LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—B. B. Oiler, Q.C., Toronto, is in the city.

The White Sulphur Springs baths will be opened May 24 for the season.

—The speeches that stand the wear and tear in social life are seldom clever, only kind.

—Be sure and get to the M. C. R. depot on time May 24 for Detroit. Train leaves at 7:15 (city time) sharp.

—Mr. A. J. McDougall, of New York, central passenger agent for the Illinois Central Railroad, is in the city.

—Miss M. O'Brien, who has been at the Sacred Heart Academy here for some time, left yesterday for her home in Memphis, Tenn.

—While en route to a fire on Sunday morning an axle of No. 3 Company's hose reel broke. No other damage to the apparatus resulted.

—Rev. Ghosn-el Howie, Ph.D., who is well-known to London people, intends to start for Mount Lebanon in August next. He may go as the official representative of some church.

—Rev. M. P. Talling will deliver a lecture on "Queen Victoria" in the school room of St. James' Presbyterian Church this evening. The subject is appropriate at this season.

—Two large furniture cars filled with scenery for the "Old English Fyre," which will be held under the auspices of the Protestant Orphans' Home, arrived in this city yesterday.

The St. Andrew district meeting has passed a resolution, thanking Rev. Stephen Bond, of Petrolia, late of London, for the able manner in which as chairman he handled the business.

—The Sons of England Band, eighteen strong, under the leadership of Mr. C. W. Channer, will give a concert on the 24th to take the part in the different parades and the concert in the evening.

—Mr. Crawford, a London postoffice employee, is visiting Mr. S. Wotten, of the Labor Bureau. Mr. Crawford is in London starting a savings bank in London similar to the one run by the Associated Charities here—Hamilton Times.

—The Fraser House, Port Stanley, will open for the season to-morrow. The picnic grounds have been cleared, and they now present a neat and fresh appearance. For to-morrow's outing Mr. Fraser will provide music for the dancing, and hot and cold water will be supplied to picnickers free of charge. The grounds will be under the supervision of the genial manager, Mr. Wm. Fraser.

The Last of the Season.
In the direction of amusement few events transpiring in the city during the season have proved such a source of pleasure among the young people as the informal hops conducted by Messrs. Dayton & McCormick, the final one of the series being held last evening in the Palace Dancing Academy. The town and country have been stirred as never before, many persons driving over twenty miles to be present at the services. Sunday last was a time of great awakening. Eleven different services were held, commencing at 7 a.m. and closing at 10:30 p.m. The churches, barns and open houses were all needed to accommodate the crowds. Mr. Crossley's meeting for men only in the opera house was one of marvelous power. Mr. Hunter's meeting in one of the largest churches for women only was equally a wonder. Admission to the inquiry rooms is strictly restricted, no available place being large enough to accommodate the crowds. The question of taking the meetings under canvas has been raised. Every home in town was visited last week. The meetings close on the evening of the 20th.

"A Pair of Kids."
"Laugh if you are wise," and if you decide to have a good hearty laugh see the recent comedian, Ezra Kendall, in his funniest of plays, "A Pair of Kids." This most enjoyable bit of drollery was presented at the Grand Opera House last evening before a fair-sized and delighted audience. Mr. Kendall assumed perfectly the role of Jules Buttner, an agriculturist, and kept the audience in almost continuous laughter. His parodies on "Marguerite" and "Between Love and Duty" were applauded to the echo. His jokes do not belong to the worn-out class, but are new and witty. Mr. J. C. Magee as Doc Do Funny, was the proprietor of the restaurant, and in fact each member of the company did so well that it is almost needless to make individual mention. Arthur Dunn sang a couple of good songs and did some clever dancing, while Charlotte was fascinating in her serpentine and hand dancing. "A Pair of Kids" is a really enjoyable play, and deserves large houses. It will be produced this and to-morrow evenings, and there will also be a matinee to-morrow afternoon.

LONDON DISTRICT.

Methodist Ministers Hold Their Annual Meeting at the Centennial.
The annual district meeting of the London Methodist Ministerial Association was held in the Centennial Church yesterday, commencing at 10 a.m. Rev. J. R. Gundy was in the chair, and, after singing, Rev. Joseph Philip read a portion of Scripture.

Rev. D. W. Sanderson and Rev. J. G. Laird led in prayer. Rev. Charles Smith was elected secretary, and Revs. Walter Rigby and Wm. Godwin were appointed assistant secretaries.

The following ministers were in attendance: Revs. J. R. Gundy (chairman), S. McVittie, G. B. Sanderson, D.D., J. C. Paulin, D.D., John G. Laird, T. Natrass, T. Hadwin, Charles Smith, Thomas Crews, Walter Rigby, Joseph Philip, Joseph Ward, M.A., B.D., C. E. McIntyre, Wm. Godwin, Eli Middleton, H. W. Crews, M.A., Chas. Clarke, Wm. Quance, T. W. Blatchford, B.A., J. H. Andrews, W. B. Creighton, B.A., T. T. George, R. J. Garbutt, L.L.B.

The usual examination of character was the first order of business. Satisfactory testimony as to character, etc., was rendered by Rev. Leonard Gutz, J. Chapple, J. H. Robinson, Geo. Brown and the brethren attending college.

An adjournment was then made until 2 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The first business taken up in the afternoon was the examination of probationers. Rev. G. N. Hazen, who has been on probation for three years, was continued on trial.

C. B. Keenleyside, B.A., J. A. Ayearst, Samuel McVittie and W. B. Creighton, two-year probationers, were recommended to be continued on trial.

Charles Clarke will be continued as a one-year probationer.

Bro. Kerr was given permission to return home on account of his wife's illness, and the sympathy of the board was extended to him.

The following young men were received on probation: J. A. Jackson and Leonard Bartlett.

Rev. Dr. Sanderson, J. G. Laird, Joseph R. Gundy and Charles E. McIntyre will furnish the conference with obituaries of the three ministers—Rev. Geo. Boyd, Rev. Thos. Conford and Rev. Dr. Evans—members of the London district, who have died during the year.

According to custom the meeting was then thrown open for voluntary testimony of esteem from the members of the district concerning those valued brethren whom they present had learned to love but had lost awhile. Revs. Dr. Sanderson, Dr. Antill, J. G. Laird, Joseph R. Gundy, J. H. Orme, Charles Smith and others participated most feelingly in this part of the session.

The following will be continued on the superannuated list: G. R. Sanderson, Wm. Chapman, Leonard Gutz, J. H. Orme, Jas. Kennedy, J. H. Robinson, J. G. Laird, Timothy, Natrass, E. H. George, George Lewis, Thomas Hadwin, John Chapman, Thomas Crews, J. P. Morden and George Bennett.

The session adjourned at 6 o'clock to meet again at 10 o'clock this morning with the laymen of the different churches, when matters of finance will be discussed.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.
