[Special to The Advertiser.]

Augusta, Ga., Jan. 31.—John Kelly, of New York, known to the sporting world as "Honest John," who is spending a few days here, announces he probably will referee the Johnson-Jeffries fight. Kelly states he has been asked to referee and probably will accept. He was reluctant to express an opinion on the outcome of the fight owing to his probable engagement as referee, but indicated that he thought Jeffries would win.

Kelly believes there is a streak of yellow in Johnson and that it will show when the negro meets Jeffries. He says Jeffries will be in prime condition and will win if he can judge distance.
