TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

DUBLIN, June 17.
The weekly review on the situation in Ireland issued at Dublin Castle today says that during the week five policemen were killed and thirty-four were wounded, and that two soldiers were killed and one soldier wounded. The review declared that bombing outrages in crowded streets continue a regular feature of rebel operations, resulting in casualties to innocent civilians in greater number than to the police or military. Continuing, the review asserts that there were seventy raids on mails and sixty arrests for outrages and political offences. Of 49 trials of civilians by court martial, 44 resulted in convictions, and five in acquittals. Sentences to fifteen years penal servitude were imposed three times on persons charged with possession of arms and ammunition. The total number of persons interned is given in the review as 2,136.

AIRPLANES AND TROOPS.

BELFAST, June 17.
Five airplanes participated in a sweep made by 5,000 troops in South Monaghan, which terminated today. Several important captures are reported to have been made. The telephone service has been restored.

GUN RUNNING FRUSTRATED.

NEW YORK, June 17.
Assistant United States Attorney, Isaac Cross, to-night asserted that the circumstances surrounding the discovery of nearly 500 machine guns aboard the steamer Eastside at Hoboken, last Tuesday, indicated that they were intended for use against a friendly nation and that therefore their presence was unlawful.

TWELVE TO ONE.

CORK, June 17.
Two auxiliary constables were killed, and four wounded Thursday evening, in an attack on their lorry by Republicans at Rathcoole, near Banteer, County Cork. It is officially stated that four mines were laid on the road near Rathcoole, and that three of them exploded, wrecking three lorries. After this, three hundred civilians attacked the auxiliaries, who numbered twenty-five. Fighting continued for hours, but eventually the Republicans withdrew. An official statement says constabulary scoured the countryside until early this morning. One Republican was found dead, but other dead or wounded are believed to have been carried off.

SECRET SERVICE TRIUMPH.

LONDON, June 17.
The Pall Mall Gazette to-day prints an article on the seizure of arms on board the steamer Eastside, Hoboken, in which the finding of the weapons is described as a triumph for the British Secret Service.
