In the Transvaal.

Conflict Between the Boers and the British Imminent.

Jameson's Hasty Action Repudiated by the Government.

Telegraphic Communication With the Expedition Cut Off.

Britain's Cordial Relations With Germany Endangered by the Movement—Jameson Condemned by the London Newspapers.

THE INVASION.

London, Jan. 2.—A dispatch to the Times from Cape Town says that consequent upon a letter signed by the leading British inhabitants of Johannesburg, which was sent to Dr. Jameson at Mafeking on Saturday, he crossed the Transvaal from near Mafeking with 700 men next day. It is known that he passed Mafeking at 5 o'clock Monday morning. No further direct news has been received from Transvaal.

The Times, in an editorial, thinks the letter hardly justified Dr. Jameson's startling news. "But it will be necessary," the Times continues, "to wait for further news before judging his action."

"President Kruger would do well to accept the British offer of mediation. He is said to have been so far forgetful of the position of the Transvaal as subject to the suzerainty of Great Britain as to appeal to the French and German consuls for support. Conduct of that kind betrays a remarkable ignorance of the rights of this country over Transvaal, and of her resolution to enforce them. Whatever else we may tolerate at the hands of the Boers, we will not tolerate foreign intervention in any shape within the Transvaal, nor suffer the Transvaal to fall into anarchy."

The Times understands that Dr. Jameson's force is well provisioned for four days' march, and supposes that the wires have been cut so that it is impossible for telegrams to reach him. He will probably take him four days to reach Johannesburg, and the opposing forces. It is estimated that the Boer force, well armed, consists of 800 to 1,000 men with Maxim guns, and about 5,000 burghers, armed with their own rifles and self-supporting. The invasion of the Boer territory is led by Dr. Jameson, the British commissioner, who was so successful in his operations against King Lobengula, resulting in the annexation of Matabeleland to Cape Colony. The afternoon papers in their comments recognize the fact that the invasion of the Transvaal, although made upon the urgent request of thousands of Englishmen and others in the Transvaal, who complain that they have to pay the whole revenue of the country, while being denied representation, is likely to give particular offense at Germany, whose friendship at this critical stage the Marquis of Salisbury is most anxious not to lose.

THE BOERS ADVANCING.

The Boers can put in the field about 6,000 good fighting men, supported with Maxim guns. The Transvaal president, Kruger, has called upon the burghers to defend their country, and a serious conflict is anticipated in spite of the fact that the Colonial Secretary, Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, has telegraphed to Dr. Jameson to withdraw into British territory, and has urged President Kruger to do his utmost to prevent bloodshed.

A dispatch received here from the Transvaal says: The burghers are advancing to meet Jameson. A conflict is hourly expected.

ARBITRATION OFFERED.

Great Britain, through the Colonial Secretary, has offered to arbitrate the matter, but it is feared the offer has come too late, and that most serious consequences are to be apprehended.

The Globe this evening says a dispatch from London that Dr. Jameson has arrived at Johannesburg. Sir Hercules Robinson has by proclamation publicly repudiated Dr. Jameson's action, and has enjoined the British subject to obey the law and remain quiet. Dr. Jameson and his officers have also been ordered to retire immediately. It is hoped that a collision will be averted, but Dr. Jameson cut the wires as he advanced, and he has heard that he contemplated entering the Transvaal he endeavored to stop him, but found that the wires were cut.

FIGHTING MAY BEGIN ANY MINUTE.

The telegram sent by Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to Dr. Jameson, the administrator to the British South African Company, ordering the return of the force of 500 armed men, which Dr. Jameson is alleged to have led to the Transvaal, early evening, until he arrives at Johannesburg, at which place there are arms enough to equip 30,000 men for fighting. President Kruger, according to the latest information received here, has called upon the burghers to arms, and a large force of them is proceeding against Johannesburg. They are advancing rapidly, and a battle is hourly expected.

A cable dispatch received here from Pretoria says that a rising has occurred at Johannesburg. It is added that 200 more armed men belonging to the British Chartered Company crossed the border on Tuesday evening, and that President Kruger is determined to repel the freebooters by force of arms. A conflict between the Boers and Englishmen is expected today.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 2.—The Minister of the Transvaal Republic left here yesterday morning for Berlin in order, it is believed, to make strong representations to the German Government on the subject of the invasion of the Transvaal Republic by the forces of the British South African Company.

The Standard prints a dispatch from its Berlin correspondent saying that the invasion of the Transvaal has caused a storm of indignation in the German capital that has rarely been witnessed. Emperor William yesterday summoned by telegraph the new German ambassador, Herr von Bismarck, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to discuss the situation. The correspondent adds that there is excellent reason for believing that the German Government expect a peaceful and satisfactory settlement of the affair. The Cologne Gazette says that Germany has sent an official inquiry to Great Britain as to what steps are to be taken by the British Government in regard to the invasion of the Transvaal by the British South African Company.

London, Jan. 2.—The newspapers this morning unanimously expressed approval of the action of Colonial Secretary Chamberlain in ordering the return of the Transvaal expedition. The Liberal newspapers especially laud the statesmanlike wisdom of the Colonial Secretary, while the newspapers of the Conservative party recall proofs of Dr. Jameson's ability and discretion, and urge that he be not condemned until the reasons for his actions have been made known. The Times gives a qualified approval of Mr. Chamberlain's course and expresses the strongest sympathy with the foreign residents of the South African Republic.

The Times prints a dispatch from its Berlin correspondent, in which he says: The crisis in the Transvaal endangers British relations with Germany. The Government hitherto has endeavored to restrain the newspapers over which it has some control, but judging from what has already been written one does not like to contemplate what will happen when the restraint is removed. When the German residents of the Transvaal cannot be affected by a grave breach of the public peace, Germany cannot be at a loss for a concrete case for interference. It is some reason to believe that she is determined and resolved under no circumstances to tolerate a disturbance of the statu quo in South Africa.

MOTIVE OF THE MOVEMENT.

It is reported that Dr. Jameson wrote to Commandant Maritz, who cautioned him to retire, as follows: "I have informed you that I intend to proceed with my original plans, which are not hostile against the people of the Transvaal. But we are here in reply to the invitation of the principal residents of the Rand, to assist them in their demands for justice and the ordinary rights of every citizen of a civilized state." It appears from this letter that Dr. Jameson was not induced to take this extraordinary step of invading a friendly country in time of peace by the fear for the safety of women or children or of a native uprising; but in order to support a political movement, which is in the nature of a constitutional agitation for a redress of grievances.

Chas. D. Johnston, boot and shoe merchant, is seeking trusteeship in ward 4. He will be elected without doubt. 80c.

ASIATIC TURKEY—FRESH TROUBLE.

London, Jan. 2.—According to a dispatch from Orfah, Asiatic Turkey, there were fresh outbreaks there on Saturday and Sunday. The Turkish Government has ordered the Vali of Aleppo to furnish an escort to Miss Shattuck and three native teachers from Orfah to Ainab. All the missionaries in Anatolia are in safety.

The Porte has made evasive replies to the foreign diplomats who have offered to mediate between the Turks and the Armenians for the surrender of Zeitoon, which place is now in the hands of the Armenians. The foreign representatives accordingly held another meeting yesterday, and decided to make another effort to induce the Porte to accept mediation, and named the foreign consuls at Aleppo as mediators.

"Kaffirs," however, subsequently rallied on the receipt of a Berlin dispatch, saying that Dr. Jameson and his expeditionary force and six Maxim guns had arrived at Johannesburg, and that he was in friendly communication with President Kruger. Consuls dropped 9-16. The Times of Africa asserts that Queen Victoria has peremptorily ordered the Duke of Fife to resign his
