[Special to The Advertiser.]

Chicago, March 19.—Winning the honors in the first professional matches and the final series of the local season, the Berlins took the deciding game from the All-Chicagos 6 to 2, at the Ice Palace last night. Two local stars, Bogan and Marcotte of the Illinois Athlette Chibsens and Marcotte of the Illinois Athlette Chibsens are represented their amateur standing in the hopes of strengthening the local squad in the crucial contest, but the sacrifice was in vain. The Canadisms again triumphed through superior combination play and the individual efforts of Howell, Marks and Nosbitt were futile.

"Red" Prodgers, the flery-headed metoor, was the big villian last night. The canny McGrogor was a willing accomplice. Add Frood to form a diabolical trio and you have the answer why the All-Chicagos were humbled.

Lehman in Star Rush.

Captain Lehman, the goalkeeper for the Berlins, furnished the comedy feature of the game. Two minutes before time was called in the second half the Canadism leader, after blocking a shot for his own goal, left the net unguarded and rushed the puck down the lee, dodging three of his startled opponents and passing the disk to Frood for the final point scored. The line-up:

The danger of prizes for batting was shown on the Detroit team last year when Bush was taken from second place in the batting order because Cobb would not work signals with him. Ty was after hits and the team suffered.
