's lips are warm and red, and burning with desire, his heart and soul are all aflame," etc. But why all kinds of ships should be invariably spoken of in the feminine gender rather than the masculine is a question that cannot be solved by this kind of thing. We are all going to vote the straight ticket for Kent, Dwyer and Ryan, for we fully believe that they will be BOND CAN'T LOSE. POUCH COVE VOTER. October 4th, 1913.

Are Cheap Goods Usually Cheap?

That cheap or underpriced goods are not as good as similar articles which higher in price no one can truthfully deny. It is even questionable if the cheaper goods are really worth what is paid for them, but allowing that they are, one is only getting his money's worth after all. Taking motor engines for example, we find some engines are sold at half the price of others of the same Horse Power. This difference in price is accountable for difference in quality of materials and mechanical precision. In the cheaper engine the materials used are not the best and cannot stand up to hard work, whilst the mechanical part is not the result of highly paid experts. The Fairbanks Morse Engine which is an honest price engine, is made of the best materials, designed by gas engine experts, and is the product of a concern who build up to a quality standard, and not down to a price. Being the largest and oldest gas engine concern they are in a position to offer their engines as the product of the cleverest gas engine brains available. NOT ONE COMPLAINT from any of the large number of Fairbanks users in NEWFOUNDLAND, is pretty good proof that their gasolene motors are all right, and their kerosene operating engine is of the same high class and reliable order.

Pouch Cove Resents the Tories.

Dear Mr. Editor.—A Tory heeler drove down here during the week delivering Morris's Budget Speech in pamphlet form. We beg to inform Morris and the people of Newfoundland generally that we just took them and made a fire of them on the public road, just the same as our friends and brother fishermen and toilers did up North, and ordered this heeler to leave our settlement immediately, which you bet he did in a hurry. We would have treated him quite civilly in our usual hospitable manner was it not for the fact that he was using dirty talk we did not like in favour of Howley, Hig-

Labrador Bound'ry Dispute

Some seven or eight years ago Messrs. Job Bros. sold their rooms at Port Burwell, near Engava, to the Moravian Missionaries. On one occasion the Canadian Government attempted to make Job Bros. pay duties to them on goods entered, but they refused. On her last trip the Harmony was called upon to clear and enter at the Custom House the Canadians have established there and to pay duties. The captain did so under protest. The incident will of course raise the question whether or no Port Burwell is on the Canadian or Newfoundland side of the boundary and which will be settled by the Privy Council, to whom the boundary question has been referred.

Indigestion, Gas Or Sick, Sour Stomach

Time It!—"Pape's Diapepsin" makes your upset, bloated stomach feel fine in five minutes. "Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments in your stomach, head aches, belch gas, and vomitate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness. A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction of your druggist hands your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

POLICE COURT.—Two ordinary drunks were each fined $1 or three days. A labourer of Freshwater charged with being drunk and disorderly, was sent down for thirty days. A cooper, drunk, his offence was fined $5 or 14 days. Two ten-year-old school boys, charged with the larceny of two boxes of chocolates, were let go on suspended sentence. An assault case was postponed. A cabman was summoned for disorderly conduct. The case was postponed.

Your Duty.

Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. Its only reference just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well. You did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of alarm ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence; too late then to say: "If I had only, etc., etc." That "if" means too much to many forgetful people. It is not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more than his duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insurance with Percis Johnson's agency, the most popular office in Newfoundland and the least expensive.
