English folk-fore contains much mythical narrative about ignis fatuus, to which the fire balls bear some slight resemblance. The gradual disappearance of this apparation during the last century may be attributed to the draining of marshes. LADY ASTOR ON L.G. PLYMOUTH, Oct. 28. "Now that my late colleagues are down and out I am not going to turn around and throw mud and insults at them," said Lady Astor who last night was unanimously chosen as official candidate of the Conservative Party for Sutton division of Plymouth. "If you are howling at Lloyd George, Balfour, and Chamberlain who steered us through the war, don't come to me. The country owes a deep debt of gratitude to these men."

RALEIGH'S CAPTAIN DISMISSED. LONDON, Oct. 28. A second court martial arising from the stranding of the cruiser Raleigh opened at Portsmouth yesterday on Captain Arthur Bromley, charged with having negligently or by default stranded and lost the ship. It was alleged that accused was to blame in maintaining a speed of twelve knots under prevailing weather conditions and for not causing soundings to be made sooner. Captain Bromley pleaded not guilty. He was reprimanded and
