SNAP-SHOTS AT VARIOUS SPORTS.

According to dispatches, Hildebrand, one of the best jockeys that ever to tossed a leg, has had his license revoked because of reckless riding. He has been in considerable trouble of late. Hildebrand was a bootblack in 'Frisco. then took to the horses and immediately became a success. Last year however, he has been hitting the chutes, and the tinkling glasses and the fast company has put the finishing touches on a brilliant rider. Success was too much for him. To obscurity for Hildy.

The fact that Alfred Shrubb, the charrpion distance runner of Great Britain, was refused permission by the British Amateur Athletic Association to go to the United States to compete in the fall meets there because he was not to bear his own expenses is excellent evidence of the jealousy with which amateur sport is guarded in Great Britain against the taint of professionalism. Shrubb will go to America next season, paying his own expenses is excellent expensed.

The Rockets sconed one more in the inith, when J. Wilson got a life on Jackson's error. He stole second, and went to third on a bad throw to second, and served to third. Hosie, made an easy out. This ended their summary storing. Wilson had the McClarys doing little first after Jackson had hit past second. He sakes had his license revoked because of reckless riding.
